More than 2000 Families in Halifax and Dartmouth use Sunlight and Lifebuoy Soaps exclusively in their homes, and all say they would not have any other kinds.

This information is correct having been gained by competent and trust-worthy advertisers, leaving samples at every house and making careful enquiries.

These families never knew what pure SOAPS meant, until they tried SUNLIGHT and LIFEBOUY.

Why should not others learn and be healthier and happier for the learning.

Price is only 5c for large twin bar.

Sir Evelyn Wood's "Papa."

Sir Evelyn Wood entertained the Savage club with some very diverting experiences of some of their brethren in Ashanti. Some of the incidents are quite irresistible:

When he was serving with the chairman, Mr. G. A. Hentz, many years ago in the Ashanti expedition, he had a very good "papa," a black man, who served him for 5 shillings a day and who brought 22 sons of his own body begotten. All of these sons were between 21 and 23 years of age.

The father was the finest of the lot. In every fight he put himself at the front, and after six months' campaign he (Sir E. Wood), as he was returning to England, offered him any mortal present he liked. He sent to the army and navy stores and ordered a 20 guinea umbrella, which it would take two men to carry, and between every steel rib there was a covering of silk more hideous than the other, and when the present arrived at Cape Coast castle the garrison was paraded, the troops presented arms, and they marched past the present.

But that was not the only present, for the warrior, clad in a strip of linen, was too modest a man to ask for an umbrella, the presentation of which in that country was a great honor. Asked what could be sent to him from England, he chose a tall black hat, and he (Sir Evelyn Wood) sent him one at 23 shillings.—London Naval and Military Record.
