Pope Has Session With Christian Leaders

BOMBAY (AP)—Pope Paul VI joined Thursday in a fraternal and unprecedented session with non-Christian leaders.

It was a dramatic and personal overture by the head of the Roman Catholic Church in its efforts for a more concourse with all mankind, of various cultures, races and creeds.

Then the Pope recalled that he was spent with leaders of non-Roman Catholic Christians in India—Protestant, Orthodox and Anglican church messengers and the Pope addressed as "my dear friends in Christ."
