There is Nothing

like pleasing customers.
That's what we are doing all the time, we give them such value for their money that they come back again and bring others with them. This is the keynote of our success. We strive to please everyone who leaves an order with us. Why not give us your next order and be thoroughly convinced what we say is true.
We will fill your valued orders.

Mott's

For The Children

Overheard at Christmas.

"I wish you'd kindly move a bit ;
The way you crowd is shocking"
Marked the jolly Jumping-Jack,
Deep down in Teddie's stocking.

"Don't tread on me," the orange growled
In muffled tones from under,
"I'm sure if people find me sour
'T'wont be the slightest wonder."

"Oh mercy cried the Paris doll,
In tones of deep dismay,
"I see a dreadful chocolate mouse Not half an inch away."

"Be silent," said the candy cow ;
"Do cease this paltry prating,
Such foolish talk I never heard, Complaining and berating."

But here she chased, for Master Ted,
The stocking overhauling,
Had gobbled up that candy cow ;
Now wasn't that appalling?

Where Do They Go.

Where do all the daisies go ?
I know, I know !
Underneath the snow they creep,
Nod their little heads and sleep,
In the springtime out they peep ;
That is where they go.

Where do all the birdies go ?
I know, I know ;
Far away from winter's snow,
To the fair warm South they go.
There they stay till daisies blow ;
That is where they go.

Where do all the babies go ?
I know, I know ;
In the dancing firelight warm,
Safely sheltered from all harm,
Soft they sleep on mother's arm ;
That is where they go !
—Kindergarten Song.

Counting.

One little kitten with a jingling bell ;
Two little eyes, and don't you tell !
Three little bowls of milk up high ;
Four little leaps by the kitten spry ;
Five little laps of the yellow cream ;
Then comes the end of the blissful dream

For one little maid with two little hands Makes three little steps to the broom where it stands ;
Gives four little stamps and five little blows.
And out of the door the kitten goes !
—Harriet Bremner.

We Built a Ship.

We built a ship upon the stairs,
All made of the black bedroom chairs,
And filled it full of sofa pillows
To go a-sailing on the billows.

We took a saw and several nails,
And water in the nursery pails,
And Tom said, Let us also take An apple and a slice of cake
Which was enough for Tom and me
To go a-sailing on till tea.

We sailed along for days and days,
And had the very best of plays ;
But Tom fell out and hurt his knee,
So there was no one left but me.
—Robert Louis Stevenson.

To Transfer Pictures.

Procure an illustrated paper or book soon after the day of publication (the sooner the better, as the ink then is not quite dry) ; moisten the back of a visiting, or any thin card, and place the card wet side down over the picture to be transferred, and then rub it hard with the handle of a pocket-knife for about a minute, being careful that the card does not move, or the transfer will be blurred. The result will be a pic-

A Trip to London.

Who wants to go to London,
To London town and back—
With Bobby dear for engineer
To keep us on the track ?
These Turkish chairs and sofas Shall be our parlor car ;
We'll need mayhap to take a nap,
We're going, oh, so far !
And Bess may be conductor,
With tickets, checks, and punch
And little Roy shall be the boy
To sell us all a lunch.
And Maud can bring us water
In little pail and cup,
With lumps of ice to make it nice,
And we will drink it up.
And Jack shall be the bakeman,
The iron wheel to work,
And then to call the stations all,
And stop us with a jerk,
Now all aboard ! we're ready,
In hat and travelling gown,
Come, engineer, and quickly steer.
Us straight to London town.

A Christmas Wish

I wish my dad was a great big man,
S'x thousand or more feet high,
With fearful big legs about the space
Of a half of the bright blue sky.

I'd hang his golf hose up to-night,
And fill all the other boys
With envy at my mad delight
As I cornered all the toys.

MRS. WRIGHT OF NORVAL, ONT. EXPERI-ENCES INTENSE SUFFERING FROM ECZEMA IN HER FEET.

Raw From Her Toes to Her Knees

Dr. Chase Makes a Wonderful Cure.

Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover place, Toronto, makes the following statement :—

My mother, Mrs. Wright, who lives at Norval, near Doncaster, suffered a summer and winter with Eczema in her feet. She could not walk, and very seldom got any sleep. It became so bad that she was perfectly raw from the toes to the knees. After trying every available remedy without receiving any benefit, and almost hopeless of relief, she was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used 8 boxes since commencing, but with the happiest results, for she is now completely cured. There is but one scar on one of her feet, a memento of her fearful suffering condition. Any person desiring further testimony in this case is at liberty to communicate with Mrs.
Wright at her address, Norval, P. O.
Mrs. Knight says after such a grand success, is it any wonder we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment ?

W. H. De Long, Civil Engineer, ex-Warden, and County Councillor, New Germany, Lunenburg Co., N. S., Oct.
28th, 1897, says :—"I had itching piles for thirty years, and have tried various kinds of pile cures, but none gave me permanent relief until I used Dr.
Chase's Ointment. I have recommended it to others with the same result."
