IF THE ABOVE LINES, when looked at from a distance of about twelve feet, appear irregular or of unequal distinctness, your eyes need glasses for astigmatism.
Such lenses we have made to order from optical measurement of each eye with finely adjusted instruments.

Persons who cannot read easily by artificial light ought to correct their sight by a properly fitting Spectacle. It is just as much of a mistake to go too long without glasses as it is to use them too strong. To avoid either error, call and have your eyes tested. We keep the largest assortment of Spectacles and Eyeglasses in the

La Grippe.

(For Saturday Night.)

Should you ask me why this sneezing, Why this wheezing and this coughing,
With their pains and cramps and stiffness, With their aches of all descriptions Trouble now so many people?
I should answer, I should tell you, Tell you all in trembling accents That La Grippe has struck the country, Struck the city and its doctors, Struck the towns, with all their persons, Struck the lightes', loftiest, greatest,
Struck the lowest, meanest, vilest,
Of the great Canadian people.
It respects not any person, It cares not for wealth or fashion, But is friendly unto all men.
And it grips you and it hugs you,
And it tightens and it binds you Till you think your bones are broken, Till you think your blood is frozen,
And the world seems dark and dreary,
And all hope has left your bosom,
And you meditate and wonder, Still you think and ponder deeply,
Will it grip and hug forever?
And I answer and I tell you, It is but a nine days' wonder,
It is but a passing visit That is paying to our country That we may not feel offended, That we may not be feel slighted, So I tell you and advise you, Treat it kindly, treat it wisely, With a little pill of quinine
And a little mustard plaster, And 'till I say good-bye forever, Take a long and tearful farewell,
And you'll then be glad you had it, So to sympathize with others,
So to tell them how it took you, You'll exaggerate the symptoms, You'll elaborate your feelings,
You will chuckle that it left you.

FLORA MACDONALD.

Public Meeting at Georgetown.

A meeting of the electors of Georgetown and Royalty was held in the Court House, on Saturday evening, 18th inst.
The meeting was organized by appointing Mr. John Weatherbie chairman, and the undersigned secretary.
Hons. A. J. McDonald and Daniel Gordon addressed the meeting, after which a short but animated discussion took place touching upon the political questions of the day—a number of the electors taking part.
Hons. D. Gordon and A. J. McDonald were nominated by a unanimous vote to represent Georgetown and Royalty. Mr.
John Lavers was proposed, but no one seconded the nomination.
After giving three cheers for the Queen, three for the Liberal-Conservative candidates, and a vote of thanks to the chairman, the meeting closed.

Secretary.

Kingston Heard From

PURSUANT to arrangement, the members of Kingston Star Division, S. of T., gathered at the Schoolhouse on the afternoon of New Year's Day, for the purpose of having their annual New Year's drive. After three rousing cheers had been given for the Kingston Star Division, fifteen sleighs preceded by a banner drove around the block, by way of Bedeque Road, arriving at the Division Room about four o'clock in the evening, there to enjoy the New Year's festivities. The proceedings of the evening commenced by an invitation being extended to Mr. Robert Burns McPhee to give an address. In compliance, Mr. McPhee (who is G. C. of the Grand Division) in a few well-chosen remarks defined his position on the temperance question. He was followed by Messrs. Daniel F. Fraser and John Mc-Donald, who highly complimented the Division on the creditable display they had made, and also on its general prosperity.
After this the boys and girls spent the remainder of the evening in song, feasting and social converse. At the hour of midnight the party separated, carrying pleasant recollections of the manner in which they had spent the first evening of the New Year, recollecting which will brighten many a dark hour and chase away many a sad thought.

Have a Purpose.

Young man, have a purpose in your heart. Now, what is your purpose in life?
Is it that, under all circumstances you will do what you think is right. Or is it to become rich at the expense of principle and right. The first purpose you should have is to care for yourself. Young men now-a-days don't, and when the body is wrecked they hobble through life, making everybody about them miserable. Find out what diet best agrees with you, and adhere to it.
Daniel began by abstaining from wine.
This would be a good start for you, young man.

Next, take care of your intellect. Study if you have intellect—there are some young men who don't know whether they have any or not—improve it. Many hard worked men have acquired profound educations by being studious during small intervals of leisure. Get an hour a day if you can get no more. Devote half of it to the study of the Bible, and divide the other thirty minutes, say between astronomy, botany and geology. Do this one year, and you will be surprised at what you have accomplished.

Then take care of your manners. The manners of Canadians are degenerating.
There was a time when a young man would not offend a young lady by puffing cigar smoke into her face. Now I see it done on the horse cars every day. Imitate the sweetness of Daniel. Be affable, suave, courteous and kind. Never utter a thoughtless word that will pain. Start in life with the principle, "I'll be a gentleman, come what will."

Influenza—La Grippe.

There seems nothing very peculiar about the disease that is now so prevalent. The mild, damp winter weather which we have had so far, has, no doubt, contributed to its prevalence, though some claim that it is of periodic occurrence.

Hippocrates recorded the first authentic account of an epidemic of influenza, in the year 420 B. C., and 8 years another invaded the Athenian armies. The first authentic records, however, are of the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, since which time there have been frequent visitations. The ancients supposed the epidemic to occur in cycles of 100 years. The epidemic of 1832 originated in China, and in 1836 prevailed in Europe and reached this country in a mild form in 1843, and in 1847, both visitations probably being a continuation of the epidemic of 1832.
The symptoms of the disease are similar to those of a bad cold, chilliness, headache, &c., followed by high fever, and aching of the bones. It has also been called "bone set" derives its name hence, since the tea prepared from this herb was used among the older people as a remedy.

