

leave the fleet there to look on helplessly and passively whilst British menaces are being disregarded, whilst British policy is being frustrated, whilst works which British industry has laboriously created during long years, at vast expense of British toil, are being destroyed, while English subjects are being slaughtered, that is a deeper and lower depth of humiliation still.

THE DAILY EXAMINER. JULY 8, 1882.

The revenue of the Dominion from Customs for eleven months of the year just ended was $19,162,584. For the corresponding eleven months of 1881, it was $16,205,752. The whole revenue for the eleven months was $29,684,196. When all returns are in it is estimated that the revenue of the Dominion for the year ending 30th June, 1882, will be little, if any, less than $32,000,000.

This is a gross perversion of the truth. Admitting the receipts of the Dominion Government to be $32,000,000, it is grossly unfair to say that the whole amount is the result of taxation, for it includes every dollar paid to the Government for the use of its railways, its post offices and public works. A man pays $1.50 for a passage by railway to Summerside—that is included in the amount; he goes to St. John, and a large proportion of his passage money is received by the Government; he sends a letter home to his wife and pays postage to the Government; he proceeds to Quebec and pays $15 or $20 to the Intercolonial Railway which is included in the receipts of the Government. Would it be right to add all these sums together and include the amount under the head of taxation of the country? Certainly not. They are simply sums paid for services rendered to a particular individual; and the more of such sums such individuals pay the lighter will be the taxation of the people at large, because the railways, post offices and public works are maintained at the public expense. Yet this is just what the Patriot has done. When, in the good times to come, the sums received by the Government from railways, post offices, canals, etc., have doubled, and when the Government takes charge of the telegraphs of the country, and goes into the insurance business, and its receipts are thus increased to hundreds of millions of dollars a year, our taxation may be no heavier, perhaps may be lighter, per head than it is at present.

The taxation proper borne by the people of Canada during the past two years, was just about $4.65 per head per year, as against $4.88 when the Grits were in power; for the average amount obtained by taxation during these years was $19,916,100.01.

P. E. I. Savings' Bank. 1881. July 1—Bal. due depositors at 4 p.c. $614,348.14. July 1—Bal. due depositors at 5 p.c. 220,000.00. Amt. deposited during year, including int. accrued, 611,929.76. Total bal. due depositors, July 1, 1882, 1,099,432.19.

The Anglican Synod in Nova Scotia. SECOND DAY. The report of the King's College Committee was read by the Rev. G. W. Hodgson. It proposed that the Synod should elect two members as governors; that the amount of the annual subscription be $2, and of life commutation $25; that the claims of the college be brought before each parish in the diocese once a year.

The Rev. Canon Dart gave notice of a motion recommending strict safeguards against the admission of unfit persons into the ministry, and proposing that the Provincial Synod should adopt uniform regulations in this respect, throughout the ecclesiastical province.

His Lordship the Bishop proposed that a representative from P. E. Island be added to the finance sub-committee of the diocese, and that no representative be allowed to take his seat at the Synod until the assessment be paid.

The Ven. Archdeacon Read brought forward his motion regarding the status of P. E. I., and of a proposed new bishopric. The Archdeacon thought that P. E. Island did not give enough to the funds of the church.

Mr. E. J. Hodgson asked the mover if he would explain about the "proposed new Bishopric" in P. E. Island. He had heard nothing about it. He wanted to know what "list" the Archdeacon had seen which suggested P. E. Island as a new bishopric.

As the Archdeacon could not say what authorities recommended P. E. Island, but that he had seen it in a Diocesan Calendar, the question was dropped.

The list of annual offerings to the B. H. M. from the various parishes of the diocese was read, showing the receipts for general purposes to be $4,781.97.

The Rev. G. W. Hodgson gave notice of motion as follows:—Resolved,—That if any parish holds, within the next year, the Synod to its next regular session in the parish, the executive committee have power to accept such invitation on behalf of the Synod.

The balloting for delegates to the Provincial Synod was proceeded with. The result of the ballot was as follows:—CLERICAL DELEGATES. Revs. Dr. Nichols, G. W. Hodgson, Canon Maynard, J. Ambrose, Canon Partridge, F. R. Murray, Dr. Hill, J. D. H.

Browne, J. A. Kau'back, D. C. Moore, Canon Townshend. LAY DELEGATES. W. C. Silver, C. B. Bullock, Hon. W. B. Vail, Hon. A. M. Cochrane, E. J. Hodgson, Col. Stewart, T. C. Moody, Hon. A. G. Jones, Hon. Judge Savary, J. J. Hunt, P. C. Hill, Hon. C. J. Townshend.

The Laird Faction. To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The Lairds, as has been truly remarked by some of their own friends, are a very grassy lot. They have shown this trait in their character very prominently at the late election. The whole family almost entered the field as Candidates for Legislative honors, and they were, every one of them, defeated. Alexander Laird, leader of the so-called Liberal party in the Legislative Council, bid farewell to that ancient and now almost obsolete body and appealed to the Electors of the Bedouque District for a seat in the House of Assembly and was defeated by a large majority. William Laird, a younger brother, also an aspirant for political honors, for the second and third time faced the West River District, and was again defeated by a majority of the electors resident in the District. And last, though not least, the great ex-Governor of the North-West himself, condescended to offer his services for the representation of Queen's County in the Dominion Parliament, and the intelligent yeomanry of Queen's in the most unmistakable manner possible, convinced Mr. David Laird that he was not the man to whom they would ever again give their support. The consequence has been that the ex-Governor of the Laird faction has been terribly beaten. The Lairds thus rejected by three of the largest and most intelligent constituencies in this Province, are now true to their grasping propensities, trying to get a seat for brother William, by a scrutiny whereby they hope to out number the majority of resident electors polled against him, by the special votes of land owners not residents of the District. This is the Liberal Party of this Province. They want to foist a candidate on the electors by the outside help of land owners, against the voters who reside in the District, and yet they pretend to be Liberals.

