

Reg Fleming's Garners wo As eats, Bruins Tie 2-2

BOSTON (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs, unbeaten so far this season and trailing after two periods capped a comeback when Bob Purford jammed the puck through a hole in the fallen players for a 2-2 National Hockey League tie with reckless Boston Bruins Thursday night.

Only the useless, sometimes frantic abandon with which he whacked home while Johnston stood his post kept Boston from a fifth successive loss.

Purford registered on the first shot while on the ice. The players were piled up like cordwood when Purford whacked home the puck. Andy Bagnall got the Bruins' top chances on the road at 14:11 of the middle period on a 15-footer which just squeezed into the near corner.

Reg Fleming, the bad boy who got just three goals in last season, scored twice in his role as penalty killer earlier in the game while his mates were unthornd.

The Bruins' Johnston had just made a great save on Dickie Moore in the first period when Forbes Kennedy passed for the puck, carried into the lead zone and led Fleming for the first of his goals, a 55-footer in the far corner which Johnston never saw. Bovin was serving a Bruins penalty at the time. Fleming hit again unassisted through a screen of Kennedy and Toronto defencemen while Tom Johnson was off for Boston.

Bovin fell back into the net in the middle period stopping Fleming's bid for three goals.

Both team, drew late stage penalties but neither could capitalize. Frank Mahovlich was off for tripping at 18:26 of the final period.

Johnny Bower skated out about 15 feet with four seconds left and mothered a rolling puck. The Bruins were still swinging at the puck in hopes of pulling it out after the whistle had blown play dead.

Tim Horton dashed in front of the buzzer and turned aside Teddy Green's last chance slap.

First period: 1. Boston, Fleming 1; 2. Kennedy 1. Penalties — Horton 7:28, Baum 8:21, Bovin 11:10, Shack 15:41.

Second period — 2. Boston, Fleming 2; 9:38, 1. Toronto, Bagnall 2; Mahovlich, Horton 13:41.

Power-Play Goals Is Significant

MONTREAL (CP) — The power-play goal has taken on some early season significance in the National Hockey League. Of 56 goals scored by the teams in the NHL's first 10 games, 23 came with the team in a power-play situation, the first to 10 games last season, power plays accounted for only 15 per cent of their goals.

The information is contained in figures released Thursday by the league.

The figures may indicate a weakness in a team's penalty-killing unit. But they also have nothing to do with strict officiating, rigid, new rules on faceoffs and interference infractions.

For the first 10 games, at least, there has not been an appreciable gain in the overall 121 MINOR.

Referees called 121 minor penalties, the same as in the first 10 games last season. This year there has been one more minor penalty than in the similar 10-game period last season.

Toronto Maple Leafs have had nine instances when they had a man advantage. But the Leafs' penalty-killing team, best in the league last season, was not effective during that period, having six goals while short-handed 18 times. The Leafs have not been known for a destructive power play in recent seasons.

Power-Play Goal Is Significant

New York Rangers, led by Lou Angotti who scored three goals in their six power-play goals, had a scoring percentage of 25 with the extra man, and killed off 75 per cent of their penalties successfully.

Next was Detroit Red Wings, with four power-play goals in 17 opportunities, for a 23.5 per cent. They had a 62.2 per cent penalty-killing percentage, forcing three goals during the 13 times they were short-handed.

Montreal Canadiens were better penalty killers than power play opportunists. They scored only three goals in 15 power play situations, but permitted only two goals in 13 times they were short-handed, a commendable 84.6 per cent average.

Boston Bruins, with three goals on 19 extra-man chances, had a 15.8 per cent, and their penalty-killing average was 77.8.

Best power-play team in the NHL was Chicago Black Hawks, a miserly 13.3 per cent, scoring only two goals during the 15 times the opposition was short-handed.

But the Hawks made up for it with their penalty-killing team, the best in the league, opening games, which conceded only two goals when short-handed, for an 88.2 per cent average.

Canada Wins Silver Medal in Judo

TOKYO (CP) — The Tokyo Olympics went into the last full day of competition Thursday, with strong Russian boxers and gymnasts challenging the United States lead in the medal race.

Much of the interest in the last days of the games centered on whether the Americans could hold their edge and outshine the Russians for the first time in the Helsinki Olympics of 1952.

The Russians' strength in gymnastics was again on show Thursday. They won four medals, most of them in these two classifications, to bring their total to 77-23-26 in silver and 33 bronze.

The U.S. had 34 gold medals, 26 silver and 28 bronze for a total of 88.

With 21 finals today and another two on the wind-up day Saturday, the Russians appeared likely to take the overall lead, although their gold medal harvest may be smaller than that of the U.S.

The Americans also held a wide lead in the unofficial points standings, compiled from 10:5-4.3 scale. The U.S. had 656-13 points to 550-5-6 for Russia, 316 for Germany and 221½ for Japan. Canada was in 26th place with 40 points.

COMMITTEE OBJECTS

The International Olympic Committee has always objected to such national tabulations, contending each event is an individual competition and national and cold war rivalry should be discouraged.

That attitude was underlined by a terse message Thursday to the official IOM results file of the Olympics, which said: "The organizing committee, acting under instructions from Mr. Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, International Business Machines is disseminating as of now the compilation and publication of the medals list."

The Russian results file lists, assured of at least silver medals in the 10 boxing finals.

In gymnastics, the Russians have 12 performers set to take the final today.

In basketball, the Americans and Russians were to meet today in the final today, the fourth straight Olympics.

Harper Lost Standings

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Canadiens announced Thursday that defenceman Terry Harper will be suspended from the National Hockey League club indefinitely.

H. Hampton, club surgeon, said Harper suffered a chip fracture in one of the lumbar vertebrae during Wednesday night's game here with Chicago. Harper was checked out of the boards by doctor Fred Stanfield of the Canadiens.

Harper will be kept under observation for a few days. His disability cannot yet be determined, but the injury is not serious and will not affect his return to the team, he was ready for any eventuality.

"The Trojans' boss says there are several players who could step in on a moment's notice and that missed camp with no tradition for superb showmanship."

Whacky Was Great

AP Wirephoto via cable from Tokyo

The greatest all round athlete I ever saw in my life. These were the words of the Czech sports fans, yesterday, when they learned of the death of John 'Whacky' MacEachern.

We can only go by what we hear, but we haven't heard anybody disagree with the fact that 'Whacky' was probably the best athlete ever produced on this continent.

MacEachern was capable of excelling at any form of sport, that he put his mind to, but his three favorites were: hockey, baseball and track and field.

'Whacky' played with the old Charlottetown Abbeville Hockey club and was a stand-out center. This aggregation of picksters never lost a game from 1928-32. He played professional hockey for Waterville, Maine which was semi-pro hockey at that time. He was an expert skater.

In baseball he divided his career between the 'Abbies', the Madisons and the Rovers, of the old City League. The Madisons were sponsored by Fred and Ed Lamb and Fred still talks loudly when the name of 'Whacky' MacEachern is brought up in a discussion of former sports greats. MacEachern was primarily a shortstop but could handle the pitching chores, if necessary.

In track and field even Old Timers will maintain that he was unobtainable in any of the sprint or jump events. They say he could run 100 yards in 12 seconds and travel a jump 22 feet any day of the week. In 1920 he attended the Olympic track and field trials.

MacEachern was also at home on a baseball court and as we mentioned before could excel at any sport at which he undertook. This is only a part of the fascinating sports legend left behind by the distributor (in stature only) by John 'Whacky' MacEachern when he passed away at the age of 65 in Charlottetown yesterday.
