THE FISHERIES.—Latest reports from eastern part of the Island are that mackerel continue scarce. None have been caught yet this season by seining. Shore fishermen are the only ones doing anything, and that by hook and line.

BASKET PICNIC.—The basket picnic at Cape Traverses on Saturday was largely attended, and was one of the pleasantest gatherings of the kind held this season. We understand that it is Superintendent Unsworth's intention to have a similar excursion on Saturday next and on each succeeding Saturday until further notice. The idea is a good one, and is greatly appreciated by our people.

THE CAPE BRETON RAILWAY.—Work on the Cape Breton railway is rapidly progressing, and within the next six weeks the line will be completed from end to end. The great bridge at the narrows is finished and will be tested this week by placing four locomotives upon it. Towards the end of next month the line will be formally opened by His Excellency the Governor General.

Auld, Freetown, on Thursday last. Rev. Mr. Tuffis performing the marriage ceremony. Mr. Lawson is book-keeper for a large concern in Chelsea, Mass., and on Friday morning the happy pair left for that city.

FOR BARBADOES.—The Summerside Agriculturist says: The brig, Hattie Louise sailed from here last Saturday, for Barbadoes for orders. She carries the following cargo, shipped by Mr. A. M. Wright: 2,500 sacks of oats, 200 bales hay, 28 horses, 70 sheep, 1 cow and calf. Gross value, including fodder, $10,035. She is commanded this trip by Capt. Robert Sanderson, of St. Peter's Bay, with Mr. Oliver Carver as first mate. Capt. Barnard will remain here for a couple of weeks longer, and will then visit his friends in the Northwest.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday last, John O'Donnel, of Souris River, met with an accident that resulted in his death a few hours afterwards. In the afternoon of the day named he and his son, a lad of 14 years of age were engaged at work in the field hauling in hay. After loading the truck they started for the barn when by some means or other, the pitchfork fell off the load sticking into the horse, causing him to spring suddenly forward. The deceased who had hold of the reins, was thrown down and one of the wheels passed over his body. He was at once taken into the house. He died shortly afterwards, leaving a widow and family who have the deepest sympathy of the community in their severe and unexpected affliction. A large number of persons attended his funeral on Friday. He was a quiet and respectable man.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Carroll, Capt. Brown, arrived from Boston about nine o'clock on Saturday evening, with a general cargo and the following passengers:—Mr E W Wilkins, Mrs Wilkins, James Haynes, Miss E R Longfellow, C F Candall and wife, C H Hawkes, J Gigenheim, Miss Ida Hobbs, Mr Morton, Miss Christie B Murray, Miss M Levee, Mrs J E Davis, Mrs Grace H Thompson, Miss Williams, Mrs Ritchie, Mrs G D Henry, Mr Henry, E V Cormerais, A Worthington, Miss V Young, Mrs Oliver, Miss May Farrow, J H Varney, J T Cameron, Prof Newcomb, Don Cameron, John Cameron, Miss Flora McDonald, Miss Carrie Mcintosh, M McCabe, G Oakland, H Hall, D Ross, Miss McVane, James A Steele, H T Goldsmith, A Beaton, J K Thompson, Miss Cunningham, Miss Hastings, Mrs Emma McLean, Wm C Brown, Mrs E W Campbell, Miss Flora Archibald, Thos G Small, Mrs Wm McKenzie, C E Knowles, A M McDonald.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN LOST OVERBOARD.—James Pyke, son of Timothy Pyke, of Channel, Newfoundland, was one of the crew of the schooner Golden City, Capt. Raika, on a voyage from St. John's, Nfld., to Halifax. On Monday night last, when about 30 miles from land, young Pyke was left on deck while all the rest of the hands, the night being dead calm, went below and turned in. In the morning he was missing; no traces of him were to be seen anywhere. The captain at once put back to Channel. It is supposed that the young man had fallen asleep while on watch and had tumbled over the rail and was drowned. After delivering the sad news to the parents of the missing man the Captain set sail again for Halifax.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Grievance.

SIR,—The Heather Belle now lands her freight at Angus Brien's wharf. The accommodation is in every way superior to the Government wharf, in this way, the covering of the wharf is A. I. On the Government wharf this spring we saw a gentleman bring a horse down to ship on the boat for Ch'town and the covering on the wharf was so bad that the horse broke through and sustained some injury. There was no clique held a council about the wharf or wharfing. (Query—is the animal worthy of a council.) The owners of the S. S. Heather Belle can send her where they please. We presume some of the shareholders of the boat are just as good supporters of the Dominion & Local government as Yellow Quill, just as influential as the creatures who scribbled a grievance. There was no man fell over into the briny deep on Saturday, the writer of a grievance we fear, had snakes in his boots again. No person lost their balance, the only thing that is in the habit of losing its balance, and it is so notorious for losing what little it has, that its friends have had to take charge of it, and put the thing on its behaviour.

Mr. Brien's wharf has some lumber on it, true. Is the Government wharf clear of debris? Is it not turned into a coal shed? Is not the Government wharf at the present time covered with coal? Is not the covering of the Government wharf at the present time unsafe for foot passengers, let alone horses and wagons? The majority of the public are well satisfied with the wharf and wharf rates, especially those who ship any quantity of produce, etc. The gentleman who owns the wharf is a general favorite. The agent of the Heather Belle is just what the people want. The public are perfectly satisfied, and we defy contradiction. No danger of any rebellion against the Local or Dominion Government. Note the handsome majority that William Campbell had at the late contest. There is a greater depth of water at Brien's wharf than any other wharf at this port, and it can be proven by measuring.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.—The case of the schooner Willie Irving, detained at Souris through the conduct of her refractory crew—referred to in THE EXAMINER last week—assumed practical shape on Saturday last, when a warrant was sworn out by Capt. Seeley, before a local J. P., against George Bushy, the ringleader of them. The trial took place in the Souris court House, immediately after the arrest was made by Sheriff McDonald. M. McCormack, John McLean and J. R. McLean, J. P.'s, heard the witnesses, and sentenced Bushy to six weeks' imprisonment with hard labor in the County Jail. While the commitment was being prepared for Bushy, another of the crew, John Mullens by name, took it into his head to steal a horse and wagon standing near the Court House, and belonging to Mr. McCormack, one of the convicting Magistrates. He was pursued by a constable, and after a hot chase overtaken and brought back. The Magistrate was the prosecutor this time. Mullens was at once tried and found guilty of horse stealing, for which offence he was sent off in company with his companion, Bushy, on the noon train, in charge of Sheriff McDonald, to serve out a three months' residence in jail with hard labor. Those who know say it served them right, as since their arrival in port they have shown themselves to be rather "balmy" characters.
