HAPPENINGS

Miss Jane Praught, who recently rejoined the staff of the Charlottetown Hospital after a post-graduate course in Washington, D. C., relates an interesting experience of her stay in the capital.

One evening while being entertained at dinner in the home of a girl friend she received an urgent invitation by telephone from her friend's parents to accompany their daughter to a party they were attending in another part of the city.

As she entered the drawing-room where the guests were assembled, she could hear "Prince Edward Island is Heaven to me" being sung with enthusiasm, and was surprised to find that she was helping to celebrate in his own home the 80th birthday of Cyrus Stuart Ching, native of P. E. I., and internationally famous labor relations executive.

With characteristic generosity, Mr. Ching offered to be Miss Praught's guide in attending a session of Congress the next day, but she had to decline the gracious invitation on account of her professional duties.

Miss Praught was pleased to be the unofficial representative of Prince Edward Island in presenting greetings to one of its more distinguished sons on such a happy occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Gencheff entertained on Wednesday evening prior to the Charity Ball which was held at the Charlottetown Hotel. This dance was sponsored by the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Parker Hooper entertained Mrs. Gladys Bruce recently at her home on Euston Street. Mrs. Bruce will take up residence in Bridgewater, N. S.

Word has reached the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada that Dr. Mary Rutnam formerly of Clinton, Ontario, has received the Ramon Magsaysay Award.

This award is designated the Nobel Prize of Asia and was inspired by the ideals of the late Ramon Magsaysay, President of the Philippines. It is presented to persons in Asia "for exemplifying the highest type of democratic leadership." Of the six recipients, Dr. Rutnam is the only woman. After completing her education, Dr. Rutnam joined the American Medical Mission in Jaffna in Northern Ceylon in 1906. She married a Tamil Ceylonese and Ceylon became her home. Dr. Rutnam practised medicine in Colombo and became Ceylon's first Municipal Councillor.

From the first her heart went out to the rural women. Her desire to help them made her the promoter of the Women's Institutes in Ceylon which were formally organized in 1930. To-day, it is island wide with a membership of 75,000. Dr. Rutnam followed the policy of working with the women, inspiring them to adopt better methods of home-making - hygiene, nutrition, child care, gardening, and home craft. She also awakened in them a sense of civic responsibility. Those who attended the Associated County Women of the World Conference in Colombo, Ceylon will always remember her as she presided over Ceylon Day program with dignity and charm. It must have given her tremendous satisfaction to see those rural women taking their place on that program.

Always her wisdom and sense of humour carried her over the difficulties and discouragements of trying to bring about a new way of life in an old world. We rejoice that her efforts in this field of citizenship have been recognized within her life time and she was able to journey to Manila to receive the award despite her 85 years.

A very pleasant evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mellins on Thursday evening when they entertained at a supper bridge.

It will soon be Valentine's Day. With it comes the problem of how the children will amuse themselves making Valentines. Have you saved used Christmas Cards? Give them those; for there are many pictures they might utilize from them. Easter, St. Patrick's and other greeting cards may offer other possibilities. They'll be grand for a "cut-out" session.

The members of the New London Women's Institute held a very successful afternoon tea at the home of the President, Mrs. George Cole, Wednesday, Jan. 21.

Members from Stirling W. I. attended along with other ladies from the district. Games were played and vocal selections by Mrs. Alfred MacKay were enjoyed. All departed for their homes after a very pleasant afternoon spent, together.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio MacWilliams, Wednesday evening, when relatives and friends gathered to tender a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Currie, Springfield near Shirley MacMillan.

The living-room was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The newly-wed took their gaily decorated seats of honor in the living-room while suitable music was being played. They received many useful and lovely gifts which were opened by Miss Lorraine England while the accompanying well-wishes were read by Mrs. Horatio MacWilliams. The gifts were presented and arranged on the table by Olive MacMillan.

Clair on behalf of himself, and Shirley thanked all for their gifts and good wishes. All joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows." A delectable lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Billie MacKinnon, Mrs. George Ellis and Miss Lorraine England. The remainder of the evening was spent in card playing.

Miss Helen Frizzell, Springfield West, left Monday morning, Jan. 19th, for Jasper, Alberta, where a position at the Astoria Hotel is awaiting her. Prior to her departure a surprise party was given in her honor by her neighbours and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Frizzell.

A very fitting address was read by Mr. Ewelyn Cain, and a beautiful genuine-leather matching luggage set was presented by Mr. Wm. G. Ellis. Although taken completely by surprise Helen very graciously thanked all for their thoughtfulness and good wishes. All joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows." Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Frizzell, Springfield West.

Gourmet Dinner Club Started On New Basis

Four young wives, who enjoy "eating out" with their husbands at gourmet restaurants, went into a neighborhood huddle.

