

A Nice Derangement of Epitaphs.

(Rev. D. T. Phillips, Baptist Weekly)

This suggestive one I found in Charleston:

Reader, I've left a world, in which I had a world to do; Sweating and frothing to get rich Just such a fool as you.

On a tombstone at Lyons, N. Y.

Tombstone of Italy! thou hast engraven upon the sculptured marble the name and age of her whose immaculate spirit, exalted virtues and noble soul were the joy of him whose heart is left desolate. Cherub of beauty—sweet flower of innocence—last rosy ray of hope of thy heart-stricken father! though didst take thy flight with all thy loveliness whilst thy blessed mother was in heaven, thy father far from thee; but the kind father of the dear departed mother did, with an agonizing heart, see that thy obsequies were properly performed.

From a churchyard in Pennsylvania: Eliza, sorrowing, nears this marble slab To her dear John, who died of eating crab. O a tombstone of a Connecticut deacon's wife:

Here lies cut down like ripe fruit; The wife of Deacon Amos Shute She died of drinking too much coffee Annj Dornay 1840

In a cemetery at Schenectady, N. Y. He got a fishbone in his throat And then he sang an angle note.

On a gravestone near Hartford, Conn. Here lies two babes as dead as nits D. Lord he kilt dem mit ague fits When dey was too good to live with me He took dem up to live mit He So He did.

At the Catholic burying-ground, Keeseville, N. Y.

Here lies the bodies of two sisters dear One's buried in Ireland—the other lies here

At Burlington, Iowa, may be found these lines over the remains of a babe:

Beneath this stone our baby lays He neither cries nor hollers He just lived one and twenty days And costs us forty dollars.

At Burlington, Vt., this inscription may be seen in St. Mary's Cemetery: Here lies the body of Mary Ann Lowder, She burst while drinking a snuffbox powder; Called from this world to her heavenly rest, She should have waited till it effervesced.

From Oxford, New Hampshire: To all my friends I bid adieu, A more sudden death you never knew; As I was leading the old mare to drink She kicked and killed me quicker'n a wink.

A Boston Game of Poker.

An intellectual game of draw-poker has taken a firm hold on the dwellers in cultured Boston, and the teachings of the Concord School of Philosophy are for a time forgotten. Our special correspondent writes us that he recently overheard several fair daughters of the Athens of America indulging in this pleasant pastime, when the following dialogue ensued. Anastasia—"Is it my aunt? Oh, yes! well, there's a solitary check." Clytemnestra—"I will bestirde you destitute of sight, dear." Proserpine—"Will, draw your cards, girls. I will remain Patrick." Millicent—"Well, I will wager a half score of checks. Anastasia—"I behold you and elevate you five." Proserpine—"I fear that you are feigning to possess more than you really have, but, nevertheless, dears, I call you." Anastasia—"I have a homogeneous trio of aces." Millicent—"And I a Robertappendaged flush." Proserpine—"While I hold a quartette knives." Millicent—"Well, dear, then you take the ceramics."—Chicago Rambler.

Peculiar Surgical Operation.

Not long ago one of Burnum's elephants was found to be in danger of losing his sense of sight. A surgeon who had been called to examine the huge animal declared that if the elephant could be induced to submit to an operation the eye could be saved. Accordingly the poor animal was tied down, and some caustic fluid was dropped into one of his eyes. He roared with pain, for the treatment was severe. On the following day the eye that had been treated was much better, but the surgeon thought he was going to have a terrible time in operating on the other eye. Fancy his surprise to find that as soon as the great beast heard his voice he stretched himself on the ground and peacefully submitted to the painful ordeal. The elephant had simply recognized the skill and friendly purpose of his benefactor.

In Russia there is but one book to 10,000 inhabitants.

MORRIS & IRELAND'S NEW IMPROVED PATENT EIGHT-FLANGE FIRE-PROOF SAFE. THE only Eight-Flange Safe in the world, and containing more improvements than ANY SAFE made, such as: 1st. THE PATENT INSIDE BOLT WORK, which is placing the bolt work with the whole of the filling (six inches) between it and the outside, that is, as far from the fire and thief as it can be. 2nd. THE PATENT-HINGED CAP—the back plate of the door being on hinges, enabling the owner, by turning a thumbscrew, to have easy access to the lock and bolt-work. He can thus easily change the lock, clean, oil, and keep the bolt-work in good order. 3rd. IRON INSIDE LINING, stronger than wood, and which retains the moisture in the filling for an indefinite time. Wood is thicker and weaker, and after a few years absorbs the moisture and "requires filling over again." 4th. FOUR-WHEEL COMBINATION LOCKS, the simplest, strongest, most efficient and easiest to change of any in use. 5th. SOLID ANGLE IRON FRONTS, BACKS AND CORNERS, which prevents warping or injury to safe from falling, or falling walls or timbers. 6th. EIGHT FLANGES—the most important improvement ever made in fire-proof safes, providing eight laps, thus preventing the passage of heat, it having to pass over twelve inches, no injury arises from this source, as in other safes containing one, two or three flanges. THESE SAFES have stood the test of years, and the greatest fires on this continent, and have the CHAMPION RECORD in the Boston, Chicago and Haverhill Fires. We are selling these safes as low as any good safe, and are disposing of large numbers throughout the Dominion. BANK WORK AND VAULT DOORS are specialties of our firm. DISSOLUTION NOTICE. THIS is to certify that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, carrying on business under the style and firm of Bremner Brothers, has on this third day of March A. D., 1885, been dissolved by mutual consent. Dated this 3rd day of March, A. D., 1885, at Charlottetown, in Prince Edward Island. W. H. BREMNER, BENJ. BREMNER. Referring to the above, I desire on behalf of the late firm to thank the public for the very liberal patronage bestowed in the past, and to inform them that the good will of the business has been transferred to Mr. John Coombs, Queen Street. I would respectfully request all of our former customers to place their patronage with Mr. Coombs, whose facilities for doing the best class of work in Mercantile, Fancy and Book Printing, Book-binding and Blank Book Manufacturing, at the lowest prices, and in the shortest time, are unequalled in the Province. BENJ. BREMNER. Regarding the Dissolution Notice of Messrs. Bremner Bros., above, I beg to state that I will have, from this date, in my business, the practical assistance of Mr. Benjamin Bremner, who will be pleased to see all his former customers at my office, 18 Queen Street. JOHN COOMBS. March 5, 1885. [Time 4wks 2aw]
