

SUMMARY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Market: Narrowly easier in Monday trading.
New York: Stocks lower, aircrafts rally.

CURRENCIES

MONTREAL (CP) — The U.S. dollar Monday closed at a discount of 4 per cent in terms of Canadian sterling, down 3 1/2 points since 12.30 p.m. on 11.6.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market Monday rallied in the closing minutes to fill the earlier losses by more than one-half point. Trading, however, was weakest in more than three years.

Brokers said there was no apparent panic here about the launching of Russia's second earth satellite. The said Wall Street's decline was a strong interference but that is the case in most sessions, and that is why the news that the pushers prices lower in New York.

Base metals staged the strongest rally, recovering all their interference to point a gain almost one-half point. Senior issues were mixed to higher while several of the commodity prices were back in the last hour.

Western oils had an index loss of more than one-half point as senior stocks lost fractional ground. Lower priced metals were a shade easier.
Index changes: Golds of 18 to 70.22; western oils of 18 to 131.91.