Now that we have enjoyed so many wonderful restaurant dinners, let's plan a 4-way party home dinner club, they reasoned, and prepare gala gourmet dinners once a month in our own homes.

FOUR COURSES
Diners will consist of 4 courses the total cost of the food to be divided among the four of us. We will each prepare and serve one course in our own home, progressing house-to-house by car. As the cost will be moderate, we can save enough money to pay several gala visits to plush restaurants during the year to pick up new ideas.

4-WAY PARTY DINNER
First Hostess, Hors D'Oeuvres. Choice of Oysters Casino or Spiedino; Fresh Vegetable Nibbles; Assorted Olives and Radishes. Cold or Iced Beverage of Choice.

Second Hostess, the Entree. Baked Veal Chops Stuffed with Prosciutto; Potato Balls Rissole; Asparagus Hollandaise.

Third Hostess, Salad and Cheese Course. Caesar Salad; Cheese Board including Beef Paese, Camembert, Gouda, Stilton and Imported, Assorted Nuts Sweet Biscuits.

Fourth Hostess, Dessert and Coffee. Mango-Macadamia Nut Coupe; Flaming Snow Mountain Coffee.

At the Hawaiian Room at the Lexington in New York, the "dessert hostess" told me, "I was simply enchanted with macadamia nuts, which I tasted in a mango couple for the first time. John Santl, the Executive Chef, kindly explained how to make it. He describes the flavor of macadamia nuts as somewhere between a Brazil and an almond so he uses them as a topping for various ice cream desserts, dusts them over broiled chicken, finds them delightful in petit fours or tossed over fresh fruit cups."

All measurements are level.

Mango-Macadamia Nut Coupe: Oven-toast 1/2 lb. chopped royal Hawaiian macadamia nuts. Add to 1 c. honey. Stir 1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon into the juice of 3 lemons and add.

Into each stemmed glass serving dish, place a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Top with 2 tbsp. chopped, canned mangoes. Spoon over the macadamia mixture. Stud edges of dish with rosettes of whipped cream and top with whole macadamia nuts.

Flaming Snow Mountain: This spectacular presentation of fruit for four guests is made by molding packed-down crushed ice in a tall container with a rounded end. Unmold on a pedestal dish; in top insert a 2-oz. metal container (heated a bit so it will snuggle down into the ice). Grapes, tangerine sections, strawberries, cherries and spears of fresh pineapple are pressed into the ice. Kumquats, grapes, and candied ginger ring the base. Re-chill in refrigerator or freezer.

On serving in the Hawaiian Room it is flamed by lighting a mixture of warmed rum and a little honey in the metal container, as a dip for the fruits.

TOMORROW'S DINNER
Tomato Bouillon; Minute Beef Steaks (fresh or frozen), French-Fries, Carrots and Peas; Tossed Lettuce; Lemon Sherbet; Coffee, Tea, Milk.

TRICK OF THE CHEF
Top crisp, brown French fries with coarse-chopped pimientos and green peppers heated in butter.

EARNSCLIFFE W.I.
The January meeting of the Earncliffe Women's Institute was held on January 6th, at the home of Mrs. Gerald McInnis with an attendance of thirteen members and one visitor. The president occupied the chair and the meeting opened with the Mary Stewart Collect.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be sent to March of Dimes; also moved and seconded that teacher get towels

NECKLINE AND NECKLACE

BY ALICE ALDEN
CHOOSING a costume jewelry necklace is no longer a haphazard affair. It receives the attention accorded a piece of fine jewelry. The whole outfit in particular must be considered. For the high, round neckline so much in style just now, a definite type of decoration is essential. Trifari suggests a free-form collar of textured golden tone with an intriguing offshoot worn dead center on the neck. With the big fur hat seen so much these days, the large button earring is perfect.

Roll call for next meeting to be a home made valentine. Mrs. Joe Doyle and Mrs. Ray Young on Program. A invitation was extended by Mrs. Ray Young for the February meeting. Collection for evening $1.98.

A contest put on by Mrs. Edward Carrier was most enjoyed. The meeting was adjourned and a social hour spent. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

KINGSTON W.I.

The January meeting of the Kingston Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Whitfield Yeo on Thursday, January 8th, with the president, Mrs. Leith Newson, presiding. The meeting opened by the Ode followed by Creed in unison.

Minutes were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 13 members and two visitors. Two members paid their dues. Letters acknowledging treats and get well cards were read by the secretary. Correspondence was read by the secretary.

Members subscribed to the Institute, News. Bill was paid for applications and gifts to shut-ins amounting to $13.55. Collection 80 cents; Friendship 39 cents.

