

Emerald Couple Celebrate 35th Wedding Anniversary

Thursday, August 23, was a happy milestone in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes of Emerald Junction, when with their family and friends they celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

The day was fittingly begun by the attendance with their family, at Mass at St. Malachias Church, Kinkora, where thirty-five years before, they had taken their marriage vows. The anniversary Mass was celebrated by Rev. Msgr. F. P. Hughes of Estevan, Sask., a brother of Mr. Hughes. It is interesting to note that Msgr. Hughes also celebrated the Mass, and performed the marriage ceremony on their wedding day. During the anniversary Mass appropriate hymns were rendered by brothers and sisters of Mr. Hughes, who were accompanied by Miss Florrie Green as organist.

After Mass the happy couple returned to their home in Emerald where the day was pleasantly spent with their immediate family. At six o'clock in the evening, supper was served to about thirty-five guests which included Mr. and Mrs. Hughes' immediate family and relatives, also their parish priest, Rev. Francis McQuaid.

The dining-room tables were very artistically decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and lighted tapers, and two beautiful wedding cakes adorned the bridal table.

Immediately after supper brief speeches were made by both Msgr. Hughes and Father McQuaid, in which they extended congratulations, and best wishes to the happy couple, to which Mr. Hughes fittingly replied. Mr. Jack Green, who acted as chairman for the evening, then had the guests assemble in the living room where little Mary and Brenda Hughes, grandchildren of the honored guests, presented a beautiful basket of flowers, and extended their congratulations to "Gammie and Gampie". Following this their elder son, Mr. Spencer Hughes, on behalf of the immediate family, read an appropriate address to his parents, while their younger son, Mr. Clayton Hughes and daughter, Mrs. Merritt Callaghan, made the presentation of a Kroehler Recliner.

Immediately following the family presentation, Mr. Alban Keough on behalf of the "Green family" read a very fitting address while Miss Florrie Green and Mrs. Charles Connolly made the presentation of a beautiful trillium floor lamp and matching table lamp.

Although completely taken by surprise, Mr. Hughes, on behalf of his bride of 35 years, thanked all very sincerely for their gifts and good wishes. Fitting remarks were also made by several others present, including Mrs. Charles Connolly, Miss Florrie Green, and Mr. Merritt Callaghan, who on behalf of himself and Mrs. Spencer Hughes spoke for the in-laws.

In the evening the neighbors and friends called at the home to offer their congratulations and best wishes. The Women's Institute, Mrs. Hughes is a valued member, remembered her with an address read by Mrs. Alfred Sinnott and a gift presented by Mrs. Peter Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were the recipients of many other gifts from the Hughes family and other friends.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and sing-song. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Alban Keough and Mr. Lloyd Lawless. Refreshments were served later in the evening to all present by their daughter, Mrs. Merritt Callaghan and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Spencer Hughes, assisted by Mrs. Clayton Green, Mrs. Jack Green, Mrs. Harry Murphy, Mrs. Margaret McMahon, Mrs. Harry Green and Miss Florrie Green.

Before the guests departed all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne." All departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hughes many more years of happy wedded life.

Address
Dear Mother and Dad:—
It is with hearts full of love and gratitude that we, your children, are gathered here this evening to honor you on this happy event—the occasion of your thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The years that have passed since that happy and unforgettable day when you two were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and set out together in love, joy and hope, to found for yourselves, the dearest and happiest spot on earth, our home, have been filled with naught but blessings and joy.

As we look back over our childhood days to the love and tenderness we enjoyed in the happy home you made for us, we realize that through the years the first thought of you both has always been for us and the many pleasures and advantages we enjoyed were made possible by sacrifice and hard work on your part.

As children, perhaps we took these things for granted, but today we want you to know that our hearts are filled with love and appreciation, not only for those happy and carefree years, but also for the exemplary life you have led, which will be for us always, a guiding light to follow.

The memory of our family health and all its pleasant associations will remain with us always, and though our own interests in life may of necessity keep us apart, we shall always be drawn back to our home with Mother and Dad.

God has indeed blessed us in our parents and in our home, and today we offer our thanks to Him, the Giver of every good and perfect gift.

We want you to accept this gift as a remembrance of our deepest love and appreciation for all you have been to us, and our prayerful wish that God in His goodness will see fit to spare you to us for many, many years to come, and that someday heaven will find our family unbroken, as God in His goodness has seen fit to find us this evening.

Your Loving Family.

Dearest Fannie and Joe:—
It seems just a few short years, since your marriage vows you took. However, it is thirty-five, So says the Parish Book. So, we are gathered here together in your home so fine and neat, To join in the celebration, And, of course, your food to eat. Your family close around you Have yet to cause you pain. That shows the good example That you set, was not in vain. You two have worked both long and hard But still are in the pink, So please pay heed to the modern song, "It's Later Than You Think." Just take things a little easier Is our advice to you, For in fifteen years 'twill be fifty years, Then you'll celebrate that, too. Now please accept this little gift And use it every night, And when Maritime Electric comes your way, May it be your guiding light.

Your loving Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

Skin Eruptions

Here is a clean, stainless, penetrating antiseptic oil that brings speedy relief from the itching and discomfort.

Not only does this healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds but boils and simple ulcers are also relieved.

In skin affections the itching of Eczema is quickly stopped. Pimples—skin eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of Barber's Itch, Salt Rheum, Itching Toes and Feet and other inflammatory skin disorders.

