

The Examiner.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., DECEMBER 14, 1857.

THE PANT.

The financial crisis, which has for several months past produced so much difficulty and disaster on both sides of the Atlantic, was not felt here to its fullest extent until after the arrival of the last English mail.

On Wednesday, the run continuing, the Bank took advantage of a clause in the Act of Incorporation which allows a suspension of specie payments for three months without a violation of their charter, and stopped the cashing of notes on demand.

At his residence in Charlottetown, on the 9th inst., Mr. George Godsell Thresher, native of Salisbury, Great Britain, in the 78th year of his age.

DISCOUNT ON EXCHEQUER BILLS.—We observe by a late English paper that Exchequer Bills in England have fallen to a discount of thirty shillings.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Last Thursday, having been the day set apart by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor for a general thanksgiving in return for the blessings of an abundant harvest.

FIRE AND SUPPOSED INCENDIARISM.—The Dunstaffnage School House, situate on Saint Peter's Road, about seven miles from Charlottetown, which has been the subject of so much litigation in the Courts and discussion in the House of Assembly.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

THE CENTRAL BANK.—A notice from the President of this Bank announces that in consequence of reports from this City relative to the refusal of the Banks here to take the paper of the Central, the latter announces it to be their duty to resort to a temporary suspension of specie payments.

The order for the commutation of the sentence of young Slavin having been received by the Judge, the warrant was issued for his confinement in the Penitentiary for life, and on Monday he was removed from the goal to the Penitentiary.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE KILDARE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—A meeting of the above Institute being held at the Kildare River School-house, on Saturday the 28th November, it was unanimously resolved, that R. Hockin take the chair, and J. G. Murphy act as Sec'y.

Resolved, That A. McEachern read the Constitution, which he was previously requested to draw out. This was accordingly done, and is as follows:—

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be called the "Kildare Teachers' Institute."

2. It shall be the object of this Society to awaken the interest and enlist the sympathy of the community in all matters connected with the proper education of the young, and to appoint committees of two or more Teachers, whose duty it shall be to visit each others' schools for the double purpose of seeing the methods of instruction pursued, and reporting the same to the Institute for the mutual benefit of all its members.

3. The committees to visit the different schools shall be appointed once in each quarter.

4. The officers of this Society shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and Treasurer, and a committee of five, as managers or directors, who shall be appointed half-yearly, and shall retain their places until others are elected.

5. The Secretary shall present, at the quarterly meetings, a report of the condition and doings of the Institute.

6. The quarterly and monthly meetings shall be held, by appointment from last meeting, on such convenient locality as may be deemed most expedient.

7. This Constitution may be altered by a majority of the members present at any regular meeting, notice of the proposed alteration having been given at a previous meeting.

Resolved, That the following be office-bearers of this society, viz:—A. McEachern, President; R. Hockin, Vice President; C. Daly, Secretary and Treasurer; and Messrs. M. Ryan, N. Woodside, P. Connick, J. G. Murphy and ——— Committee.

The following committees were then appointed to visit the different schools: C. Daly and M. Ryan to visit Nail Pond and Tignish Schools, on Saturday the 5th December; R. Hockin, and J. G. Murphy, Kildare Capes and Kildare Cross Schools, on Saturday the 12th December; A. McEachern and N. Woodside, Kildare River School, on Saturday the 19th December; R. Hockin and P. Connick, South Kildare and Union Schools, on Saturday the 26th December; A. McEachern and N. Woodside, Campbeltown School, on Saturday the 2d January.

Resolved, That next meeting be held at Kildare Cross School-house, on Saturday, 9th January, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Resolved, That the minutes of this meeting be sent for publication.
