

What's Happening

Medical Note

Those students who have insurance coverage through a private plan and who do not wish to be in the Student Union plan should make a trip down to the Barn, go to the Student Union Office and apply for a rebate before September 30. The premiums are remitted on October 1 and so there can be no changes after that date. Bring proof of another plan. If you have any questions regarding your group insurance do not hesitate to visit the Student Union office or call 892-4121, extension 395 with your question.

Planet hours

Effective September 21 until October 31 the planetarium show hours will be:

Mon.- Fri. 9:00a.m, and 3:00 p.m. for school pupils.

Mon.-Fri. 4:00p.m., 7:00p.m., 9:00 p.m.

Sat. and Sun. 7:00 p.m., 9:00 p.m. for the general public.

Tickets are $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children, students, disabled persons, and senior citizens.

Movies

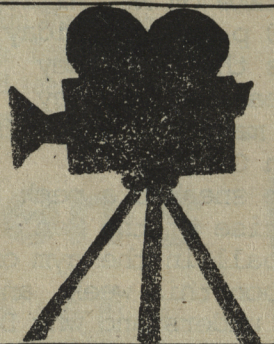

Showing in the Panther Lounge

4:00 p.m. Friday

SLAPSHOT

COMING HOME

Special Student Prices

Hey Parkers

All those with parking stickers issued under the old license plate number are asked to inform Security of the new plate number at the earliest convenience.

Confed. News

Exhibition Schedule

September 9 - October 4, 1981
Couleur d'Acadie

September 9 - October 4, 1981
K.J. Butler, Recent Work

Organized by Confederation Centre Art Gallery and Museum, Charlottetown, with the assistance of the Artist.

September 12 - October 25, 1981
Elitekey: I Fashion Things - Micmac Material Culture from 1600 A.D. to the Present

Organized and circulated by the Nova Scotia Museum, Halifax.

October 7 - November 1, 1981
The Society of Canadian Painter-Etchers and Engravers in Retrospect
Organized and circulated by the Art Gallery of Hamilton, Ontario

October 13 - 18, 1981
New Uses For Television
Organized by David Craig, guest curator, for the Confederation Centre Art Gallery and Museum

November 4 - 29, 1981
Robert Harris, 1849-1919
Organized by Confederation Centre Art Gallery and Museum

Royal Heritage

The Royal Heritage Film Services, produced by the BBC is a journey through the incomparable treasures which have accrued to the Crown since the Middle Ages. Members of the Royal Family speak about various aspects of the Collection.

October 6	The Stuarts Restored
October 13	The First Three Georges
October 20	George IV
October 27	Victoria and Albert
November 3	Victoria, Queen and Empress
November 10	Edward VIII and the House of Windsor
November 17	The Queen and Prince Phillip

Tuesday at Noon

Confederation Centre Lecture Theatre
Bring your lunch - coffee is free

For Sale

For Sale: 1974 Olds Cutlass. 88,000 miles, power steering, power brakes, good engine, excellent car stereo. Call John at 2-7036.

For sale: Realistic stereo receiver, 80 watts. 4 Realistic MC1000 speakers 11" x 17". Phone John at 2-7036.

Blue Cross Extra

Students are reminded that our Blue Cross Plan can also cover dependants for medical benefits. Dependants include a spouse and unmarried dependant children from birth to age 19 & Beyond 19 in some instances. To ensure benefits for dependants students must apply for family membership during the group enrolment period which ends on October 2.

Faculty Seminar

Friday October 2

Faculty Lounge

2:40 p.m.

TOPIC: El Salvador: A Pawn to be Sacrificed!

SPEAKER: Don Nemetz

Prof. Nemetz spent six months as advisor to the El Salvador government in the past.

STUDENTS WELCOME.

Meet Rev. Doug

Rev. Doug Gass, the Protestant Chaplain, will be in his office in the Chaplaincy Centre each Monday 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon, 1:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. and each Thursday 2:00 - 4:00 p.m., 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Students and faculty members are invited to drop in to the Chaplain's Office at these times, or an appointment may be made for any other more convenient time, day or evening. Appointments may be made by phoning extension 117 or the Chaplain may be reached through Student Services (extension 148). He will be on campus at times other than the stated office hours and will welcome the opportunity to meet you. Feel free to call on him at any time.

Protestant worship service will be held in the chapel each Sunday at 5:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome.