THE CASTAWAYS LAST NIGHT.

The Castaways, a nautical drama in four acts, was put upon the boards of the Opera House last evening by Mr. Lindley and his company of favorites. This play was written by Mr. Lindley, and was first produced in this city on the occasion of his last visit. In it Mr. Lindley has a part which gives him ample opportunity to indulge his tun-making propensities, and it is needless to say that he takes advantage of every chance. "Tony Elmonds," the landlubber sailor, the sailor who scuttled the ship, acted his part exceedingly well. The part of "Sam Williams," the retired seadog, was capably taken by Mr. Marsh. Miss Adelaide Flint as "Maggie Peterson," the heroine of the piece, played a splendid part and added largely to her popularity with our theatre-goers. The scene effects were good, especially the scene showing the storm at sea and the sinking of the Neptune. The play throughout was well put upon the boards, and the appreciation of the audience was indicated by generous hand-clapping and other signs of approval.

During the course of the play Mr. Lindley and daughter appeared in songs and sketches, Miss Flint and Mr. Lee gave a vocal solo, and Miss Mathes gave selections on the mandolin. All were generally applauded and enthusiastically received.

To-night "The Gold King" will be the bill of fare, and a large audience is expected. On Monday evening "A Celebrated Case" will be presented, and before concluding their engagement the company will play "Our Boys" and "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

AN ELECTORS' VIEW.

Sir,—The editor of the Guardian seems to think that one of the reasons why our population has not increased to any appreciable extent is because of protection. He does not seem to gauge the influence of our great politicians, who have cried down the country in every way, at all times and everywhere, and have also done their little best to retard the prosperity of the country generally. In fact, they have acted like emigrant agents for the United States, and a great many of their dupes, who have gone to that country, would be back here if they had the means.—fact.

MEETING AT DUNDAS

Persuant to notice a political meeting was held on Wednesday evening at Dan Las Court House. It was a decided success. The Court room was packed full by an attentive audience who manifested their hearty approval of the Liberal-Conservative policy. The meeting was called to order by appointing Mr. Lewis Ross to the chair, and the undersigned secretary, A. C. McDonald, Esq., the popular candidate for King's County was the first speaker. He thanked the electors for their past kindness at the last election, and showed up the policy of the Government which was a well defined one. He also showed clearly that if there was a depression in the country it was not owing to the National Policy. He touched on the different political topics of the day, and finished up by delivering one of the ablest speeches of this campaign. He made a deep impression on the audience, and was cheered enthusiastically, indicating that the majority of the electors were in union with him.

Dr. P. A. McIntyre was then called upon and spoke forcibly for some time, speaking about the depression and the policy of the Government. He was warmly received, and his speech was well received. He touched on the Manitoba School question and found fault with the Government for not bringing out a concrete measure to settle this much abused question. His speech did not make much impression on the audience.

John McLean ex-M. P. was called upon and loudly cheered when he stepped upon the platform. He spoke fluently and forcibly on the trade questions of the day and knocked the Dr's arguments into shreds.

Mr. A. Currie, Squire, spoke for some time on the same subject, and gave vain advice to the farmers.

Mr. Allan H. H. spoke on the best interest of the farmers and the N. P., and made a marked impression on the farmers present.

Mr. A. Clay spoke for some time and gave a good, attentive hearing.

C. Shaw, Esq., M. L. A. was loudly cheered for. When he stepped on the platform he had to wait for fully five minutes before the cheering ceased. He spoke fluently on the N. P. and made a deep impression on the large audience. He also spoke on the Manitoba school question, which he fully explained to the entire satisfaction of the audience. He sat down amid the loud applause of the whole meeting.

Dr. Robertson spoke on the different topics of the day, and got a good hearing. He commended the N. P., and the Liberal-Conservative platform, and the duty on carriage, depression among the farmers, and the existing financial straits.

The closed one of the best meetings ever held at Dundas for the Liberal-Conservative, ending by giving three cheers for Her Majesty the Queen, the candidates and the chairman.

J. A. CAMERON, Secretary.

Some test eyes by moving a little slide in or out, others by means of lenses, which are good as far as they go. We often use several tests, the one to confirm the other; but they are no more persons, no matter that anyone may say to the contrary, that it is necessary for a physician to examine their eyes. We have heard of many cases of attempting to fit lenses without these precautions, and injury to the sight has resulted thereby; in all cases where we do not consider our test satisfactory, we think it best for our customers to have examination referred to.—E. AN ALARMING INCREASE.

The Prevalence of Female Complaints Found to Result Largely from Kidneys.

Saginaw, Mich., May 18.—Doctors are beginning to turn their attention more exclusively to the causes for the great increase of what are known as female complaints during the past ten years, and to the remedies for the same. Many cases have been investigated, and among others that of Mrs. Beany, of Ashland, Wis., who was cured of this form of trouble by the use of a kidney medicine known as Dodd's Kidney Pills, which originated in Canada but has now become widely known and used throughout the Western States. This and other similar cases go to show that these troubles are largely due to the kidneys and that the above mentioned remedy is likely to have a great effect in lessening the number of victims to this form of complaint.
