Opening lead—queen of hearts.

Among the important weapons a declarer needs in his arsenal of tricks is a good working knowledge of the standard safety plays.

Some of the safety plays which regularly come up are so well known and so well publicized that the average player has no difficulty whatever in recognizing and executing them. The trouble comes when the more rare representatives of the species suddenly crop up and declarer must rely on his own ingenuity to provide the safety factor in an unusual combination.

Declarer won the heart lead with the ace and led the queen of spades. When West showed out South was finished. He had to lose two trump tricks and go down one.

There is no doubt that declarer had rotten luck to find East with all four trumps. If West had had them all, there would have been no damage done, since only one trump trick would be lost in that case. But the fact is that South had a method of play available which would protect him against four trumps in either opponent's hand.

Declarer's view at the start is that there are no losers outside of the trump suit. To assure the slam he must try to play in such a way that he cannot lose more than one trump trick. Two losers are possible only if one opponent has the four missing spades.

As we have seen, the lead of the queen of spades, while it guards against the possibility that West has four spades, does not guard against East having them.

Nor will the play of a low spade towards dummy at trick two guard against all possible combinations of the East-West cards.

The one sure way to make the hand against any combination of the adverse spades is for declarer to win the heart lead in dummy and return a low spade at trick two.

In the actual case East cannot then make more than one trump trick, and the same would be true if West had all the spades.

West Europe Expects Dulles To Quit International Arena

LONDON (AP) — Western Europe took it for granted Sunday that John Foster Dulles will have to bow out of the international arena. From behind the Iron Curtain came a comment Dulles' retirement would be a good thing—from the Communist point of view.

Politicians and commentators in Western Europe were anxious lest the secretary's illness impair American leadership as the cold war moves to a critical stage.

European criticism of the 70-year old secretary of state—outside Communist circles—dropped notably after the Russians threw out their Berlin challenge. Today admirers and critics were united in tribute to his courage.

Budapest Radio said that Dulles illness was a personal misfortune "but from a point of view of policy it is favorable that he will not play an active role now." It was the first comment reported from Communist countries.

The radio in the Hungarian capital said "it is clear now that Mr. Dulles' illness is not of a political character." After saying his prolonged leave would be politically favorable, the radio added:

"In the history of modern times there has scarcely been a man who influenced the policy of his country like Dulles, except Frederick the Great and Hitler." frederick the Great ruled Prussia from 1740-86.

Lord Beaverbrook's Sunday Express, never pro-Dulles, said:

"Somehow the tragedy of John Foster Dulles is a family tragedy, too. For over six years that big framed, stooping man has been part of our lives.

"He has not pleased everybody in Britain. Yet, of course, there is no earthly reason why he should. Devotedly, courageously, he worked for America. Amid all the criticisms, the British people have sensed the courage and admired it."

Bush Pilot Named To Air Transport Bd.

OTTAWA (CP)—Paul Davoud, bush flier and fighter pilot, has been appointed chairman of the Air Transport Board.

In announcing appointment of the 47-year-old vice-president of Orenda Engines Limited, Transport Minister Hees said the government "was most fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Davoud for the chairmanship of the air transport board as he enjoys the confidence and respect of all branches of the aviation industry and has demonstrated great ability in this field of endeavor."

Mr. Davoud fills the vacancy caused by the death of William Matthews last fall.

Mr. Davoud was born Nov. 25, 1911, at Provo, Utah, and is a naturalized Canadian. He began flying with the RCAF at the age of 17 when he was attending Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont.

More Oil Lands Leased In North

OTTAWA (CP) — Applications covering another 20,000,000 acres were received Monday from companies laying claim to oil and gas exploration rights in the Arctic archipelago.

The northern affairs department said the increase sends the total soaring to an estimated 72,000,000 acres—all since Jan. 22.

An official said the figures were run through late Friday after applications had been cut off for the day and the total was set at 51,422,000 acres—about 8,500,000 under the previous estimate for the day.

About another 2,000,000 acres were applied for Monday, he said.

It has been estimated that the area involved may have about 150,000,000 acres of potential oil-bearing rock and that the whole archipelago may have in the neighborhood of 300,000,000 acres of oil-rich land and water.

NEVER TOO OLD FOR LOVE

BRANDON (CP)—Alfred Taylor and Matilda Cooper exchanged wedding vows Saturday St. Valentine's Day. She is 72, he is 85. The ceremony took place in the Fairview senior citizens home here. Special dispensation was given by Rt. Rev. Ivor A. Norris, bishop of Brandon, to hold the wedding outside a church after home officials said the bride was not well enough to leave.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

P D X I P D C P X Y F X C S M N P M
C O M U H G D S H T X , F X G P N M I C U G M
S H N P L X — O N M Z Y X .

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: WITH YOU I SHOULD LOVE TO LIVE, WITH YOU BE READY TO DIE—HORACE.
