MARY HAWORTH Reads Advance Support Of The Military Personnel

Dear Mary Haworth: You r correspondent W.N. has a perfect right to protest the military's mistreatment of its small son.

I object to her generalizing, to the effect that "so many military men are deserting their families, that of letting their wives wear the pants in the family."

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dewar, Summerdale, have as their guests, Mr. Albert Cyr of Grand Falls, N.B.

Mrs. Ernest Walker presided over the December meeting of the W.N.M. at the home of Mrs. W. F. Walker on Tuesday afternoon in the church.

The minutes of the last regular and executive meetings were read and approved and the treasurer, W.N. makes his report.

The chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Walter MacAdam, then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. E. Smallman.

Mrs. Peter Pope and Mr. David Darcy were joint hostesses at the former's home in Summerdale recently when they entertained the study book on Kings.

Mrs. Earle Murray invited the members to her home for the January meeting of the IODE.

Mrs. Stanley Brock presided and opened the meeting in the usual manner. Roll call was answered by 10 members and there were four visitors present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and discussed. The cod liver oil capsules were passed and a decision was made to have a cake sale in the near future.

Garment Club Has Meeting

The members of the Grand Garment Club and Pleasant Grove 4th Garment Club met recently with 23 members attending.

It was suggested that next month's roll call be answered by naming a cowboy singer. It was proposed for a large sum of money to be raised for the benefit of the club.

The members decided to hold a Christmas party for the senior citizens of the communities on December 15. A speech on Christmas was given by Rosemary MacDonald, Leona Gibbs, Rita MacDonald, Anita Watts, Katherine Hazelwood, Donna Murphy and Garry MacNabb.

During the study period of the book, Mrs. Kipping, spoke on "Steps to Dental Health." A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge and an enjoyable program presented.

The old slang name "Poleman" is believed derived from the old English verb to pole or to catch.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM J. MACKAY

Young Couple Pledge Vows At Ceremony In Saint John

A wedding of interest to many island friends was solemnized in St. Matthews' Presbyterian Church in Saint John N.B. recently when Rhea Annie, RN daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Beaty of Lancaster, N.B. became the bride of William James Mackay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Mackay, Freehold, P.E.I. Rev. John Humphries officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Donald MacKenzie was the organist and James Munroe was the soloist. Bronze and yellow noisettes decorated the church and the guest presents were marked with frosted bells and white ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Mrs. Brian Doyle as matron of honor and Mrs. Donald Andrews and Miss Kathleen Beatty as bridesmaids. Douglas Clark was the best man and the ushers were Kenneth Mackay, Halifax, N.S. brother of the groom and Keith Barrack, Charlottetown.

The bride was wearing a white, long-sleeved gown with lace and seed pearl trimmed bodice featuring tapered sleeves. The wedding skirt extended in a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of sheer illusion fell from the crown of her hair.

Her attendants were jade green pseudo-sole sheaths with tulle overskirts. Their headresses were of matching tulle in roses and they carried bouquets of bronze and yellow noisettes.

The bride's mother was wearing a maroon blue dress with white maribou hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at El Beltrano. Mr. Humphries proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to the White Mountains, N.H. Mrs. Mackay chose a gold wood vase with white maribou hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and a corsage of yellow roses.
