LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Manitoba Letter.

Sir,—I have very frequently thought of P. E. Island and the many old friends that reside here since I last wrote. But there has been so little to tell—no blizzard, no railway trains blocked with snow, nobody frozen, everything going along in such a quiet, contented way—that the pen of your correspondent lay idle. But a change has come; the cold winter has early yielded to a splendid spring, and here on the 25th March thousands of acres are already seeded. The land is in splendid condition. Agricultural implement men are pushed to meet the demand for seeders, drills, harrows, etc. Three weeks ago the first wave of a tide of immigration rolled out on our platform at Nepeawa. Since then train load after train load has arrived—men, women and children, pots, kettles and pans, bag and baggage, chairs, cupboards and tables, harnesses, and pigs, hens, geese and turkeys. These are the settlers that have come to stay. No wild speculation in this move, for most of them have seen the land before. Last year the railroad people arranged for cheap excursions from Ontario, and hundreds took advantage of the opportunity to come out and see this land and its inhabitants. One week's stay here, and all the old stories that have been retailed and detailed about the frozen ears and the frost-cracked kettles on a red hot stove were so heavily discounted that in some instances land was purchased at once, and others returned east to sell out as fast as possible, and get here, so as to get a crop in this spring.

But the railroads did more than that. They organized cheap excursions to Ontario, and many that have been out here for this year went back to see old friends, and this did more to open the eyes of people east than the other excursions. To hear from the lips of men who have been years in the country, plain and unvarnished statements of their own successes, has induced many who have large families to settle to come here at once.

I should like very much to see a nicely arranged excursion for the Maritime Provinces this summer, for I think that many of the people on your snug little Island would like the opportunity of seeing this grand country; and I am sure that the hundreds of young people that annually go from your shores to the United States to work for other people, if they only knew how easily they could get homes of their own here, and in a few years be independent, would prefer, if they must leave home, this land. Among those who have lands to offer to actual settlers, perhaps there are none that can do better than the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway Co. Nepeawa is situated on their line, and I have been over most of their road, and in the interest of an old friend in New Brunswick, I am going next month to Saults, the present terminus, to look at land for him. This road has, in Winnipeg, a Land Office where they have maps so nicely arranged, and full information so easily accessible, that a man may learn more in an hour than he would in a week's travel. And then they give him so many years on the instalment plan to pay for land, that it comes easy, and they are not likely to increase the price, as the large immigration is inducing private parties to do. Now, Mr. Editor, I am a land agent as you very well know, and I have no personal interest to serve, but I am a loyal Canadian, and when I can induce people for their good to make their homes under the old flag, in a fertile country, in good moral and religious surroundings, I shall gladly employ my pen. My nine years residence in P. E. Island brought me in such close relation with so many of your readers that I think many of them would like to know just what after six years' residence here I can tell them.

With kind regards to yourself and many well remembered friends, I am
Yours truly,
W. COLPITTS.
Nepeawa, Man., March 25, 1889.

Notes from the Capital.

Sir,—The writer, in moments of rest, is often carried back in memory to his Island home, its people and its scenes of former years; and, seeing by the Island papers, that there is no regular correspondent in the Capital at present, I hazard a few hurried items in the hope that your readers may learn of the doings here—the favored spot of Canada.

Many Islanders struck the capital since parliament was convened. The latest was Dr. J. T. Jenkins, who was delayed here a few days, whilst rendering special professional aid to Senator Howland, who has been very ill for five weeks.

Apart from a series of questions, a few stray notes, &c., across the floor of parliament, with a lively breeze on the loan negotiated last June, there is nothing exciting in the Commons. Anti-Jesuit resolution all was rush and excitement. For three days and as many nights every possible spot available in the Commons galleries was taken up by thousands of anxious listeners, as the carrying of the unjust resolution meant the defeat of the Government, moved as it was when the House was going into supply. Hundreds of ill-advised delegates from all parts of Ontario were assembled, full of the false faith and foolish hope that a few non-contents in Ontario could prevent the Jesuit's Estates Bill from taking effect in the Province of Quebec. But the simple few who thought they could form a third party found themselves with but thirteen supporters in the Commons against one hundred and eighty-eight, composed of the leaders of both parties. Hence the silence, since, among the religious firebrands who were making such a "noise about a little piece of pork." Such was the apt and fitting comparison made by Sir John A. Macdonald

Local and Other Items.

ISLAND HORSES.—The St. John Telegraph of Friday, reports that Ed. Gorrel has twelve Island horses at Campbell & Fleming's stable, Union Street.

