IMITATION IS THE SINCEREST FORM OF FLATTERY.

The best proof that

MINARD'S LINIMENT

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, called WHITE LINIMENT, &c., liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.

They all Sell on the Merits and Advertising of MINARD'S.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The military capacity and efficient armament shown by the Chinese in the present fighting is the surprise of the situation. China seems to have profited by the lesson she learned during the war with Japan.

—Men come and go like snadows. Corvera occupied quite a prominent place in the newspapers a little while ago, but half of the people have forgotten whether he was a militia or naval officer. Aguineldo has stepped down from his proud eminence and soon will be buried in oblivion. Then there's Kruger! He was once president of the Transvaal and now lives in a box car and proposes to make his next run into Portuguese territory.

—Another batch of estimates has been brought down in the House of Commons. They are for the current fiscal year, and raise the amount the Government has sought power to expend from the beginning of the month to over sixty millions of dollars. Here are the details:

Main estimates.....$49,968,391
Supplementary estimates..... 7,244,135
Extra estimates..... 339,000
Railway subsidies..... 3,662,200
$60,017,726

Mr Tarte is in Paris, but, as an exchange points out, he has not lost connection with Ottawa. His "next year" is up in us.

—Impatient people in England are asking when the Boer war is to end,—upon which the Ottawa Journal remarks that if Roberts were taking six months to capture Pretoria, which everybody prophesied, there would be little surprise. It was also prophesied that a long guerilla warfare would follow after that. There is not much excuse for impatience as things are. To say nothing of the Orange River Colony, the Transvaal is a country two and a half times as large as England—a country as large as England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Channel Islands all put together—and it takes time to hunt down the remnants of armies in a territory that size.

—By winning the Derby in 1896 and 1900 the Prince of Wales has made a little royal record of which he will be proud. It is only within recent years that he has had any good luck in racing. About 1891 he bought the mare Perdita II, and it is with her offspring, Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee, that the Prince has been able to sport winning colors. The former won the Derby and St. Leger of 1896, but was beaten in the two thousand guineas, and the latter has won the Two Thousand and the Derby, and ought to secure the St Leger of 1900. In March this year, too, the Prince won the Grand National with Ambush II. Foreigners are quite unable to understand the Prince racing as a private sportsman. When the late Shah was in England he attended a race meeting with the Prince, and it happened that his Royal Highness won a small event. The Shah saw no reason for excitement, and he explained that if he ran horses in Persia he would take care that no one else won but himself.

STORIES OF TORTURE.

Awful Persecution of the Native Converts

TORONTO, July 13.—A special to the Globe from Baltimore tells a story of Catholic Martyrdom in China that recalls the days of the early Christians.

Mgr. Favier in charge of northern Chinese missions, writes of terrible torture and persecution.

One priest saw eleven converts tortured by a Mandarin, who scourged them and suspended them by their tongues, and their hair.

A catechist was stripped beaten and bound. He was asked if he was a Christian and replied: "Yes" An ear was cut off. The question was repeated with the same answer. The other ear was severed. The third question and answer were followed by decapitation.

Three hundred and fifty stations have been destroyed in one province; 14 chapels have been lost, and 14,000 families robbed.

One young Christian had his eyes torn out and the muscles of his feet cut. Another was burned alive. The writer, however, sees through it all the triumphs of the cross.

AT THE GENERAL ELECTION

Yes, the banner of Freedom,
Of Justice and Right
Was trailed in the mire
All through the fight.

And the black flag of bribery,
Of shame and disgrace,
Of perjury and treachery,
Was raised in its place.

But at the General Election,
That is coming on, boys,
From the east to the west,
The people will rise

And tear down the black flag
Of Pineau and Lou,
And average the insult,
On the red white and blue.

A BOER SYMPATHY FUND.

(New York Commercial Advertiser.)

