BURGESS BEDTIME
hat Johnny was moving up toward his front door. He had sounded louder because he had stopped for an instant at the entrance to his back hall. What a relief! That Dog was at the front door now and barking harder than ever. He could see Johnny Chuck, for Johnny had come up almost to the doorway, and was growling and chattering angrily. The angrier he became the more excited Flip grew. Peter crept up to where he could peep out the back doorway. Flip had eyes for nothing and no one but Johnny Chuck. Was or wasn't this a chance for Peter to take to his long heels? He wished he knew.
