Pridham-Ashley Wedding

On Tuesday, July 17th, 1951, a very pretty summer wedding was solemnized at the Elm Dale Nazarene Church when Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ashley of Casumptec, became the bride of Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pridham of Montrose. The officiating clergyman, Rev. R. O. Johnston of St. John, N. B., was assisted by Rev. W. C. Wilcox, pastor of the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. W. C. Wilcox and during the signing of the register Mr. Fred MacMillan sang, "The Bridal Prayer."

The church was beautiful with cut flowers and the guest pews were marked with white ribbon and pink roses. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in white satin wedding gown with fitted bodice trimmed with ocean pearl buttons, full skirt, and long lily pointed sleeves. Her three-quarter length veil of rayon net was held in place by a coronet, and she carried a cascade of red roses with shower of maiden hair fern. Mrs. Douglas Rix of Saint John, N.B., was her sister's matron of honor. Her floor-length gown of lilac taffeta had a fitted bodice with high neckline, full skirt and short sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length veil of lilac net held in place by a coronet of flowers and carried a bouquet of gladioli.

Miss Esther Ashley and Miss Dorothy Bonyman were bridesmaids. Their gowns and veils were similar in style to that of the matron of honor. Miss Ashley wore maize and Miss Bonyman wore apple green. Both carried gladioli.

Little Miss Vaunda Ashley, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her floor-length gown of turquoise blue had fitted bodice, full skirt and cape. She carried a bouquet of snapdragon. Mr. Eric Hodgson of St. John was groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Floyd Hardy and Mr. Alder Pridham.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ashley chose navy crepe with white accessories. She wore a white straw hat and her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother wore copen blue satin with black straw hat, silver fox fur and corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Craswell Weeks, grandmother of the bride, wore figured dark blue crepe with black straw hat. Following the marriage ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents. A delicious buffet luncheon was served on the lawn. The three-tier wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and a nicely decorated bride's cake was made by the groom's mother, Mrs. David Matthews and Mrs. Earl Coleman, aunts of the bride, poured. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Earl Flote, Mrs. Harold Ashley, Mrs. Fred Ashley, Miss Marie Lewis, Miss Edna Lewis, Mrs. Elmer Wallace, Miss Rita Wallace, Miss Joyce Ashley, and Mrs. John Raynor.

Misses Shirley Pridham and Betty Ashley were in charge of the bride's book and Miss Norma Rix escorted the guests to view the many beautiful wedding gifts.

Out-of-town guests included Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Johnston and family, Miss Ethel Foss, Mrs. Perley Pridham, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rix, Messrs. Ernest Hodgson, Masters Eric and Blair Hodgson, all of St. John, N.B.; Mrs. Earl Flote of Windsor, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Burns of Lunenburg; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pridham of Fredericton, N. B.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coleman and Miss Lorraine Doherty of Woburn, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley with their sons, Lowden and Ivan, of Union Road, Miss Edna Lewis and Mr. Wendell Hardy of Summerside.

For going away the bride wore a light blue gabardine suit with white straw hat and white accessories. Following a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Pridham will reside in St. John, N. B.

here has designed a school for 200 children to cost $35,000.

Tignish Shore School Closing

The closing exercises of Tignish Shore School were held recently in the presence of the members of the School Board, a large delegation of parents, ratepayers and visitors. Mr. Ben J. Pitre, president of the Home and School Association presided. Interesting demonstrations in arithmetic, language, social studies, and readings were well carried out by the pupils of the different grades, as well as an excellent choral program which was greatly appreciated by everyone present. Thirty-four pupils received grading certificates which were presented by Mr. Edward J. Arsenault, Secretary of Trustees. Each pupil received a prize with Mr. Arsene Gallant, Chairman of Trustees making the presentations. The address for the occasion was delivered by Mr. Gilbert Gaudet of Woodstock who congratulated the pupils for their excellent showing and beautiful singing. Mr. Gaudet also reminded the pupils to spend their vacation in a profitable manner.

Mr. Arthur J. Pitre who spoke in behalf of the district thanked the teacher for his interest in the welfare of the children of the district and for his fine leadership.

The teacher, Mr. Arsenault was presented with gifts from his splendid class of pupils, the Home and School Association, the First Aid Senior Class and the ladies of the district.

The exercises were brought to a close with the singing of "O Canada" and "Hail Heavenly Queen."

THE PALOMINO SHOWING AT CAPITOL THEATRE

"The Palomino," the West's mighty drama of golden horses, is coming to the Capitol Theatre today. The new Columbia Pictures' outdoor drama, with color by Technicolor, features Jerome Courtland, Beverly Tyler, Joseph Calleia and Roy Roberts.

The story of "The Palomino" concerns a four-legged tornado of rippling gold whose theft jeopardizes a Palomino horse ranch in the San Fernando Valley. The scenic beauties of the Santa Susanna mountain range provide the colorful background against which the golden Palomino horses were photographed.

Courtland plays a young cattle breeder who searches for the Palomino and woos the beautiful Miss Tyler, owner of the horse ranch; Calleia is a colorful ranch hand and Roberts plays a treacherous rancher.

Tom Kilpatrick penned the screen play from which Ray Nazarro directed. Robert Cohn produced.
