Pirates Split Sunday To Take Series From Brooks; Yanks Bow To Senators

(By Ed Corrigan, Associated Press Sports Writer)

Pittsburgh Pirates—no respecters of authority, they—finished a four-game set with the National League leading Brooklyn Dodgers Sunday with a doubleheader split.

The Buccos won the first game 7-5 and dropped the second 3-1. But it was good enough to give them the series 3-1.

The second-place Chicago Cubs, however, managed to gain only a half-game on the Dodgers because they split a doubleheader with St. Louis Cardinals, dropping the first 8-2, and taking the nightcap 10-5. So they're 11½ games back.

In other National League action, Milwaukee downed Cincinnati 7-3 and New York edged Philadelphia 4-3.

There was a note of surprise in the American League, too. The Kansas City As won a marathon 14-inning job with Detroit Tigers 9-8 for their fourth straight triumph over the Bengals. In the process they narrowed the Tigers' fifth place margin to six games.

YANKS BOW

The league-leading New York Yankees came acropper at the hands of the forlorn Washington Senators, bowing to ancient Johnny Schmitz 5-0. But Chicago White Sox, current occupants of second place, dropped a 14-9 slugfest to Cleveland Indians, so the Yanks stayed 6½ games in the van.

Boston Red Sox continued their rampage by throttling the Baltimore Orioles 7-2 in the other game.

The Pirates whipped the Brooks mainly through the efforts of Ronnie Kline, who took over the pitching chores in the third inning and held the Flatbush blockbusters at bay the rest of the way. He retired the last 16 men in order for his second fine relief job in two days. The Brooks had piled up a 5-2 margin in the first two innings.

But the prosperity was too good to last and Billy Loes and Clem Labine combined to hurl a workmanlike six-hitter in the nightcap. The Brooks scored all their runs in the sixth inning off Max Surkont.

Floyd Wooldridge whipped the Cubs for the Cardinals in the opener. His mates collected five runs in the first two innings, more than enough to insure the triumph. But the second game was another matter and manager Harry Walker had to employ five hurlers. Harvey Haddix, first of the procession, was the loser, while Sam Jones went the distance for the Cubs.

EASY FOR SPAHN

Warren Spahn scattered 10 hits in Milwaukee's conquest of the Redlegs. The Braves, with home runs by Bobby Thomson, Ed Mathews and Del Crandell, piled up a six-run margin in the first four innings, to make Spahn's task easy.

After scoring three runs in the first inning, the Giants watched the Phillies peck away at Ruben Gomez until the count was tied at 3-all in the fourth. But a wild pitch by reliefer Jack Meyer with the bases loaded in the seventh permitted Willie Mays to score with the winning run.

Both the Tigers and As sent five pitchers into their fray after Detroit deadlocked the game with three runs in the ninth. They each notched one run in the 13th, and the As wrapped it up in the 14th with one run.

Schmitz permitted the Yanks only five hits to end a New York winning streak at five. The victory was the Nats' fourth in their last 25 games. They collected 12 hits off three Yank pitchers with starter Ed Lopat the loser.

HALF-GAME LEAD

Chicago's loss to Cleveland shaved the White Sox' second place margin over the Indians to a half game. Ray Narleski, who relieved Bob Lemon in the fifth, was the winner, while Morrie Martin, second of four Sox elbowmen, took the defeat. The Tribe came up with clusters of four and five in the fifth and sixth innings.

The rock-and-roll Red Sox, who now are only three games out of third place, won their 22nd game in their last 27 decisions behind Frank Sullivan, who racked up No. 11. For the Orioles, it was their 12th defeat in a row. Ted Williams returned to the Red Sox lineup for the first time in nine days and made one hit—a dribbler past the mound.

SATURDAY GAMES

Carl Furillo, Brooklyn Dodgers' slick-fielding rightfielder, made his first error of the National League season Saturday and it led to a 7-6 victory for the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Furillo muffed Dick Groat's fly ball in the 10th inning for two bases and Johnny O'Brien promptly singled Groat home with the winning run.

Dodgers, evidently missing Roy Campanella, their injured catcher, blew a 5-0 lead and even Don Newcombe, relieving losing starter Clem Labine, couldn't hold off the Pirates, giving up four runs, two on Frank Thomas' homer. Duke Snider hit his 25th homer with one on for Dodgers.

