LEADING FUR STORE—Beer Bros.

WE offer the balance of our fur goods at a discount from 10 to 40 per cent—D. A. Bruce.

I. O. O. F.—Special session of Port la Joie Encampment this evening at eight o'clock. Degree.

VOLUNTEERS' ASSOCIATION. — A special meeting of the Volunteers' Association will be held to-night at 9 o'clock. Important business.

HOCKEY.—The adjourned meeting of the Hockey Club will be in the Secretary's office in the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7 30 o'clock.

THE COUPON BUSINESS.—The Home Supply case, which has been before Judge Motton at Halifax for six days past, was concluded on Saturday, when judgment was reserved. The case attracted considerable attention.

SOCIAL.—A basket social and concert will be held in the Baptist Church at Eldon on Wednesday, 4th January, to which the public are cordially invited. Proceeds to aid in the purchase of an organ for the church. Admission 15 cents.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, John Stewart, Upper Great George Street, was arraigned on three separate charges of selling liquor after hours on Saturdays. One charge was dismissed, and for the other two he was fined $100 or three months each.

SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, Mild, Safe, Efficient. Far superior to any pill. For Headache and Liver Complaint nothing can equal these Tablets. With the DISCOVERY they cure Rheumatism. 50 in a box only 35 cts.

LADIES appreciate Anti-Dandruff from the fact that it not only thoroughly removes dandruff with three applications, but stops falling of the hair, restores fading hair to its original color, and makes it soft and pliable without leaving any indication of a dressing being used. Clear as crystal, clean to use, it is a valuable toilet preparation. 9

WAS FROM ST JOHN.—Douglas Forsaith, of St. John, N. B., was found dead in his bed at the United States Hotel on Christmas Eve. He came to the hotel early the night before and registered from Framingham, Mass. At 10 o'clock his room door was broken open and he was found suffocated from gas. He had blown the light out on retiring.

A UNIQUE CASE.—A woman named Mary M. Anderson, who was a few years ago granted a separation from her husband, Louis C. Anderson, of Seattle, has sued him for $25,000 damages on the ground of breach of promise. She avers that he courted her again a year ago, recaptured her heart and promised to remarry her, but has since married some one else.

INFLUENCE OF THE WEATHER.—We agree with the Boston Journal that there is a rich field of study for some one in the investigation of the influence of the weather upon the feelings of the people. A crowd on a bright, clear day is always a buoyant and a merry one. Everybody is an optimist. The mental conditions are practically the same in a heavy storm, be it rain or storm. But when it is half between rain and fair weather, when it is dull and damp and muggy, every person one meets seem to be a follower of Schopenhauer.

W. C. T. U.—The meeting in Zion Church last evening was presided over by Rev. D. Sutherland. There was a good attendance of the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and of the Loyal Legion. During the evening addresses were made by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, and Rev. Mr. Gordon. The members of the Loyal Legion contributed several solos and choruses, which were greatly appreciated.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The Methodist Sunday School concert last evening was largely attended and passed off very successfully. The recitations and songs by the little ones were well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed; and the solo by Miss Helen Dawson and the readings by Messrs. Boswall and Lewis were capitally given. The scenes from "The Life of Christ," with appropriate Bible readings, were greatly appreciated. We understand that to the Misses Mitchell and Blatch and Mr. Davison much credit is due for the success of the concert.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Dec 28.—0 a. m.
Generally fair and moderately cold.

Local and Other Items.

KINDLY REMEMBERED.—On Christmas Day a number of the residents of Moncton presented the widow of policeman Steadman with the snug sum of $222 50. Policeman Steadman was shot by Buck last summer.

IT is very unwise to allow an apparently simple cold to run too long without attention, as it may lead to serious complications. We would advise anyone troubled with this at present fashionable complaint to call at Johnson's drugstore and get one of the emulsions or cough remedies on sale there.

THE GRAVEYARD CASE.—A petition is in circulation in St. John praying Judge Peters to deal leniently with C. B. Welton and Dr. Randall, and to substitute a short confinement in jail for a term in Dorchester penitentiary. Many business men have signed it, but there is a very strong feeling in the community against it.

COMMENDABLE.—All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

THE EXAMINER'S CHRISTMAS SUPPLEMENT is for sale at the Diamond Bookstore It is a neat, handy Christmas present for friends abroad, and will show them how the Island home is progressing.

Personal.

James E. Macdonald, Esq, Cardigan, is registered at the Hotel Davies.

We see by one of our Toronto exchanges that Mr. Richard M. Johnson, son of Dr. R. Johnson, of this city, has passed with honors the junior examinations of the Ontario College of Pharmacy, Toronto. We congratulate our young friend and wish him a continuance of success during his senior term.

Mr. James C. McEachen, son of the late John McEachen, Esq., of this city, has been elected Chief of the Caledonian Club of New York city. Mr. McEachen was Chief of this Club in 1890, and declined a re-nomination the following year. This year he yielded to the solicitations of his host's of friends in the Club and consented to be a candidate, with the result above stated. We congratulate our talented young friend upon his success.
