

The Recompense.

TO THE GREATEST OF LIVING POETS.

The world still juggles with its pleasure; feigns Whence it lacks, and lives pretentious days. Spurning calm joys, truth, beauty, simple ways— These old inspirers of the poet's pains. O solitary! still be these thy gains, The harvest of thy thought, the things of praise, The solemn chords of thy remembered lays, The notes which live when worldly mounthings wane!

Nor these alone thy guerdon and reward: For inspiration hath a restless joy More sweet than lover's dreams. Thy flights afford Fairer activities than love's employ; The offspring of a spirit set apart Yet knit forever to the human heart.

Fort Augustus.

The people of Fort Augustus are always glad to see the Heather Belle, Capt. McLean, and her obliging crew. It would be quite an accommodation to the passengers from Fort Augustus, and particularly those who do business, if the steamer would remain at Charlottetown until 4 p. m., as it is impossible for them to do their business when they have to leave at 2.30. It may be said she has to attend the tide; but the tide generally suits as well at 4.

Hon. Messrs. Ferguson and Bentley will please kindly use their influence to cause the steamer to delay till 4. Both Hagarty's and Cranberry wharves are much in need of repairs.

The people here are much interested in the proposed telephone line from Mount Stewart to Fort Augustus and Webster's Corner. It is to be hoped that the representatives of the district will present to Parliament the numerous signed petition forwarded, and that the Government will grant the small annual bonus the Telephone Company ask.

TRADER.

Crapaud Notes.

At Crapaud there is a good stir of business. McLean & Cameron have made extensive improvements in their dry goods store, and in addition they have erected a large warehouse for general purposes. In this establishment the wants of the country trade are carefully considered, and everything, as the saying goes, "from a needle to an anchor" may be obtained at reasonable rates; and added to this you will find gentlemanly and obliging attendants always ready to cater to the wants of customers.

The Farmer's Grocery and Drug Store, under the supervision of its general proprietor, O. B. Waldman, Esq., is replete with choice groceries, fancy goods, drugs and chemicals of the very best, and Mr. Waldman is bound to sell at the lowest prices, so that all who patronize this establishment are liberally and fairly dealt with, and come away satisfied.

The tailoring establishments turn out first-class garments, and a goodly number of busy workers are employed constantly. The same remark will apply to the Crispinites who are equally busy (despite Satan's efforts to find "some mischief still for idle hands to do.") In this branch of business Mr. Joseph McNeill takes the lead. He guarantees a fashionable boot, a comfortable fit and moderate prices every time.

Mr. P. Newson has all that he can attend to in his line, and prides himself upon being able to turn out the most fashionable harness and trimmings that can be made on the Island. He is most attentive to his calling and spares neither time nor trouble to please his customers. Mr. Robert McDonald the village artificer in all kinds of iron work does a good stroke of business, and has his hands full all the time. Mr. James Arbing's tannery is centrally situated where first-class leather is manufactured. He understands his business.

The carriage factory, owned by Mr. Robert Reid, is not the least amongst Crapaud's industries. Here you can get supplied with any description of wag-n and sleigh that may be desired with all the latest improvements, made from first-class material and well-seasoned wood, painted in the first style of the art by a practical man who spares no pains from the plainest work to the most elaborate coat of arms.

CAUTION.

HAVING heard that parties are hawking Spectacles through the country and charging enormous prices for ordinary Glasses, we beg to say that we guarantee to sell our Spectacles at from 25 to 100 per cent. cheaper than these peddlers. We sell a better Spectacle for $1.50 than those for which $2.50 has been paid in the country to peddlers. Farmers and others—don't be cheated by any false representation of sharpers, no matter what they call themselves. We buy direct from manufacturers, and take special care to give correct lease required for each eye, so that in getting a pair of Spectacles from us you do not get a glass too strong for a good eye just because a weaker eye requires one, which you might do if you purchased in the ordinary way. Of course, there are some parties whom Spectacles will never benefit, but they are very few indeed; and we have successfully fitted many persons with the correct thing who had never been able to see properly before, and after they had tried and failed to get suited from so-called Optician Opticians.

NOTE.—We employ no traveling agents, but our Glasses may be ordered, if preferred, through any of our resident agents in the country, who will be happy to give you information required. Pamphlets giving information sent free on application to
