Island Athletes Are Great At Games In Antigonish

Prince Edward Island athletes, headed by Charlottetown's Bob Simmons, made a great showing at the recent Highland Games at Antigonish.

Bombers Top Morell Club

Peaker Bombers playing errors half trounced Morell Beavers 6-2 in Morell on Sunday.

George Power was the winning pitcher allowing nine hits and striking out seven. Murray the loser also allowed nine hits struck out seven.

Gerald Smith was the big gun for the bombers, banging out two doubles and two singles in four trips to bat. Smith also pulled the fielding gem of the day by making a terrific over-the-shoulder catch off Jerry Connolly. Gary McGuire was a hot batter for the Beavers getting a double and a single in three trips to bat.

Gerald Devine made a spectacular play by scooping up a ground ball and forcing Connolly to second to end the game. Officials were Jack Coffin, Gerald McCarthy and Kenny Dunn.

Next game the Bombers play host to the Mt. Stewart squad.

four firsts won by the Island contingent. Alf Groom, Summerside and Ernaeas Whitlock, Charlottetown, were the others to nab top spots.

Simmons broke his own Highland Games record in winning the discus. Last year his distance was 138 ft 4 in. Saturday afternoon on a rain-soaked field he bettered that mark, by throwing 139 ft 9 in. It was a new Nova Scotia open record and an unofficial Maritime mark.

Miss Whitlock was home in front in the 40 yard dash, girls' under 14, for the Island's third first and Alf Groom was 1099 as expected in the pole vault competition.

Simmons also won the javelin competition with a throw of 155 ft. He was third in the hammer and third in the shot put.

In all, the local athletes amassed four firsts, eight seconds and five thirds in the two-day meet.

HOW THEY FARED

Brothers Knocks Out Odo In Saturday Night Action

NEW GLASGOW (CP)—Ron Brothers, 160, of Saint John, N.B. used three savage straight rights to knock out Doug Odo, 160½ of nearby Thorburn in the third round of their scheduled 10-round bout here Saturday night.

Brothers put Odo down once to the first round and scored heavily in the second. He sent Odo in the canvas with three rights for a nine count in the third. Odo managed to make it to his feet but was finished off easily by Brothers.

Odo hit his head heavily on the mat the second time down in the third round and it took several minutes work by attendants before he was revived. He had to be helped to his corner.

In the first preliminary match Henry Jackson, 152, of New Glasgow, won a split decision over Clarence Wright, 156½ of Halifax, in a four-rounder.

In another preliminary, Terry Johnson, 30, of Halifax, knocked out Jo Jo Jackson, 120½, of New Glasgow at 2:40 of the first round of a four-round bout.

The semi-final strap between Al MacLean, 141, of New Glasgow and Rock Johnson, 156 of Saint John, New Brunswick ended with MacLean knocking out Johnson in the final round. Johnson was knocked down six times in the fight.

He yielded ten hits and four walks. Rolfe fanned six.

Garth Affleck and Buddy MacIntyre led the winners' attack with four hits each in six trips to the plate. One of MacIntyre's was a booming home run.

Jim Cox was leading Souris slugger with four for five. Buddy Doucette, Souris centerfielder, provided the fielding gem with a terrific catch of a screaming drive.

Umpires were: Lhman MacInnis, Roy White, Ed Clinton and Len MacCormick.
