IN MEMORIAM

JENKINS — In loving memory of our darling baby Edgar George Jenkins, who passed away Oct. 9th, 1948.
Into sweet rest he has entered
No more to suffer or weep
But safe in the arms of Jesus
Our baby is fast asleep.
Safely missed and lovingly remembered by mother, father, sisters Sadie and Ruby, and brother David.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ANNIE SANDERSON

The death of Mrs. Annie Sanderson occurred at the home of her granddaughter in Morell, on August 7, 1958, following an illness of three months. She was born in Greenwich in 1869 daughter of the late John Sutherland and Martha Leslie.

She married Charles Sanderson who predeceased her thirty-five years ago. Mrs. Sanderson led a very active life until a few years ago. She was always ready to lend a helping hand in time of death, birth, or sickness. A woman of true Christian principles she was always active in church-work, and a faithful member of the United Church at Greenwich.

Possessed with a wonderful sense of humour and a bright and cheerful personality she gained a wide acquaintance with a host of people who will ever remember her qualities of honesty, kindness and charity. She was a home-loving person and it is in the loving circle she will be missed most.

Left to mourn are one son, Leith on the old homestead, with whom she resided; Three daughters (Lyle), Mrs. Frank MacLaren, (Morell); (Evelyn), Mrs. Cecil Osterloh, (New York); (Olive) Mrs. William Dover, (Dunstaffnage); twenty-one grandchildren and twenty-three great grandchildren; two daughters, (Jessie and Gladys). Two brothers and two sisters predeceased her.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from her late residence to St. Peter's Bay United Church. Service was conducted by Rev. Anthony Ware. Hymns sung were, "The Lord is my Shepherd" and "The Sands of Time are sinking." In the Sweet Bye and Bye, a favourite of deceased was sweetly rendered by Gordon Coffin, Layton Coffin, Preston MacEwen, Jack MacCallum and Lloyd Anderson.

Interment was in Midgell. Pallbearers were: George MacEwen, Alex. O'Hanley, Freeman Leslie, William Lewis, Earl MacEwen, Nelson Squires.