The Laird faction in their greed and grasping for political plunder will stick at nothing that they think will accomplish their own selfish purposes.

Yours truly, Y. M. C. A.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—It is gratifying to know that the Hall in connection with the Y. M. C. Association has been painted and renovated in a style which reflects great credit on those who have executed the work. I learn that the above Hall will be re-opened next Sunday afternoon for divine worship. Now, Sir, an institution which has for its object the welfare of young men—an institution to which young men who may be entire strangers to this city are cordially invited, where they may spend any time they may have at their disposal in elevating and improving both body and soul—a refuge from the storms of life, where they are secure from the billows of sin and temptation, from gambling houses, and other places of evil resort—certainly deserves the encouragement and support of the public of Charlottetown. When an army of soldiers is organized, does it stand still? Are there none to join the ranks? Of course there are. An army once organized does not endure for ever. Some die and with others their time expires, so there is a necessity for a constant addition of recruits. We never hear that there are too many men to fight only on the enemy's side. So it is with the Young Men's Christian Association. We need to re-organize the army of the above institution. The members are continually leaving, some are removed by death, so that the force is weakened. Let one and all unite together in strengthening the ranks by becoming members of this noble institution, so that we may, in the strength of Christ, the Captain of our Salvation, overthrow the fortifications of the evil one, and plant upon it the flag which bears this inscription and which cannot be mistaken.—"The Young Men's Christian Association."

Sir, having arrived from England to this beautiful Island, I was an entire stranger to the inhabitants of Charlottetown, but was courteously invited to the Reading Room of the Y. M. C. A., from the members of which I have always received kindness and courtesy and have been spiritually benefited by becoming a member.

Yours truly, A. S. JERNER.

The Contest in Kings.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR MR. EDITOR,—A communication in the Patriot of the 5th inst. appears over the signature of "Independent," making a number of "unmanly, ungentlemanly and dishonest" assertions (clearly indicating the Grit author) respecting the manner in which the Macdonald party conducted the canvass at the Dominion election. I claim to know a good deal about the mode adopted by both parties, and while I found the contest fought out on the square party issue by the Liberal Conservatives, I assert that the Grits are the party to whom the terms "unmanly, ungentlemanly and dishonest" apply. I need only refer to the conduct of the Grits at the St. Peter's and Souris meetings. Nothing could be more "unmanly, or ungentlemanly" than that was. What could be more "dishonest" than the repeated assertions of the Grit candidates, "that the present Government had raised the Tariff from 17 1/2 to 30 per cent. on all goods imported."

"Independent" thinks a high-spirited gentleman in Mr. A. C. Macdonald's position would have accepted the position and remained satisfied with the verdict of the people. Now, it seems to me, that this is just what that gentleman is doing. He told us at several meetings during the canvass "that, even if Dr. Robertson was elected, he could not take his seat, as he was not eligible for nomination; that he knew whereof he was speaking, and warned the electors of it in time." I believe this operated against his own interest in some cases, as many of his friends, feeling assured he would be returned in any case, did not go forward to poll their votes, as they would have done had they supposed he would not lead the poll.

As a Temperance man, I must say that the Grit candidates deserve the opposition of every lover of Temperance principles. The shameful manner in which their agents dispersed "fire-water" even at the polls, is notorious. It was done in open violation of the Election Law, and I hope will be enquired into at the proper time. I have made particular enquiry as to whether Macdonald and Muttart countenanced anything of this kind, and I am pleased to find that they did not.

It is evident from the tone of "Independent's" letter and the Grit press that, in respect to taking his seat at Ottawa, Dr. Robertson has virtually "thrown up the sponge." I also entertain the opinion that, in Dr. Robertson's hands a miscarriage of the resignation of his seat in the Local House will not be unexpected; but I fear that the indignant electors of this district may thus be deprived of the opportunity of showing their contempt for this "double-barrelled" member and his "ways that are dark and his tricks that are mean."

Yours, etc., MURRAY HARBOR, July, 1882.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The Patriot is very indignant because Mr. Austin C. McDonald has contested the seat for King's County with Dr. Robertson. Our contemporary is in this case as wide of the mark as usual. Will he venture to deny that a majority of the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County elected Mr. McKay as their representative in the Local Parliament? Why then does he not offer his advice to his friend Mr. William Laird, and tell him to "manfully and honestly submit" to the decision of the people. With all the influence of the Patriot and Laird faction combined, Mr. Wm. Laird was "rejected by the people at the polls. And yet the Patriot clique are doing all they can to swamp the resident electors of West River by a few doubtful special votes polled by non-residents of that District. Is not this trying to "win a seat by a pettifogging quibble" of the meanest kind.