If that lady at the lecture the other night only knew how nicely Hall's Hair Renewer would remove dandruff and improve the hair she would buy a bottle.

A CURIOSITY.—Mr. C. A. Brown, of Tignish, has a curiosity in the shape of a two-headed lamb, which we understand will shortly be studied by Mr. S. N. Earle.

FIRST TRIP.—The steamer Carroll left Boston for this port this afternoon, and is expected to arrive here on Tuesday or Wednesday next. Potatoes will be carried the first trip at 12 cents per bushel.

Scrofula is transmitted from parent to child, and thus becomes a family inheritance for generations. It is therefore, the duty of every scrofulous person to cleanse his blood by a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"After a varied experience with many so-called cathartic remedies, I am convinced that Ayer's Pills give the most satisfactory results. I rely exclusively on these Pills for the cure of liver and stomach complaints."—John B. Bell, Sr., Abilene, Texas.

PANSIES AND GRASS.—Says the Campbellton Pioneer:—Mr. A. O. Barbrie, station master at Campbellton showed on Saturday last a bunch of full blown pansies which he had picked in his garden that morning. He also had some blades of grass two and three inches long which looked green enough for June.

MONEY FOR PARNELL.—A great mass meeting was held at Stratton, Pa., one night last week, at which a collection of $3,000 was taken up in aid of the Parnell Defense Fund. The meeting was preceded by a great procession of the Irish Societies, and was participated in by the Catholic priests of the entire diocese.

A STONE BLOCK FOR MONCTON.—The Moncton correspondent of the Sackville Post gives currency to the report that among the contemplated improvements (in the near future) to the architectural beauty of Main street is a three story building block, with a frontage of 100 ft, depth 90 feet, with a line of warehouses in the rear fronting on the I. C. R. siding.

BIG DROP IN JEWELRY.—Says the Campbellton Pioneer: On Friday two Jews who were peddling watches and jewelry around the camps were coming down and got their horse in the ice and lost all their property, barely escaping with their lives. Their loss is horse and sleigh, $700 cash and from $5,000 worth of watches and jewelry. They were in the water half an hour.

AN OCEAN FLYER.—The new Inman steamer, City of Paris, completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic on the 11th from Queenstown, making the trip from harbor to harbor in six days, eight hours and fifty-three minutes. It was expected that the steamer would make the trip within a few hours of six days. Her failure to do so is attributed to the fact that the new machinery has not had time to smooth down and the weather not being favourable for a quick voyage.

NEW STORE.—George A. Dixon & Co., of Charlottetown, are coming to New Glasgow to do business and have taken the store on Provost street lately occupied by S. D. McCormack. They will run an agency of the Charlottetown Woollen Mills and will deal principally in cloths and wool.—New Glasgow Enterprise. [Mr. Dixon is an active, energetic young man, and understands his business thoroughly. THE EXAMINER wishes him success in his new venture.]

BUYING UP BREWERIES.—A man named Charles Landy, representing an English Syndicate, has interviewed large brewers in Montreal with the object of investing capital in Canadian breweries. The plan is to buy out two-thirds of the stock and let the proprietors retain the remaining third and run the business in his own name as formerly. This syndicate has been operating a little over a year and has bought a number of very large breweries in different parts of the States.

HORSE WITH EIGHT FEET.—Says the Madison Journal: James McCloud, of Lodi, owns a horse on his Dakota farm which has eight feet. Not until the pasterns or fetlock joint is reached in the descent from the shoulder to the foot is there any apparent difference between this horse and any other. But at the pastern joint, or lower end of the shin bone, the branch begins, and two perfectly formed feet are found on each of the four legs. The horse runs on the range the same as any and as fast as most of them, and all eight feet are shod, or may be if desired. McCloud has refused $2,500 for a half interest in the curiosity, but he wants $5,000 outright for the whole animal.

More than a quarter of a century of practical experience as Seedsmen, Nurserymen and Market Gardeners, offering for sale only those seeds, trees and plants they would have no hesitation in planting themselves, and the fact that they are still in, and will continue the business, and to be found in the Charlottetown Market at their Horticultural Stalls, Nos. 23, 24, 25 and 26, as well as at home, has given the public confidence in Gay & Son, and in the future, as in the past, they will study to merit a continuance of the trust reposed in them. Look out for our advertisement in a week or two. Send for price list of our seeds, plants and trees. Address, J. J. Gay & Son, Pownal. ap12 w11 321 pd

The astounding news comes from the east that Col. Fred Grant bites off the end of a cigar, lights it and inserts it between his teeth in exactly the same manner that his distinguished father used to perform the same feat. This must have been the reason why the President made Fred Minister to Austria.
