Echoes From Glenroy.

The sweeping blast, the sky o'ercast
The joyless winter day;
Let others fear, to me more dear
Than all the pride of May.

Thus wrote the immortal poet-farmer of Ellisland some what over a hundred years ago. But had he in his beloved Caledonia experienced such cold weather as we in Glenroy did, the last few weeks he would very probably have sung in a different strain.

The farmers of this section have finished hauling their wood and fence poles and now mud hauling is the order of the day. The hauling rasol, la grippe, has put in an appearance, but nothing serious has resulted.

The debating and literary society recently organized here is now in full blast and already some orators of the Ciceronian type are appearing in our midst. This is a step in the right direction, as it will afford to our young men an opportunity of cultivating their oratorical powers.

The educational machinery is moving smoothly under the management of Mr. D. F. Egan. Last but not least is our sole protector, Mr. T. Aikins, who is kept bustling. He gives good satisfaction and is the one that wont refuse to make and mend both boots and shoes.

AURORA.

—Mr. Sifton has gracefully crawled, since the structures of the Conservative papers on the descriptive atlas, "made in Chicago." There have been "wings on the green" in the Interior Department. The luckless compiler of the atlas has disappeared. Mr. Sifton has ordered that all copies already sent out be recalled as far as possible, and the entire edition of 200,000 will be destroyed.

—Lord Amphil, private secretary to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, informs the correspondent of the Mail and Empire that Mr. Chamberlain has not instructed Lord Herschell, Chairman of the Joint American-British-Canadian Commission, to make concessions on behalf of Great Britain, or anything of the kind.

—The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, announced in the Commons a few days ago that the House would be asked to vote $150,000 for General Lord Kitchener of Khartoum, which sum would probably be invested for his benefit. A splendid prize for a good man.

FARMERS CLUB.—Tignish has a farmers club with a membership of twenty-eight. The officers are: L. H. Macleod, Pres; Napoleon Gallant, Vice Pres; J. J. Morrissey, Sec'y; Patrick Kennedy, Treas; Rev. D. M. McDonald, Auditor; Peter Max. Chaisson, Peter Chaill, B. D. Waite, Martin Doyle, Joseph Clohossey, Peter Macinnis, Executive Committee.

A card on the outside of office door says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And the man will be there on time. That is for some days, weeks or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move. The lump was probably two or three ten-minute lunches condensed.

The man who "bol" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heart burn," or any of the rest of the night-mare brood that these little "Pellets" will not cure. They cure permanently. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 108 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cured wind, colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

THE NEW EGG.

Now let some good man hatch out an incubator scheme for a set of the artificial eggs, and we can have spring chickens while you wait.—Richmond Times.

Now that the artificial egg problem has been successfully solved we may soon expect some rubber company to spring artificial chickens on us.—Kansas City World.

The man who has invented an artificial egg equal to the "real thing" in every-thing but fecundity has conferred an everlasting boon upon the overworked hen. She can now turn her attention to her family affairs in blissful ignorance of the fact that her ancient enemy is "laying for her" with an ax. With artificial eggs and artificial hatches the time honored "land-mark" of the barnyard is sure to get it in the neck.—St. Louis Republic.

China's Great Garden.

There is an immense garden in China that embraces an area of 50,000 square miles. It is all meadow land and is filled with lakes, ponds and canals.

In the lower fields of New Zealand the crop has been known to net as high as $1,000 an acre.

Russia has about 1,000,000 titled persons out of a population of 100,000,000.

Poison Parts of Snakes.

All poisonous serpents have movable fangs, which are found in the upper jaw, and when not in use close up like the blade of a penknife.

At the base of every poison fang there are numerous germs of others, and the fang, if broken or lost, is replaced in a few weeks by the growth of another.

The Cumminsville Sage.

"It is a little and an easy thing," said the Cumminsville sage, "to give a sunny smile and a cheerful word to the downtrodden and unfortunate. The only drawback is the danger that it may encourage him to try to borrow money from you."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Revised Answer.

"Is life worth living?" was at one time a much quoted question, to which the most popular answer was that "it depended on the liver." Nowadays a poorly paid and hardworked clergyman replies that "it depends on 'the living.'"—Punch.

Retort Congeals.

"The boarder has not said a word about the meals yet," said the boarding house mistress.

"No, I believe he's a very religious man," replied one of the victims.—Yonkers Statesman.

Cure For Insomnia.

"I've cured my husband's insomnia." "How did you do it?" "Pretended I was ill, and the doctor left medicine which Henry was to give me every half hour all night long."—Vanity Fair.

A Generous Offer

We are authorized to offer our readers, prepaid, a free sample of a never-failing cure for catarrh, bronchitis, irritable throat, influenza, and such throat and nasal diseases. There is no mystery about Catarrhozone, though its effects is magical. Ointments and washes cannot reach the diseased parts, and have thus proved useless. But Catarrhozone is carried by air directly to the diseased part, and is like a breeze from the pine woods. Write for free sample to N. C. POISON & Co., Kingston, Ont.
