

WOMEN'S REALM--SOCIAL and PERSONAL--FASHIONS--LITERATURE

YOUR INDIVIDUAL HOROSCOPE

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section your birthday comes in, and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Friday, August 11th

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Clear cut, clever ideas and methods will come in handy with the slightly unfriendly rays today.

APRIL 21 to MAY 20 (Taurus) — Can be very good for substantial matters and all constructive measures. Don't be a party to subtlety or anything that savors of trickery.

MAY 21 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — Don't seek popularity or do only those things you think will bring material gain or esteem.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) — You may be intrigued into ugly moods if not on guard. And YOU know you defeat your own purposes and splendid capability when you indulge self-pity, jealousy or illtemper.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — Business at hand, finishing incompletable matters, making preparations for future activity best favored.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Care advised in general business and personal interests. Don't worry about the future.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Difficult activities should be carefully planned and executed. Minor details, essential duties, cooperative measures and community interests rate first place.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio) — Proceed with your day's schedule quietly, cheerfully and efficiently. Take time out occasionally for a few minutes of relaxation.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius) — You will have to dig deep into your kit of ingenuity and cleverness today to put over your big propositions and all salient matters.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 21 (Capricorn) — The interpretation you put on others' views and orders from superiors and those for whom you labor will determine greatly the kind and amount of your success.

JANUARY 22 to FEBRUARY 20 (Aquarius) — If you hustled at a rapid clip yesterday, you can probably go along nicely today on your own impetus.

FEBRUARY 21 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — Favorable for week-end activities, romance, vacations, social interests, unexpected events, good news, travel.

Memoirs of A Child

(Edith Fisher)

Every family boasts of a brilliant brother and I had one too. My big brother was a business boy — a great organizer. His propositions always required capital to pull through and as father's allowance was so little, the poor boy was at a great loss to further his ventures.

Modern Etiquette

(By ROBERTA LEE)

Q. What should one do when calling on a friend and finds that she has a guest?

A. Remain for a few minutes, then leave.

Q. What is the French word for a tactless or awkward action?

A. Gaucherie. Pronounce go-shere-o, as in go, first e as in her, second e as in me, principal accent on last syllable.

Q. Is it good manners to hold a bit of food suspended on the fork while talking?

A. No; this is very bad form.

Household Scrapbook

(By ROBERTA LEE)

Sun Bleaching

The sun is a much better means of bleaching than anything else. Lay the washed garment to be whitened on the grass without wringing out the water.

Finger-Marked Furniture

Finger marks on furniture will disappear if they are rubbed with a cloth dipped in kerosene. Wipe over the surface with a clean cloth wrung out of hot water. Dry and polish.

Preserving Paint

Pouring plain paraffin over paint left in the can will preserve it and prevent it from hardening.

Morning Smile

OTHERWISE ENGAGED

In New York an Italian was being examined in the Naturalization Court to see whether he would make a useful American citizen.

He answered correctly questions as to the name of the President and the capital of the U.S.A. Then came the test.

Despite All These Ideas of Modernism the Old Fundamentals Still Prevail and When Violated Pay is Demanded With No Hope of Escape

It seems to me that the reason there are so few happy marriages nowadays is because we are trying to dress up old humanity in a new philosophy of living. And it doesn't work. It is as incongruous as dicking out Grandpa in shorts.

For we delude ourselves when we about that things are changed now; that this is a new age and we must have a new pattern of life to meet it.

Nothing is really changed, and underneath our modernistic disguise we are the same old Adam and Eve with the same old temptations.

In proof of this, consider some of the new theories with which we approach human relationship and see how they work out in real life.

But, alas, nature still runs its account with the prodigal daughter and she has to pay her score in broken health, in shattered nerves, and in a blackened name and in self-shame.

Modern husbands and wives are supposed to be so broadminded that they look upon each other's sidestepping with a lenient eye.

Then there is the alluring theory that making a home should be the least of a woman's worries, and that when she has nothing more interesting to do, but that she should not be allowed to interfere with her career.

Why, ask the advocates of this theory, should a woman sing halleluiah to a baby for nothing when she can get a couple of hundred dollars for singing an aria to an audience?

And there you are again, up against the old Adam who wants his wife to stay put and meet him with a glad, sweet smile when he comes home.

Nobody can picture a happy home with a half-time wife in it and a family gathering around a meal that will fill them with indignation and murderous impulses toward each other.

Also, there is the new theory of rearing children by the nonresistance plan by turning the other cheek. Don't you think that if it amuses him, the little Johnny dance on your pet corn if it amuses him.

This theory is a great favorite with weak and slack mothers who find it easier to give in to their children than to fight with them and make them respect their parents.

Maybe after a while we will catch up with our theories, or our theories will slow down to our gait. But certainly to put these newfangled ideas into practice is making things pretty messy right now.

Dorothy Dix

Despise All These Ideas of Modernism the Old Fundamentals Still Prevail and When Violated Pay is Demanded With No Hope of Escape

It seems to me that the reason there are so few happy marriages nowadays is because we are trying to dress up old humanity in a new philosophy of living. And it doesn't work. It is as incongruous as dicking out Grandpa in shorts.

