Tastes differ. Some people can see beauty even in a looking-glass; others can not.—Boston Transcript

Rev. Wm. Hollinshed,

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver, clean the stomach like this remedy I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

A man's political friends are not always the men he would like to trade horses with.—Columbus Post.

FOR all forms of female weakness D. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific, Mr Thomas Strachan, Postmaster, Roballion writes:—My female weakness, has been attended by four of the best doctors in our section. She began the use of Dr Williams Pink Pills, and two boxes have done her vastly more good than all the medicines she took from those doctors. Sold by all dealers.

"That remains to be seen," as the boy said when he spilt the ink on the tablecloth.—London Answers.

It is a lamentable fact that pride often wears patent-leather boots and begs its tobacco.—Colombus Post

We're not waiting for the bats and moles but for men and women who have eyes and use them, who have brains and reason! There's a new world for them—suffering and sickly as they are—a new world created from the brain of a skillful physician—a discovery—the "Golden Medical Discovery."

Years ago Dr. Pierce found out that the secret of all scrofula, bronchial, throat and lung trouble lay—in the beginning at least—in impure blood and the weak tone of the system; that the way to cure these effects was to remove the cause, that human nature being the same, the same results might be looked for in nearly all cases. So confident was he that the exceptions were uncommon that he took the risk of giving the medicine to those it didn't benefit for nothing, and the results have proved that he was right.

And "Golden Medical Discovery" is the remedy for the million! The only guaranteed Liver, Blood and Lung remedy. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

FOR pains in the stomach bowels or kidneys, use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment internally

Man in a wagon (who has bought an unsound horse from a Quaker)—"No, I don't expect you to take him back. I only want you to lend me your hat and coat, so that I can sell him to somebody else."

After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.

From Friend to Friend

Goes the story of the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla and what it has accomplished, and this is the strongest advertising which is done on behalf of this medicine. We endeavor to tell honestly what Hood's Sarsaparilla is and what it will do, but what it has done is far more important and far more potent. Its unequalled record of cures is sure to convince those who have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla that it is an excellent medicine.

Pointers To Advertisers.

HE LEARNED TO ADVERTISE.

I wanted a situation,
Even though wondrous wise,
A year was spent in idleness;
I did not advertise.

I started out in business,
And boomed it to the skies,
But never made a dividend;
I did not advertise.

Then an advertising merchant,
With business in his eyes,
Asked me a simple question,
"Why don't you advertise?"

He told me his experience,
My hopes began to rise
When I saw the brilliant prospect,
If I should advertise.

My ad. went in the papers, and
I found he told no lies.
Business soon was booming, when I
Began to advertise.

I have told my story briefly,
To all I should advise,
If you wish to be successful,
Go in and advertise.

H. L. DAWES.

The odd in advertising is most always good. It is pretty sure to attract attention. But understand me that I do not mean by the odd in advertising, the idiotic, the coarse, or the burlesque in advertising.

Borders in advertising have come in style recently. They are very effective. They are good taste. They serve to make an advertisement distinctively artistic.

But then, what is the use of talking? The final test of the success of an advertisement is the demand it creates for the article advertised.

You cannot expect people to have confidence in what you sell if you have not confidence enough in your goods to advertise them.

In writing advertisements, make the first line either their most pertinent point, or the entering wedge of a most seductive line of reasoning which will lead to that point.

Don't make your first line simply and purely a catch line with all there is after it to make the reader feel as if you had pricked him into reading your advertisement.

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN,

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery.

C. C. HAUN,
Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cumines, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself:

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly,
THOMAS CUMINES,
Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.