You can obtain Moore's Emerald Oil in the original bottle at Hughes Drug Co. or The Jenkin's Pharmacy or any modern drug store. Satisfaction or money back.

MacLeod-Hewitt Wedding

The chancel and altar of Christ Church were prettily arranged with yellow and white gladioli on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock when Rev. Canon E. H. Costigan officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Agnes Elizabeth Hewitt, Niagara Falls, and Mr. George Sterling MacLeod of London, Ontario.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hewitt of Niagara Falls, Ontario, and the groom the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. MacLeod of Prince Edward Island.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of white lace. It was fashioned with a long torso, full double net and skirt, Peter Pan collar and long sleeves forming lily points over the hands. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was held in place with a helmet style head-dress, and she carried a cascade of white 'mums.

Cinnamon colored lace was worn by Miss Evelyn Hewitt, maid of honor and sister of the bride. It was ballerina length with a full skirt, long sleeves coming to points at the wrists and the neckline was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar. She wore a matching lace picture hat.

Miss Nancy Fielding, the bridesmaid, was gowned in Sherwood green lace, ballerina length. It was fashioned on similar lines to that of the maid of honor's and she wore a matching picture hat. Both attendants carried cascades of yellow 'mums with lily leaves. The best man was Mr. Wesley Wallace, and the usher was Mr. Alexander Smilie.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. B. Y. Williamson, who accompanied Mrs. J. Hamer who was the soloist.

Forty guests were entertained following the ceremony at Queenston Heights Restaurant, where the bride's mother received with the bridal party, wearing a frock of navy blue sheer with grey accessories. A corsage of yellow rosebuds completed her ensemble.

The groom's mother was attired in copper with pink and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of Tailsman roses.

For travelling to Montreal and Prince Edward Island, the bride wore a copper colored suit with green accessories, and corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod will reside at 686 Strathmeyer Street, London, Ontario.

Wedding Anniversary

An outstanding event in the social life of Union Road took place on Friday, September 15th, 1950, when the people of the community, with other friends and kindred, gathered at the spacious old home of Mr. and Mrs. Bart C. Hardy, now the residence of their son Wilfred and his family, to celebrate with them the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

When all had gathered, and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy had been escorted to the seats of honor, Reverend Mr. Wilson called on Mrs. George Abbott to read the address given below, expressing the good wishes, high regard, respect and friendship of everyone for Mr. and Mrs. Hardy who are lifelong residents of Union Road. The beautiful wedding cake was presented by Mrs. Harold Yeo, and a well-filled purse by Mr. James Maund on behalf of the community. Mr. Hardy responded feelingly with words of appreciation and pleasure, touching also on memories of their long and happy married life together, and of their many good friends and true, those present and those they looked forward to meeting again where good friends part no more.

Everyone then joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", and the time honored custom of bouncing the groom was duly carried out.

Delightful refreshments were enjoyed by all, and the happy evening was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne, the departing guests wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hardy many more years of life here with us.

Address
Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hardy:—
We are gathered here this evening to celebrate with you your Fiftieth Anniversary of your marriage, and to congratulate you on your long and happy married life. And we sincerely wish you many more years together with us here in Union Road.

In many ways you have endeared yourselves to us, and won our highest regard and respect.

You, Mr. Hardy, have ever been a tower of strength in our church and Sunday school, and your faithful loyalty and constant service has sustained and inspired us all. And you, Mrs. Hardy, have too been ever faithful in our Missionary Society and in all our church activities, and in every good work as it came before us. We remember especially the unfailing profusion of flowers for our church services, which you, with the other members of the floral committee have always provided. And too we have always been assured of a cordial welcome in your home; and many pleasant gatherings there we recall.

We all appreciate all you both have done, and have been, and still are to us; and we value more highly than you may know your presence with us the good neighbors and well-wishers. And we all do sincerely hope and pray that you may both be spared with us for years to come.

In conclusion we ask you to accept this gift in memory of this gathering and of our happy associations together.

Signed in behalf of the people of Union Road,
MRS. GEORGE ABBOTT,
Friday evening, Sept. 15, 1950.

Haneveld-Walseem Wedding

On Tuesday Sept. 26th at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. H. E. Ashford officiated at the wedding ceremony of Miss Leni Van Walseem of Rotterdam, Holland and Lambertus Haneveld of Loosduinen, Holland. The marriage ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDowell, Southport.

The bride wore a two-tone wine dress iridescent taffeta and carried a nosegay of red and white carnations. She wore also a silver brooch and bracelet of exquisite craftsmanship, made by natives of Indonesia, given by the groom.

The matron of honour was Mrs. Alex McDowell. The groomsmen were Mr. Pieter Kooymann.

The attractive twenty-five year-old bride arrived in Canada by plane on September 15. In Holland, because of her knowledge of the English language she worked with an Importing Company.

The groom, Lambertus Haneveld, of Loosduinen, Holland, a market-gardener by trade, arrived in Canada in April this year. He served with the Royal Dutch Army from May 1946 to Sept. 1949 and has been active in Indonesia. Till now he has been employed by Mr. R. Snazelle, Southport and he and his wife will move to Central Bedoues where he will work at the poultry farm of Mr. Ivan Dawson.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scramton, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Roper, Southport, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell MacLure, Southport, Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacLure, Mr. and Mrs. Johannus Brink, Mrs. Alexia Mutch, Mr. T. Pardierny, and B. Brink.
