SILVER WEDDING.

Interesting Celebration at "Knockrour" Last Night.

"Knockrour," the residence of Mr. Justice, Fitzgerald was last night a scene of rare enjoyment. On the invitation of Judge and Mrs. Fitzgerald a large number of guests assembled to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Dancing began at nine o'clock and continued until after one. After supper Mr. F. L. Hazard, Q. C., called the assemblage to order and in a neat speech conveyed the congratulations of those present to Judge and Mrs. Fitzgerald, and on behalf of a few of their old friends presented a very handsome pair of silver candleabra suitably inscribed. Judge Warburton and Mr. Arthur Peters, Q. C., also made neat speeches appropriate to the occasion. Judge Fitzgerald, in his happy manner, acknowledged the gift and the expression of good will which accompanied it. The EXAMINER joins in the congratulations, and trusts that the happy couple may live to celebrate their golden wedding.