Homers by Randy Jackson and Walker Cooper in a three-run eighth inning gave Chicago Cubs a 4-3 win over St. Louis Cardinals. The Cards got two in the ninth on a pinch homer by Pete Whisenant.

Willie Mays, definitely out of his slump, hit his 21st homer of the season along with circuit clouts by Sid Gordon and Ray Katt for a 6-1 New York Giants' victory over Philadelphia Phils. Gordon's was good for three runs. Starter Sal Maglie got credit for his ninth win although he needed help from Don Liddle in the ninth.

KLUSZEWSKI HITS 25th

Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati first baseman, kept pace with Snider in the home run race, hitting his 25th as the Redlegs defeated Milwaukee 10-5. Cincinnati used seven singles, two walks and a wild pitch for seven runs in the second inning.

In the American League, George Susce tossed a four-hitter for Boston Red Sox who won their 21st victory in 26 games and handed Baltimore Orioles their 11th straight defeat 5-1.

Tommy Byrne tossed a three-hitter as New York Yankees blasted four pitchers for 19 hits to defeat Washington Senators 12-0. Byrne and Elston Howard homered.

Jack Harshman also pitched a three-hitter and, like Byrne, homered as Chicago White Sox defeated Cleveland 2-1.

An 11th-inning homer by Joe Demaestri gave Kansas City an 11-10 win over Detroit. Al Kaline homered for Tigers with two on in the eighth.

Dodgers Crush Stars 13-4 At Memorial Field Sunday

Charlie Ryan's Dodgers slashed out a total of twenty-one hits to send the Stars down to a lopsided 13-4 dfeeat yesterday afternoon at Memorial Field.

The Stars took a temporary 2-0 lead in their half of the first inning but the Dodgers turned on the heat in the top of the third and pushed across three big runs to take a lead they never relinquished. The winners scored seven more in the fourth to sew up the victory.

The Dodgers had a field day at the plate with everybody, with the exception of Joey LeClair, getting at least two hits and Irv MacKinnon showed them the way with four bingles in five trips. Coach Ryan had three hits in five trips and Buck Whitlock raised his batting average by getting three safeties in three tries. One of Buck's blows was a solid triple.

Joe Coyle of the Stars had the longest hit of the game a home run in the first inning. Earl MacKinnon and Donnie LeClair of the Stars each slammed doubles.

Ryan set down the Stars with only six hits over the distance striking out seven.

Handrahan started for the losers but was relieved by MacKinnon in the sixth, after being battered for ten runs and seventeen hits.

The Dodgers played tight baseball behind Ryan's sharp pitching making only one error to the Stars six.

Don MacLeod Gets Fifth Victory As Larrupers Win

HALIFAX (CP)—League-leading Liverpool Larrupers squeezed home a 10th-inning run Saturday night to down third place Halifax Cardinals 5-4 in a Halifax and District Baseball League game.

Don MacLeod, who took over in the eighth from Leo Casgrande, was credited with Liverpool's win.

Tom Bonbujowski, who relieved Halifax staffer Harleigh Fatzinger in the ninth, was the loser.

Three homers failed to bring in extra runs. Jim Davins and Jack Keizer homered for Liverpool, and Bill Carter got one for Halifax.

Halifax led from its three-run first inning until Keizer's homer in the eighth.

DARTMOUTH, N.S. (CP)—Jack Stephens' grand-slam homer in the third gave Stellarton Albions the steam they needed Saturday night to down Dartmouth Arrows 7-6 in a Halifax and District Baseball League game.

Bob Scariato got a homer for Dartmouth in the second with none on.

Bill Walsh won for Stellarton after replacing Duke Addis in the third.

Jim McNulty took the loss. He took over in the sixth from Russ Hendricks, who relieved starter Dave Ready the same inning.

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Kentville Wildcats hard-hurling Jim Bailey flung a one-hit shutout at Truro Bearcats Saturday as his teammates collected 12 hits for a 5-0 Halifax and District Baseball Legue victory.

Dave Martens went all the way for Truro.

