[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

Wreck of the Algoma.

TORONTO, Nov. 10.

Further despatches received here, show that the steamer Algoma ran ashore on the Isle Royal while attempting to make the passage between that Isle and Passage Island. The passengers rushed out of the cabin and implored the officers to tell them what had happened, "We are on a reef," replied Captain Moore, "but if you will only keep a calm as possible, I trust all will be safely landed." Just then one of the crew reported the steamer's bottom punched, and that she was filling with water. Boats were at once got in readiness and all started to leave, but just as they were about to lower them the steamer slipped off the reef and disappeared with an angry roar. The water was quickly covered with struggling forms of men and women, and then all was over. Forty-eight lives were lost. Only fourteen lived to tell the tale. The steamer was valued, for insurance purposes, at $310,000. She was insured for $170,000.

To our Readers.

We cannot too strongly urge upon our readers the necessity of subscribing for a family, weekly newspaper of the first class—such, for instance, as The Independent, of New York. Were we obliged to select one publication for habitual and careful reading to the exclusion of all others, we should choose unhesitatingly The Independent. It is a newspaper, magazine and review, all in one. It is a religious, a literary, an educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial, and a political paper combined. It has 32 folio pages and 22 departments No matter what a person's religion, politics or profession may be, no matter what the age, sex, employment or condition may be, The Independent will prove a help, an instructor, an educator. Our readers can do no less than to send a postal for a free specimen copy, or for thirty cents the paper will be sent a month, enabling one to judge of its merits more critically. Its yearly subscription is $3.00, or two years for $5.00. Address, The Independent, 251 Broadway, New York City.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Contradiction.

SIR,—I beg leave to contradict a statement published in your issue of the 10th, in the report of Council, and relating to the petition of assessors, asking for extra pay for their services, as the charge is false and misleading. The assessors did not petition for extra pay, but rather for the amount justly due them as per agreement. But as the Council have thought proper to ignore the official acts of committee the assessors must suffer. I trust future officials may benefit.

M. P. HOGAN,
Chairman of Assessors.

[It appears that the petition was simply the result of a breach of faith on the part of the Council, who now refuse to carry out the bargain made with the Assessors by their Finance Committee. Our report of the matter, as submitted to the Council, was strictly correct; and Mr. Hogan is, no doubt, also correct.]

Cruelty to Animals.

SIR,—I understand there is a Society in Charlottetown for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. I do not know whether their care of dumb animals is limited to the city; I hope not, for I desire to call their attention to an act so wicked and cruel that I think it may finally be claimed as an object of their attention.

I had a pet goat at my home in Souris, which annoyed no one and was a pleasure to me On Monday evening two men went to the field where it was, and threw it over the steep bank on to the shore, breaking one of its horns. They then cut its throat, not sufficiently to take its life quickly, but so that it might slowly bleed to death; and then, fearing that its piteous cries might attract the attention of some one not so hard-hearted as themselves, they caught and fastened it with stones to the ground, so that it could not move, and left it there to die. They had no sense of shame in this, for they summoned about ten witnesses, who cheered them on at their work.

I do not complain for the injury done to myself, for nothing that I could say would induce these brave kind men (?) to believe that a poor newsboy who has to work hard every day, and often far into the night, has any feelings which they are bound to respect; but from them I do make an appeal against this wicked act.

I have simply stated the facts as they expect, and I would ask, can nothing be done to prevent an act which I believe (and I am sure your readers will agree with me) to be so cruel and inhuman that it appears more like the act of fiends than of those who call themselves men.

Yours truly,
JAMES P. CONROY.

Importations from Montreal.

SIR,—There is so little known to citizens generally about the existence of a Board of Health in Charlottetown that the question is often asked, "Who are the Board of Health?" The Mayor and City Councillors compose the Board of Health, and with the exception of the famous raid they made on a pig-sty and rotten fish on Lord's Wharf some time since, nothing has been reported of their doings

If the people are afraid to take Montreal newspapers from Post Offices, how much greater the danger of purchasing readymade clothing from that infected city? Cases of goods of every kind are being daily landed in our midst from Montreal without the slightest enquiry or precautionary measures taken in reference to such goods. Where are the Board of Health? Echo answers where?

Yours,
CITIZEN.

Found a Manufacturer Overloaded!

Bought Part of His Stock at a Sacrifice.

Prices are Still Tumbling and Purchasers will Reap the Benefit Thereof!

REID BROS. have purchased a large Invoice of Fine Saxonby All-wool Tweeds from a Manufacturer's Agent, whose name we are not permitted to mention, at a great sacrifice to the mills, and we intend giving our patrons the advantage of this purchase. These goods have never in the history of P. E. Island been retailed at less than $1.40 to $1.75 a yard, and we now can offer them at 95cts a yard, or will make up suits from them to order, with linings worth $1.10 a yard and other trimmings to match, at the popular price, $16, worth just $22 50 all over this country. Will produce letters from some of the best men in town and country which must satisfy the most aesthetic that our cutter, Mr. Bruce, and his helps, are equal to the times, and his garments are always neat, strong, perfect-fitting and full-fashioned.

Experience has taught us that many persons have been driven away in disgust from houses who are continually advertizing goods at extraordinary prices, which they are unable to produce when called for, and to meet this difficulty we ask intending purchasers to call and examine our stock and we are confident that one inspection will satisfy the most skeptical that we never advertize a humbug.
