Excitement in Constantinople.
Threatened Withdrawal of the English Ambassador from Constantinople.
Russia on the Move.
Special to the Examiner.
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 8.
 The naive Christians in Constantinople are arming, and are actively engaged in making preparations for a prolonged struggle. There is much ill feeling displayed between them and the Moslems. Constantinople is approaching a state of anarchy, and unless stern measures are taken, the populace will obtain the upper hand. A later despatch says that firing has been heard in the streets.
 At present the prospects of a satisfactory understanding being reached between England and Turkey are not very satisfactory. Lord Dufferin has not yet given up all hope but he thinks the obstinacy of the Sultan will provoke a grave crisis. A letter despatch regarding the complications of the conference says that the English Government have ordered Lord Dufferin to hold himself in readiness to leave Constantinople in the event of the Porte and other representatives at the conference refusing to accede to the proposition for a military convention.
 ODESSA, Aug. 8.
 The Russian troops at Odessa and at the Caucasus have received orders to hold themselves in readiness for immediate embarkment, in the event of war between England and Turkey.

GENERAL CABLE NEWS.

LONDON, Aug. 6.
 An official report from Admiral Seymour, concerning the encounter with the enemy at Mahalla Junction, on Saturday, is as follows: "Our force consisted of 200 men of the naval brigade, with one 14-pound and two 9-pound guns, under Capt. Fisher; 1,000 marines, under Col. Tusar; half a battalion of the 38th and 46th Regiments and all of the 60th Regiment. We had a skirmish with the enemy—which was 2,000 strong, with 6 guns and 6 rockets—from half-past five until half-past seven in the evening. The total casualties to the naval brigade and marines are two killed and 32 wounded."
 Gen. Allison reports four killed and 39 wounded in yesterday's engagement with the Egyptians near Ramleh.
 ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 7—10 p. m.
 The vicinity of Ramleh is quiet to day. No movement of the enemy is visible. Gen. Graham, in the steamer Cygnet, will reconnoitre Aboukir forts on Monday.
 The troopship Euphrates has arrived.
 LONDON, Aug. 6.
 The Times says the Porte has the effrontery to declare that a proclamation against Arabi will be contingent on his attitudes after the landing of the Turkish troops in Egypt. It is impossible, therefore, for England to accept or permit the landing of Turkish troops in Egypt. The claim of the Porte to draw on the Egyptian revenue is preposterous.
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 5.
 The Porte denies the statement of Arabi that the Sultan had deposed the Khedive and would send troops to support the nationalists.
 BERLIN, Aug. 5.
 It is stated that Germany regards the occupation of the Suez to the British as a purely military step, taken to facilitate the landing of Indian troops.