BOXING GOSSIP

Sir—Gerry McGuigan, formerly of St. Mary's Road, made good in ring bouts while boxing in and around Boston. He began fighting in the featherweight division and won several New England amateur titles. He turned professional in 1952 and ran up an impressive string of victories. In his career he fought such well known gentlemen as Don Neilson, Billy Mays, Doc Blanchard, Tommp Tibbs and Eddie Smith. Gerry is the son of John James McGuigan.

Back in the late '30's and early '40's Tom McCluskey was a very popular figure in Island rings. He fought in the light and welterweight divisions with considerable success. He packed a terrific knockout punch as well as being a classy boxer.

Tom is now in the training end of the fight game and each day at the Shearwater Navy gym several promising mitt slingers hold workouts under his watchful eye. Included in the list are Kid Howard, Maritime Middleweight champion, Cobey McCluskey, Buddy Day, Bob Ledley, Bob Hesson and Keith Paris, who recently won the Maritime welterweight title.

On July 4th at Dartmouth, Cobey McCluskey is scheduled to do battle with Johnny McDonagh of Boston. This will be the second clash between the pair. The first time around McCluskey won the decision.

Cobey has a full summer of fighting cut-out for himself. Seven days after the above mentioned fight, McCluskey headlines the third fight card of the season at the local Forum. His opponent is a rough, tough Negro battler hailing from New York, by the name of Jimmy "Tiger" Skinner. He has an impressive record. While in Uncle Sam's army he saw action in 45 bouts, losing three of them. Since entering the punch for pay game he has gone to the post seventeen times and won ten by knockouts. He is only 21 years old.

The records show that by beating Nunc Wallace, bantamweight champ of England, on June 27, 1890 in a contest under the Marquis of Queensbury rules with two ounce gloves, George Dixon, the American title holder, became the first undisputed world's champion in any division.

The tallest heavyweight king was Jess Willard at 6 ft. 6 1-4 ins. The shortest was Tommy Burns, 5 ft. 7 ins.

Harry Poulton is the first Island-born boxer to fight for a Canadian title with the sancition of the Canadian Boxing Federation.

I am sir, etc.,
WILFRED O. McCLUSKEY,

Harness Racing Tonight At Local Driving Park

Four classes are scheduled to go this evening at the Driving Park. Each race will be run in two dashes with purses ranging from $175.00 for the C-C Pace to $225.00 for the B-B Pace.

Six horses will go to the post in the B-B pace. Scott Cash, Bell Banks, Bruce's Sister, Money Royal, Prince Budlong and Keppoch Playgirl. The class B mixed trot and pace will have eight starters, Billy McVey, Dale B, Freddie Scott, Capt. Morgan, Lady Cash, Fairgo, Little Delbert and Sleepy Sam.

Feather Duster, Waymark, Mildale, Miss Mite, Real Fingo, Rajah Hanover, Ginger Worthy and Bud's Echo will line up in the B trot as will Polly Reynolds, Real Joe, Eva Budlong, Marion E., Miss Commando, Jean Porteus and Rosalie Hooper in the opening event, the C-C pace.

Flyers Practice

The Flyers will hold a practice this evening at 6 p.m.

Trim Day-Cruiser "Roamer"

The "Roamer" lying at her mooring off the Charlottetown Yacht Club following the launching last Thursday. This latest addition to the Club fleet was built and is owned by Commodore Mac Irwin. She is 24 ft. long with a 7 ft. beam and is fitted with a 20 H.P. engine capable of developing a speed of ten knots. Barter's Film Lab.

Weekend Golf At Belvedere

The "Tombstone" contest held at the Belverdere Golf Club over the weekend was won by Gerald Burgoyne, who reached the second green before using up his strokes.

Approximately 40 golfers took part with six players holing ou on the eighteenth green. There was a sweepstake held in conjunction with this tournament. Gerald Burgoyne had a net 63 and Art MacKenzie the low gross with 74.

The annual P.E.I.-N.B. tournament takes place in Moncton July 11, 12 and 13. As the entry in this tournament will be limited to 200 it is recommended that golfers enter early.

New Attempt On Juan de Fuca Strait Fails

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (CP)—Bill Muir, Saanich, B.C., municipal engineer, was pulled from the Strait of Juan de Fuca Saturday, four hours and 44 minutes after he left here attempting to swim to Victoria.