For we delude ourselves when we about that things are changed now; that this is a new age and we must have a new pattern of life to meet it.

Nothing is really changed, and underneath our modernistic disguise we are the same old Adam and Eve with the same old temptations.

In proof of this, consider some of the new theories with which we approach human relationship and see how they work out in real life.

But, alas, nature still runs its account with the prodigal daughter and she has to pay her score in broken health, in shattered nerves, and in a blackened name and in self-shame.

Modern husbands and wives are supposed to be so broadminded that they look upon each other's sidestepping with a lenient eye.

Then there is the alluring theory that making a home should be the least of a woman's worries, and that when she has nothing more interesting to do, but that she should not be allowed to interfere with her career.

Why, ask the advocates of this theory, should a woman sing halleluiah to a baby for nothing when she can get a couple of hundred dollars for singing an aria to an audience?

And there you are again, up against the old Adam who wants his wife to stay put and meet him with a glad, sweet smile when he comes home.

Nobody can picture a happy home with a half-time wife in it and a family gathering around a meal that will fill them with indignation and murderous impulses toward each other.

Also, there is the new theory of rearing children by the nonresistance plan by turning the other cheek. Don't you think that if it amuses him, the little Johnny dance on your pet corn if it amuses him.

This theory is a great favorite with weak and slack mothers who find it easier to give in to their children than to fight with them and make them respect their parents.

Maybe after a while we will catch up with our theories, or our theories will slow down to our gait. But certainly to put these newfangled ideas into practice is making things pretty messy right now.

THE COOK'S CORNER

HOT STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

Sift 3 cups flour with 3 table-spoons sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder and 1-2 teaspoon salt. Cut in 6 table-spoons shortening. Add 1 cup milk and mix lightly.

RED RASPBERRY AND CURRANT JAM

4 cups currants
4 cups red raspberries
6 cups sugar

CANNED STRAWBERRIES

3 quarts strawberries
3 cups sugar

SORE, STIFF MUSCLES

BUCKLEY'S STAINLESS WHITE RUB

Stuck for Words?—Learn Cor-dial Phrases

End Tongue-Tied Moments

What a mouxy entrance Helen makes — tongue-tied not a single friendly phrase in her head!

Enjoy Delicious QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT and QUAKER PUFFED RICE SHOT FROM GUNS

Always tempting

ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER TODAY!

The Housewife And Her Activities

THE LIGHT BETWEEN

I love the light That comes between the evening And the night.

It heals those wounds Inflicted by the day. It washes white all stains That linger in the way.

ORNAMENTS IN LEATHER

Who would ever think of leather "jewellery"? And yet it is a reality; for among the novelties shown at a recent jewellery fashion show, were a sports necklace of brown leather discs like coins clustered together.

GLASS PANELS USED IN HOME

An opaque structural glass panelling, long a favorite for modern stoves, theatre and building fronts, is making its entry into the home.

MAMA WEARS GRANDMA'S BUSTLE

Don't look now, but isn't that mama wearing grandma's bustle? It is for a fact, but the bustle is 1938 style, and so streamlined as a train, though not so large.

Snappy Fashions For Home Use

Here is an apron that will not slide off your shoulders at the critical moment. The back is so constructed that you will wear it with perfect ease no matter what the task may be.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cold tea leaves will take the pain out of a burn. Batter will be lighter if mixed an hour or two before required.

2589 SMALL MEDIUM LARGE E-700

DESIGN NO. X 940

When the young toddler from 9 to 18 months starts on her initial tour of discovery she will have to have some serviceable dresses that can stand wear and tear.

AMAZING NEW! ODO-RO-NO Cream

CHECKS PERSPIRATION SAFELY! No waiting to dry. Takes odor from perspiration. Won't irritate skin or rot dresses. Non-Greasy...Stainless...Soothing.

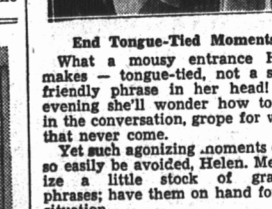

1 Full Oz. 33¢ (NOT JUST A HALF OZ.)

Three men are sitting in a cafe in a certain dictator-governed country. The first is reading a newspaper.

Suddenly the reader points to an article, shakes his head, and exclaims: "Tut, tut!"

The second man looks over his shoulder and exclaims: "Tut, tut, tut!"

The third man jumps to his feet. "If you two fellows are going to talk politics I'm going home."

End Tongue-Tied Moments

What a mouxy entrance Helen makes — tongue-tied not a single friendly phrase in her head!

Enjoy Delicious QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT and QUAKER PUFFED RICE SHOT FROM GUNS

Always tempting

ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER TODAY!

Here is an apron that will not slide off your shoulders at the critical moment. The back is so constructed that you will wear it with perfect ease no matter what the task may be.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cold tea leaves will take the pain out of a burn. Batter will be lighter if mixed an hour or two before required.

2589 SMALL MEDIUM LARGE E-700

When washing flannels, add a little glycerine to the rinsing water to keep them soft and fluffy.