Keeping rooms well warmed and ventilated is the best protection against it. The remedy is the same as that for a cold which, we have frequently given in these columns, and which, now that there is a special demand for it we reproduce very briefly.
The moment a man is satisfied he has taken cold, let him do three things: First, eat nothing; second, go to bed, cover up warm in a warm room; third, drink as much cold water as he can, or as he wants, or as much hot herb-tea as he can; and, in three cases out of four he will be alright well in thirty-six hours.

If he does nothing for his cold for 48 hours after his cough commences, there is nothing that he can swallow that will by any possibility arrest the cold, for with such a start it will run its course of about a fortnight in spite of all that can be done, and what is swallowed in the meantime in the way of food, is a hindrance, and not good.

"Feed a cold and starve a fever," is a mischievous fallacy. A cold always brings a fever; and a cold never begins to get well until the fever subsides; but every mouthful swallowed is that much to feed the fever; and but for the fact that as soon as a cold is fairly started, nature, in a kind of desperation, steps in and takes away the appetite, the commonest cold would be followed by very serious results, and in frail people would be always fatal.
These things being so, the very fact of waiting forty-eight hours gives time for the cold to fix itself in the system; for a cold does not usually cause cough until a day or two has passed, and then waiting two days longer, gives it the fullest chance to do its work before anything at all is done.

Suggestive Paragraphs for Advertis- ting Purposes.

We do not ignore our competitors; we try to excel them.
We are the servants of the public, therefore yours to command.
If anything you receive from us is not satisfactory please let us know.
Have you ever traded with us? If not, there is a treat in store for you.
It is our ambition to please. We look to you to help us gratify our ambition.
Beauty is largely a matter of taste and the result of intrusting your wardrobe with us.
We want everybody to know us and get thoroughly acquainted with our ways of doing business.
As between the nimble sixpence and the slow shilling, we have all along placed our confidence in the former.
It is said that New York millionaires pay very little attention to their dress. Well, they can afford to be eccentric. Can you?
The nearer our business approaches perfection the more we feel disposed to advertise—the more we feel that it will stand advertising.—The Men's Outfitter.

Wanted To Make the Old Man Happy.

Mother—Tommy, I hear you got a thrashing in school to-day.
Tommy—Yes, ma, the teacher whipped me, but he is getting so old and weak that it didn't hurt me much.
"Did you cry?"
"Oh, yes, I bawled so you could have heard it in the next street."
"Why did you do that?"
"I wanted to make the old man feel happy once more."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

False Report Contradicted.

DEAR SIR,—In the daily Patriot of yesterday there is a false report of a meeting held at Georgetown on the 18th inst. I may say there are some Methodists in Georgetown, and I am one of them, and can say Mr. Archibald Macdonald did not insult the Methodists, nor mention that nor any other denomination; and can further say, Mr. Lavers was not nominated. Mr.
Boyer made the motion, but failed to get a seconded.

ARTHUR P. HOBBS
Georgetown, Jan. 20, 1890.

To the Electors of Char- lottetown, Commen and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN,—Thanking you for the liberal support you have given me in the last three General Elections, and having again been nominated a candidate for the representation of your interests in the House of Assembly, I now seek your suffrages.
After the promotion of the Hon. W. W.
Sullivan to a seat on the Supreme Court Bench of this Province, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor entrusted me with the formation of a Government.

Having accomplished the formation of a Government, it was deemed proper, in view of the number of partial elections required to be held in consequence of the vacancies created and the nearness of the completion of the term of the present Parliament, to consult the electors by means of a General Election before entering on new legislation.
Agriculture being the main industry of the Province, measures will be adopted which will best render the labor of the husbandman remunerative, by increasing the aid given to the Annual Exhibitions, by the importation of improved stock, and by providing instruction on Agricultural Chemistry and a course of popular lectures on agricultural subjects.

In order to give greater shipping facilities, and until the Dominion Government shall have taken over all the wharves that became the property of the Dominion Government at the time of Confederation, it is our policy to keep in repair such of them as are essential to the trade of the locality where they are respectively built.

As in the past, our policy is to vigorously press to a settlement our claims against the Federal Government.
Rigorous economy will be practiced in the expending of public money, while at the same time liberal provision will be made for the public service.
Pending the adjustment of our claims against the Federal Government, our annual resources may not be sufficient to carry out the proposals indicated, and at the same time provide for the large expenditure required for our educational system. In that case, such measures to supplement our revenue will be adopted as will bear the least heavily on the people, and will at the same time be just and equitable.
Changes will be made in the public service in order to secure efficiency and greater security to the public interests.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
NEIL McLEOD.

AMERICAN BALDWIN APPLES are now at their best, and, as everyone knows, this Apple is of the finest flavor, good baked, stewed, made into pies, or for eating when raw.

We need not remind you how beneficial to health it is to eat Apples with your meals, nor how much the children's health will be promoted by a generous supply of Apples.
Everyone knows or ought to know.
Fruit is cheaper than medicine (and tastes nicer.) The next point is to get good Apples.
WE HAVE THEM (Choice Maine Baldwin) and we sell by the dozen, peck, bushel or barrel, as you may desire.
About price. This depends on how good they are. We have them for $2.00 per barrel,—good for the price. Our best stock of No. 1 Fruit is $3.50, $3.75 and $4.00 per barrel. We claim that our $4.00 Apples beat anything in the city.
This is all we have to say. It is for you to do your part. We can only offer the goods.
It takes two to make a bargain.