It was Muir's second unsuccessful try at the still-unswum strait and the first swim in a northerly direction. There have been nine attempts to swim from Victoria to Port Angeles. All have been unsuccessful.

The strait is 18.3 miles across at this point, in a straight line.

All - Star Game Lineups Announced Last Night

CHICAGO (AP) — The starting lineups for the 22nd all-star game American and National League in Milwaukee, July 12, were announced Sunday night.

Here are the starting lineups:

National League—1b: Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati; 2b: Al Schoendienst, St. Louis; 3b: Ed Mathews, Milwaukee; ss: Ernie Banks, Chicago; lf: Del Ennis, Philadelphia; cf: Duke Snider, Brooklyn; rf: Don Mueller, New York; C: Roy Campanella, Brooklyn.

American League — 1b: Mickey Vernon, Washington; 2b: Nellie Fox, Chicago; 3b: Jim Finigan, Kansas City; ss: Harvey Kueenn, Detroit; lf: Ted Williams, Boston; cf: Mickey Mantle, New York; rf: Al Kaline, Detroit; C: Larry Berra, New York.

Those players received the most votes in the poll, conducted by 775 newspapers, radio and TV outlets, which opened June 10 and closed at midnight Friday. It brought out a record 6,562,064 votes. The previous record was 4,637,743 set in 1949.

Manager Leo Duocher, of New York Giants, will lead the National Leaguers. Al Lopez, of Cleveland Indians, will direct the American Leaguers. It will be Durocher's fourth appearance as the National Leaguers' manager, and Lopez' first as the American League leader. Each has played in two all-star games.

Only five players repeated from the two lineups for last summer's game. They are Kluszewski, Snider, Campanella, Mantle and Berra.

Campanella, out of the Brooklyn lineup with an injured knee cap, was the highest individual vote getter in the poll with 2,154,778 votes. Berra was second with 2,138,739, and Kaline, the Tigers' 20-year-old star, was third with 2,126,901.

Durocher and Lopez will pick the pitchers, alternate outfielders, infielders and catchers. The complete squads will be announced Wednesday. Each of the winners must start and play at least three innings unless sidelined by injury or illness.

Finsterwald Wins B. C. Golf Open

By PETER MURRAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dow Finsterwald, one of the newest young golfers on the tournament trail, hung on grimly Saturday to win the 72-hole $15,000 British Columbia open with an 18-under-par 270.

Finsterwald, from Bedford Heights, Ohio, edged slender Bud Holscher of Apple Valley, Calif., by one stroke in a dramatic finish on the final green.

The 24-year-old Holscher was tied with Finsterwald going into the final hole but missed a two-foot putt for a one-over-par five. Finsterwald got down in par to take the $2,400 first-prize money. Holscher pocketed $1,800.

SNEAD THIRD

Snead, the veteran from White Sulphur Springs, West Va., fashioned a 68 Saturday for his 274 total, 14 strokes under par.

Souchak, the bull-shouldered former football player from Durham, N.C., who never quite found the range after his practice round 62, came in with a 67 to tie Snead and Rosburg.

Stocky Bob Wylie of Calgary took low Canadian honors with 69-72-70-70—281, one stroke better than Vancouver's Stan Leonard with 71-71-75-65—282. Leonard's 65 was the lowest of the final 18 holes.

Bob [illegible] of V[illegible] was the [illegible] with a [illegible] of 28[illegible], three strokes under par.

Trio To Fight Here July 12th

The above three New York fighters will appear in Charlottetown on July 12 in Ivan Doherty's most ambitious fight card to date.

On the left is Jimmy "Tiger" Skinner who will meet Cobey McCluskey in the main bout. He has an impressive record of 17 professional bouts winning ten of them via the knockout route. This will be his initial appearance in a local ring. Jimmy served in the American Army and in that period took part in 45 bouts, losing only three of them.

Pictured in the center is Billy Crawford who will take on Don Trainor in a semi-final go. The local fighting public will be very anxious to see Don in action again after his long absence due to an unfortunate illness, and in Crawford they will see a young fighter who has had 12 professional bouts. He lost three by decision and came out with a draw in another.

The lad on the left is Artie Chorbak, another ex-army youngster only 21 years old. He will be featured in the other semi-final against Gaston Roy, that crowd pleasing belter from Quebec who has earned himself a well deserved reputation in Maritime rings as a two-fisted slugger carrying a generous dose of sleeping powder in each of his paddec hands.