Sympathy with the Boers is an emotion that has very heavy running expenses. The sum of $1,134.38 was collected a few weeks ago for the relief of the Boer widows and orphans, but $140 went for wine and $127 for hack hire and $87 for the band, and the net result, according to the treasurer's report last Saturday, is that $18 remains for the comfort of the widows and orphans and the succor of a brave people on and beneath the tyrant's heel. W. A. Croft, who had promised to contribute $35, refused to pay up when he saw the committee's unbusinesslike and extravagant methods, and sent a draft for $50 to Dr. Leyds instead, whereupon the treasurer denounced him as a "kicker," which, indeed, he was. But other Boer sympathizers are beginning to demand an accounting, and there are all the elements of a good big row. They want to know whether the managers of the fund have not spent too large a part of it for their expenses, and they are asking questions that are anything but delicate. They should not press the matter too far. In certain kinds of sympathizing one's expenses should be paid. A finer quality of enthusiasm is secured in that way. Cost of maintenance is an important item in the case of pro-Boers, as of automobiles and there must be things like that $140, wine and that $87 for the band, or they would soon run down. It is absurd to be prying into the secret spring of sympathy and estimating the worth of an emotion in dollars and cents. The widows and orphans will receive only $18 in material aid, but in heart-throbs and molten oratory and things like that they have received a full equivalent for the whole $1,134.38.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

RAILWAY STATISTICS

Great Increase In Earnings Since Last Year.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The annual report of the statistician on the railways of the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1899, shows that at the close of the year 71 railways were in the hands of the receivers, a decrease of 23 compared with the previous year. Sixteen roads were placed in the charge of receivers during the year, and 39 were removed.

The total number of railway corporations included in the report was 2,049, of which 1,064 maintained operating accounts, 843 were classified as independent operating roads, and 211 as subsidiary roads. Their total tonnage was 252,364 miles, of which 189,295 were single tracks, 11,546 second track, 1,047 third track, 790 fourth track, and 49,686 yard track and sidings. The increase in single track was 2,898 miles, which was greater than for any year since 1893.

Twenty locomotives and 734 cars were used for each 100 miles of line, over which 52,378 passengers were carried, and 1,474,765 passenger miles accomplished by each passenger locomotive; 46,303 tons of freight were carried, and 5,966,193 ton miles accomplished by each freight locomotive. All of these items show an increase compared with the corresponding item for the previous fiscal year. Of the total equipment of the road, aggregating 1,412,619 locomotives and cars, 808,674 were fitted with train brakes an increase of 166,812, and 1,137,719 with automatic couplers, and increase of 228,145.

The roads employed 928,924 persons, and during the year they were paid in wages and salaries $522,957,896, an increase of $77,459,635 over the fiscal year 1895.

The amount of railway capital outstanding on June 30, 1899, was $11,033,956,898, or a capitalization of $60,566 per mile, 49.61 per cent. of which paid dividends.

The number of passengers carried during the year was 523,176,508, an increase of 22,109,827, and 959,763,583 tons of freight were transported, an increase of 80,757,276 tons. The gross earnings for the year were $313,310,618, an increase of $66,284,493 over the previous year, and the operating expenses were $856,968,999, an increase of $38,995,723.

The number of casualties to persons during the year were 51,343, of which 7,123 resulted in death. Of those killed but 239 were passengers, and 2,210 were employees. One passenger was killed for every 2,180,023 carried, and one injured for every 151,998 carried. For each passenger killed 61,051,580 passenger miles were accomplished, and 4,232,200 passenger miles were accomplished for each passenger injured.

Look at it

And look at it well, that's what we like to see every customer do, examine our youths suits well, and if you find anything wrong tell us so, if there's room for improvement we want to know it, and we'll make it.

We don't think there's much room for improvement in that all wool serge suit of ours at $6.50, unless we improve the profit; when you see the suit you'll acknowledge that we could do that if we wished, but we don't.

It Won't Bite

Any man's pocket book, if he buys a nice covert top coat for the chilly evening. He will be richer too although he does spend $6.00 for one of those nice light cord ones.

He is very apt to save more than that in doctor's bills before the summer's over. These coats are not too heavy; they're just right something a little better if you want it, $8.00, $10.00, $12.00.

But it's Apt to

Be very warm during the days of this month, we would advise you to see our hot weather underclothing. There's the cheap grade at 40c the suit, then there's better all the way to $3.00 the suit.

But you must ask to see the $1.00 kind, that's the kind we claim to be all that can be asked for in comfort-giving underwear.

Have a Fit

When you are buying a hat, it's just as easy to get a hat right as wrong, and it's not half so headachey.

We claim to be able to fit any head. Surely one of our 6000 "Christy" felt hats at from 50c to $2.00 will do it. If you don't want a felt why we have 32,000 straws all the way from 5c to $2.00 each. The $1.00 hat in both is our speciality.

But be sure you get a fit, don't take one until you get it; it's here somewhere, no doubt about that.
