With health and beauty laden,
A rich and priceless thing,
To woman rale and wasted,
My precious gift I ring.

Blood will Tell.

Good blood will show its quality. So will bad blood, the one in a healthy body and ruddy complexion, the other, in ill health, blotches, pimples, boiles and sores, and frequently in intenser forms as ulcers, absesses, erysipelas, scrofulous diseases, salt rheum, etc. Every organ of the body depends upon the blood for force and vitality, and is but scantily served when the blood is impure. No remedy is so potent as a blood purifier or more rapidly produces new and healthy blood than Burdock Blood Bitters, which neutralizes the various poisons and restores the vitalizing power of this all important fluid As an instance of this read what Mr. J. S. Neff, of Algoma Mills, Ont., says in a recent letter.

Sirs,—A year ago I was troubled with spots breaking out all over my body, the effect of bad blood. I consulted three different doctors, who gave me medicine but did not cure me. I was advised to try B.B.B and after using two bottles I noticed the spots getting less. I continued the use of B.B.B, which entirely cured me, giving me, also a splendid appetite. Since then I wouldld use no other medicine.

Perhaps the most novel craft ever sailed on San Diego Bay was the one launched by J D. Palmer, the house mover, the other day. The craft in question was a five room cottage which Mr. Palmer had taken a contract to move to South San Diego. It was loaded on two barges and drawn by a naptha launch

Mr. J. H. Humphrey, 46 Bond Street, Toronto, says Burdock Blood Bitters wrought a complete cure of dyspepsia in his case after all else had failed.

"I say, Jenkins, can you tell a young tender chicken from an old, tough one?" "Of course I can." "Well, how?" "By the teeth." "Chickens have no teeth." "No, but I have."

Nothing creates more disease, discomfort and distress than constipation of the bowels In B.B B. we have a remedy sure to remove and cure it.

Everybody has one mouth and two ears. This shows that twice as much is heard a said. And most people have but one nose, which shows that no one nose whether more than half he hears said is true.

Young fellows do not appreciate the blessings of living in the present age Just think what little fun Adam had as a masher. He only had a chance to be sweet on one girl, and he was compelled to take her or get left.

Mrs. Jane Vansickle, Alberton, Ont., was cured of liver complaint, after years of suffering, by using five bottles of B.B.B. She recommends it.

"I've got a pencil that will mark all colors," said Stumpleg to his wife. "What color do you want to write?" His wife suggested red, and with one foot ready for a jump, Stumpleg calmly spelled out "r-e-d," with his black pencil.

Bad blood breeds divers distressing diseases, Burdock Blood Bitters banishes boils and blotches, with every other symptom arising from bad blood.

What folly to suffer so with catarrhal troubles, when the worst cases of chronic catarrh in the head are relieved and cured by the mild, cleansing and healing properties of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It purifies the foul breath, by removing the cause of offence, heals the sore and inflamed passages, and perfects a lasting cure.

It would be worth while for the ladies to bear in mind that if they take a gentle course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the spring, they will have no trouble with "prickly heat," "hives," "ticties," "boils," or "black heads," when summer comes. Prevention is better than cure.

The kind of "reading" which "maketh a full man," is probably the wine when it is read—Puck.

It is not theory but fact—that Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong. A fair trial will convince you of its merit.

Jarson says you seldom see real concentration unless you find a man who is reading his own communication in a newspaper.—Elmira Gazette.

Why squander money in expensive doctor's bills when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people offer so cheap and positive a blood builder, nerve tonic and spring reconstructor? The most marvelous remedy of the age. Cures where doctors have pronounced cases incurable. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Address Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont., or Morristown, N. Y. Beware of imitations.

There are lots of wives in the world who never know that their husbands are "jovial and whole-souled" except when they see it in the papers.—Atchison Globe.

"Johnson's Anodyne Liniment prevented my death from bronchitis," writes an ardent friend.

Do you wear your sunniest smiles when you want to get an unusual favor from your husband? No; I wear my briniest tears:—Yarmouth Register.

Whence once used, you will, like others, call for Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and nothing else.

Singerly—Hello! What have you got that on in the house for? Strawber—It's my first silk hat and I am practising to wear it outdoors—Clothier and Furnisher.

Weak lungs are strengthened by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, as directed with each bottle.

It is strange that people who want to commit suicide never think to blow in a shot gun to find out whether it loaded—Ram's Horn.

Many rise in the morning with a headache and no inclination for breakfast This is due to torpidity of the liver and a deranged condition of the stomach To restore healthy action to these organs, nothing is so efficacious as an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills.

The Wonderful Success

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier entitles it to your confidence. No other preparation has such a record of cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, or other blood diseases. To try it is to know its merit. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For a general family catarrh we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

Garfield Notes.

The roads in this section of the country have dried up excellently and travelling is quite brisk.

Farmers are busy ploughing and preparing for the spring's work.

We are happy to see our friend, Mr. Daniel McDonald, among us again, after having spent three years in New Hampshire. He says the climate of the White Mountains is quite agreeable, and no doubt it is, for he looks well.

Our enterprising merchant, M. A. McKenzie, Esq., who has always a full line of goods, consisting of choice groceries, boots, shoes and rubbers, is about to build a large and commodious store for his ever increasing business. We wish him every success.

The farmers around here take as their choice paper the Island Guardian, because in its columns every week they find something of the greatest importance to them. Reporter.

The Orange Groves Afar.

He was in his young manhood and two or three friends were bidding him goodbye last night at the Barclay street ferry. The hectic flush, the rasping cough and the touch of death upon his pallid face told the story of young days soon ended when life should have just begun.

"Good-bye, Tom," said I, grasping his hand and looking into his face in a way that words could never express.

"Good bye, old friend," he said, simply, extending his hand and smiling through his tears.

A fit of coughing seized him, and it was some minutes before he could articulate again.

"When you get down to Florida," said a second, "don't forget to write to me."

"Soon, as soon as I get there," he replied, feebly, looking out into the night.

There was the black river rolling on to the sea, the strange noises on the wharf and the river, the glimmering of the far-off lights, and the lapping of the waves against the pier. The night was starless and black as ink.

Then the ferry swept to the mooring; people passed and repassed; by-and-bye the boat was about to cast off. He was the last one aboard, coughing as he went. He turned, and looking back, said:—

"Tom, in case I—I do not reach the orange groves——"

"Yes?"

"Cheer up my mother; will you, for me?"

"Yes, old fellow."

"Tell her not to worry; tell her I'll soon be home again."

Then the chains rattled free, and the boat swept out into the dark stream, bearing him away. As the friends went away one said:—

"Poor Jack; he will never reach the orange groves."

"That is true," said the other; "but it will always be sweet for me to think that his last words were——"

"Yes?"

"Of his mother."—New York Recorder.

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

Dear Sirs,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery.

C. C. Haun,
Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cumines, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself;
Messrs. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

Gentlemen,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly,
Thomas Cumines,
Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.