Committees for next month are: school, Mrs. Leith Newson; programme, Mrs. Keith Dixon, Mrs. Edgar Newson; lunch, Mrs. Stewart Colwill and Mrs. Whitfield Yeo. Roll call to be an exchange of Valentines Programme for the evening by Mrs. Yeo and Mrs. Leith Newson Reading by Mrs. Roy Green.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Leith and Mrs. Zylpha Newson. The meeting closed with the Queen. Lunch was served by hostess and committee in charge. A social hour was enjoyed.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Sleigh Rides And Courting Days Are Well Remembered

"On a night like this, I love the winter" one of the visitors, whom this evening had brought to Aldeley—a farmwife, commented as we chatted about the hearth... Breathless the night was at the window, calm and bright and still. The moon smiled in silvery benediction on the yards, patting them in fetching designs of shadow and light.

"Yes," James agreed, "and one is likely to be more partial to it because it's taking us along to the spring! Not that, so far, this has not been a remarkable winter as regards weather, but somehow his smile was wistful, "my heart's in the spring."

"I believe winter is my favorite season" another, a farmer offered. "It's the only season on our farm when we can come to a breathing spell, it seems."

"I was just saying to Ellen, back there in the moonlight, it was a pity our courting days were over," James grinned, "because if there was a bit more snow—enough to make a light road for a horse and sleigh, and...

"...fur robes and sleigh bells!" we added, looking into James' mind.

"And warm wraps—and a muff for her hands!" The other farmwife giggled.

"...and this" James chuckled "would be the right night to go courting! Yes, a light winter-road and a good horse and sleigh... well, the youngsters can have their cars. They'll never know the pleasures of the horse and buggy years and those times that we knew."

MORELL W.I.
The January meeting of the Morell W.I. was held at the residence of Mrs. J.J. Rooney. The President, Mrs. William Aylward presided.

Roll call was responded to by 11 members. Four new members paid membership fee. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Correspondence included a letter on Program planning and Mrs. Wilkie's New Year's Letter. It was agreed to send $10.00 to March of Dimes. Mrs. Cecil McCarthy was appointed Health Convener.

The Red Cross Convener Mrs. F. Jay was requested to get more capsules, also sewing and knitting material. It was decided to get paper for W.I. programs also, for the 4-H sewing club's display book.

A Home Nursing Course to be held in the High School on Monday evenings beginning January 19. The instructresses, Mrs. J.J. Rooney and Mrs. Jack Rossiter, R.N.

Mrs. Cecil McCarthy invited members to her home for card party. Prizes to be the articles which were carried over from Bazaar. The treasurer was requested to order 18 copies of the Institute News.

Next meeting to be held in the High School. Roll call to be answered with the name of a noted Canadian Woman.

Mrs. A. MacKenzie was in charge of the program which was a contest. This contest was won

"They're gone forever—those the housewife said. "We have to accept the fact. I guess there's nothing left to us now" she smiled, "but to grow old gracefully."

She quoted softly: "Let me grow lovely, growing old."

—So many fine things do: Laces and ivory and gold. And silks need not be new."

And January now not unlike, it came to mind, white-bearded Grandfather Time himself, walked slow-stepped, but sure along the valley-fields in the moonlight, reflecting we would fancy on the inevitabilities of the years.

And James recalled interesting incidents from his, in that quaint lost era of living which knew coach-houses and harness-rooms, phaetons and buggies and the marvel of first rubber-tired wagons—low, comfortable—and safe! pungs and "piano-box" sleighs and the fine cutters of those days. Remembered steeds, he spoke of, bays and grays, black and strawberry-rosans. And a chestnut driver "with a spring to him when asked, that would lift the whip from his stand."

And the youngster who had come by, hearing, grinned and queried, "Now where on earth was the whip-stand?"

And "that clock can't be right, can it, Ellen?" one asked later starting up in dismay. "It can't be or else, how fast the night has flown!"

The night? This day too. A sunrise, a noon, a sunset, the hours were all spent away!

Until tomorrow — Diary—good-night.

by Mrs. C. McCarthy. Meeting closed with the "Queen". Lunch was served by hostess and lunch committee.

WHEATLEY RIVER W.I.
The January meeting of the Wheatley River W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Buntain with an attendance of eight members. The meeting opened with the Ode and Collect.

Roll call was followed by reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting. Correspondence consisted of three thank you cards. It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be sent to Care.

Reports of committees were given and new ones appointed as follows: sick, Mrs. Gordon Andrews; Mrs. John Ross; school, Mrs. Fred MacRae; Mrs. John Ross; programme, Mrs. Preston Rackham; lunch, Mrs. Gordon Andrews, Mrs. Walter Ling and Mrs. Harold Chandler.

Plans were made to hold a crokinole party in the hall. The secretary was asked to send for Red Cross material.

Mrs. Gordon Andrews invited the next meeting to her home when roll call will be answered with a home-made valentine.

Programme consisted of contests put on by Mrs. Leonard Ling and a reading by Mrs. Harold Buntain. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the committee in charge.
