MRS. R. COADY will, in a few days, open a first-class oyster saloon in the well-known stand on Great George Street, opposite St. Dunstan's Cathedral, formerly the "North Star."

The Rev. C. Stewart, D. D., Professor of Theology in Sackville College, will preach on Christian Education to-morrow morning in the Second Methodist Church, at 10.30. A collection in aid of Conference educational fund will be taken up at the close.

SOME of the good people of Belfast were greatly wonderstruck on Wednesday evening by a strange moving light in the southern sky. They could not make it out, and some began to think that the last day had come, and would hardly be persuaded that something terrible was not about to happen. The light proceeded from the ships of war.

We regret to learn that Mr. J. F. Powers, one of our most enterprising citizens, is closing up his business, preparatory to leaving the Province. By strict attention to business and courtesy, Mr. Powers succeeded in securing large patronage in his line, which nothing but good prospects elsewhere would induce him to abandon. We wish him success in his new home.

The Rev. Dr. Walker, we are glad to know has returned from his recent tour to the neighboring Republic, much improved in health and delighted with his trip which comprehended the principal New England cities. Returning, Dr. Walker spent some time at Toronto, Montreal and Quebec. His principal stopping place, however, was Lowell, Mass., where his brother, Dr. Hugh Walker is doing a flourishing business. On his return the reverend gentleman was agreeably surprised to find that his kind-hearted parishioners, thoughtful for his comfort, had added many valuable articles of furniture to his house and carpeted the sanctuary of the Church with rich carpeting. Father Walker is very much beloved by his people.

The great artillery competition, open to all the batteries of garrison artillery in the Dominion, will be held at the Island of Orleans, Quebec, commencing Sept. 6th and continuing till the 9th. The following are the names of the Island team so far as we can obtain them: No 1—Sergt. Offer, Corp. Connolly, Corp. Boswall, Gunners Macdonald, Scantlebury, Warren and Proud. No 2—Lieut. J. H. Bell, Sergt. Thomas Dover, Corp. A. Alley, Corp. L. E. Prowse, Gunners Hamm, Ferguson, McLaran and Long. There will also be seven men from the Montague Battery. The teams have commenced practice and are bound to give a good account of themselves.

By late Roman advices we are glad to notice the names of two Islanders among the degree winners at the late closing exercises of the Propaganda College, held on the 5th inst., Messrs. Curran and Morrissey, the former well known as the late very efficient School Inspector for the Eastern section of the Province, the latter a talented young Island student, were awarded the degree of B. B. Bachelor in Theology. The young gentlemen have now passed three years in the Eternal City, taking advantage of their great opportunities, and sustaining the reputation of their Island home every year. 'Tis certainly flattering to our young men to hold such creditable places in their studies in this great center of learning and civilization—the city of the Caesars and the Popes.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.) A Conflict Imminent. PARIS, Aug. 26. A conflict is imminent between the government and the Municipal Council. A decree was to-day published announcing the latter's resolutions inviting delegates from the Municipalists in France, announcing the latter's resolution inviting delegates from the municipalities in France to a grand Congress here; but a large number of towns are certain to respond. The Government announces that it is determined to prevent the Congress, which will be the first step towards the federation of the Communes.

Another Dory Disaster. YARMOUTH, Aug. 26. At Salmon River, this morning, between five and six o'clock, five fishermen started out in two dories to look after their nets. They had scarcely left the shore when the fierce surf lifted their dories in the air, and turned them over. In one dory were Arsol Saulnier and James Kelley. The latter succeeded in getting the dory righted, and pulled his companion into it, and they got ashore again. The occupants of the other dory were all drowned. The accident happened close to the shore, and no assistance could be given.

Starvation and Cannibalism. WINNIPEG, Aug. 26. Advice received at Edmonton, N. W. T., from the Chippewayo Country, in the far north, report a bad state of affairs. The starvation of last winter caused several cases of cannibalism. One old woman, not a Chippewayo, admits having killed and eaten her whole family last winter at Little Red River. Starvation and cannibalism are also reported from the Mackenzie River country.

The Bulgarian King. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26. Well informed persons state that the Government does not intend to take further active steps in Bulgaria, but will confine itself to efforts to prevent the legalization of Prince Ferdinand's proceedings. By thus paralyzing his actions the Government expects to compass his downfall.

English Opinion. OTTAWA, Aug. 26. A special cablegram says the general opinion in England is that the struggle between Manitoba and the Central Government had reached too active a stage to admit of a compromise, and that fears are entertained at some quarters for the integrity of the Dominion.

Sir John's Denial. OTTAWA, Aug. 26. The Government organ announces that Sir John has wired to Ottawa denying the remarks attributed to him about the sending of British troops to Manitoba and saying that they are malicious falsehoods.

The "Herald" Building Burned. MONTREAL, Aug. 26. A fire occurred to-night which destroyed the Herald printing office and other offices in the same building. Loss, $175,000—insured.

Attacked by Hydrophobia. LONDON, August 26. Viscount Dourle, who was attacked by hydrophobia, resulting from the bite of a fox, received last January, is dead.
