SPECTACLES.

Over twenty-five years I have been in the Spectacle business and during that time have fitted hundreds and hundreds of persons. Some had put off getting glasses so long that they could not see a large 4 inch letter A without going within 2 or 3 feet of it, and might have gone blind if they had put off getting glasses much longer. Others have been fitted or rather misfitted, with wrong glasses by travellers, and charged a great deal more than they ought to have been. This year our traveller, Mr. C. H. White, intends calling on parties at their homes in the country, to test eyes and show samples of our goods. Should he call on you I bespeak for him your favorable consideration, and any order you may give him will be filled as soon as possible and guaranteed by me. Glasses can also be exchanged at the store, CAMERON BLOCK, City, if after a trial they do not prove as satisfactory as you wish.

BY SHEEP POWER.

Duck Gets Herewith a Lesson In Athletic Culture.

When a big, old sheep gets fat and lazy and inclined to butt at the children, take the mischief out of him by giving him a turn at the treadmill. A small treadmill is not very expensive and is eminently useful. Any small animal, sheep, dog, calf or even a little pony can be broken in to separate the cream, churn, saw wood or operate a washing machine.

A friend of ours says when he was a boy on the farm his grandfather had an old dog whose task it was to churn several times a week by working a treadmill. After a year or two of this kind of work it was observed that on churning mornings the old dog could not be found. He knew churning day as well as his mistress did, and when it came was accustomed to take to the woods. A sheep has not so much sense as that. A sheep weighing from 150 to 200 pounds will run an ordinary small sized tread power very well and be all the better for the exercise. On a farm hand power should be saved as much as possible, so as to let the nervous energies flow into the human brain. Farmers need to use their brains even more than their hands to make a living in these times. Spare your arms and back as much as possible and use your brains more. While the sheep, calf or dog separates cream and does the churning you may be attending to something else.

Don't pick out the cross that shines, if you would bear the right one.

Some of the devil's best work is done by people who claim to love the Lord.

The devil has never yet taken a prisoner who had on the whole armor of God, and was armed with the sword of the Spirit.—Ran's Horn.

THE SCIENTIST.

The tromometer is a mechanical device of Dr. Quintard, a Frenchman, for gauging the trembling of nervous people.

A scientist claims to have discovered that the eye of man is luminous to the extent that one can in total darkness see the movement of his arm by the light of his own eyes.

A doctor of Corpus Christi, Tex., recently grafted a piece of a rabbit's eye upon the injured optic of a 10-year-old boy, and the operation bids fair to be a complete success.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites brings back the ruddy glow of life to pale cheeks, the lips become red, the ears lose their transparency, the step is quick and elastic, work is no longer a burden, exercise is not followed by exhaustion; and it does this because it furnishes the body with a needed food and changes diseased action to healthy. With a better circulation and improved nutrition, the rest follow.