Roy has turned down an offer from Cape Breton to appear on a card there because he has been promised main-event billing if he shows up well in his go with the New Yorker.

Louise Brough Wins Fourth Wimbleton Singles Title

By STERLING SLAPPEY

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Louise Brough, 31-year-old tennis veteran Beverly Hills, Calif., won her fourth Wimbledon singles title Saturday by defeating Mrs. Beverley Baker Fleitz of Santa Monica, Calif., 7-5, 8-6.

Miss Brough's victory in the gruelling 92-minute match gave her one more Wimbledon title than Maureen Connolly, who had dominated women's tennis for three years until her retirement last year. Miss Connolly watched Saturday's final from the press box where she was reporting on the tournament for several British newspapers.

Only Helen Wills Moody of the U. S., who won eight times in 12 years, and France's Suzanne Lenglen, six-time winner, have more victories than Miss Brough at Wimbledon.

U. S. WINS SINGLES

Mrs. Fleitz, 25-year-old star who transfers the racket from one hand to the other depending on the shot, was the first mother to play in the final here in 35 years.

U. S. players won both singles at Wimbledon this year, top-seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinati having beaten Denmark's Kurt Nielsen in straight sets Friday to win the men's singles.

In the Men's doubles Saturday, Lew Hoad and Rex Hartwig won 7-5, 6-4, 6-3 over Ken Rosewall and Neale Fraser. It was an all-Australian final.

Weak link in the Rosewall-Fraser team was the service of Rosewall. Hoad and Hartwig returned it powerfully and broke through on Rosewall's service to stroll to an easy victory. Fraser's volleying at the net also was weak.

The women's doubles final was an all-British affair with Angela Mortimer and Ann Shilcock defeating Pat Ward and Shirley Bloomer 7-5, 6-1. This was the first British victory in the doubles since Kay Stammers and Miss F. James won in 1936.

Miss Brough recalled that she had lost to Mrs. Fleitz four times in the last two years and added: "I guess you have go to be lucky some time."

U. B. C. Crew Nosed Out In Royal Henley Regatta

By ARCH MacKMENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HENLEY - ON - THAMES, Eng. (CP)—The University of British Columbia eight fought valiantly to cut down the University of Pennsylvania's fast getaway lead in the Royal Henley Regatta's Grand Challenge Cup final but lost by a third of a length in a close finish Saturday.

The Canadians, favorites of the crowd after their surprise win on Friday over a crack Russian crew, trailed by half a length going over the starting line.

The American crew, described by Henley officials as the best to compete here in 10 years, never quite lost its lead in the one-mile, 550-yard race although the Canadians cut the margin to about two feet at the 1⅛-mile post.

"You rowed a grand race," coach Frank Read told the Canadians.

Moncton Golfer Winner Of N.B. - P.E.I. Golf Title

FREDERICTON (CP) — Doug Lewis of the Moncton Golf and country club won the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Golf Association Willingdon Cup trial match and Frank N. Robertson trophy here Sunday, carding 72 and 75 for a 36-hole total of 147.

The former Maritime and New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island junior champion led 16 other survivors from district tournaments of the association. Lewis and the three leading scorers in the N. B.-P. E. I. annual tournament at Moncton next week will represent the two provinces in the Willingdon Cup matches at Calgary.

The Island was not represented in Sunday's trial match.

Eugene Mealey of Westfield finished second to Lewis with 149. Tied for third place, with 151 each, were Pete Campbell, St. Croix, and Francis Mavor, Edmundston.

Truro Races

TRURO (CP)—Miss Cherry Valley ran a mile in 2.22 2-5 in the fourth dash for the best time at Truro Raceway Saturday night.

The harness meet was called off after the fifth event because rain slowed the track and made driving dangerous.

Royal Budlong owned by D. M. MacCaulay of Pugwash, N.S. won the first; Vanity Lee, Newcastle, N. B. stables, second; Pepper Clegg, W. K. Campbell, Alberton, P.E.I., third; and Dr. F. Chips, E. Webby of Dartmouth, fifth.

Miss Cherry Valley is owned by E. MacMillan of Truro.
