At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon four nuisance cases were disposed of, one being fined $5 and costs and the other three five cents and costs.

A PASSENGER complains that Rocky Point Ferry boat is leaky—making twenty barrels of water in twenty-four hours. It is stated that the Captain takes a row boat in tow so that his own life may be safe.

How women would vote. Were women allowed to vote, every one in the land who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription would vote it to be an unfailing remedy for the diseases peculiar to her sex.

A NORTH RIVER blacksmith named Patterson, accidentally got a small piece of steel in his right eye yesterday afternoon, and were it not for the prompt attendance of a physician who removed the steel, the eye would likely have been ruined.

A BOTTLE was recently picked up on the shore of the East River, about four miles from Charlottetown, containing a slip of birch bark upon which was written in pencil: "British schooner Eliza Armstrong ashore on Anticosti. All hands in a dying condition."

PERSONS who have not paid their real estate tax for the year (1886) must do so this week, not later than the 6th of September, after that date all delinquents will be advertised, and for all other taxes executions will be issued.—F. S. Chandler, Collector.

THE Winnipeg papers report that an excellent quality of anthracite coal has been discovered in the Rockies. A car load has been brought to Winnipeg and tested, and found to be equal to the best imported. Mr. Blake's "sea of mountains" may yet prove an ocean of wealth to Canada.

THE military condition of Algeria is deplorable. There is apparently an utter absence of discipline among the troops. Duels take place almost daily between soldiers and officers, and even between rival companies of chasseurs and zouaves. Natives, old and young, attack foreigners on the slightest provocation.

THE steamer M. A. Starr, Capt. Ferguson, arrived from Halifax via intermediate ports at half-past five this morning, with a general cargo and the following passengers: Mr. F. W. Jubien, Mr. Coughlan, and Mrs. Hubert with five children in charge. She sailed again this afternoon with a general cargo and several passengers.

A DESPATCH from Richibucto says that a hail storm on the 30th ult. destroyed the crops at St. Mary's, Kent Co. In a district four miles long and two miles wide, some 35 or 40 persons will require assistance through the winter. The grain destroyed represented about 250 barrels of flour and 4,000 bushels of oats. Arrangements are being made to provide assistance for the sufferers.

STORMY WEATHER AT SEA.—The schooner Robbie Godfrey, Captain C. Cook, from Newark, N. J., coal laden, bound to Charlottetown, P. E. I., arrived here this morning. On the 22nd and 23rd ult., she experienced a heavy easterly storm. At 2 a. m. on the 23rd a sea struck the vessel carrying away the jib-boom and foretopmast with all gear attached. She put in here to repair the damage.—Holtz-Janz Chronicle.

THE Moncton Times says that Mr. Isaiah Lutes was the victim of a horrible accident at his farm down the river on the Coverdale side, on Wednesday afternoon. He was driving a mowing machine and got off the seat to do some work about the horses, when they started, the knives inflicting several horrible wounds in one of Mr. Lutes' legs, between the ankle and knee. The bones were badly shattered. Dr. Ross was hastily summoned from Moncton, and is doing everything possible. Mr. Lutes is doing as well as can be expected, and it is hoped to save the leg.

"We have to thank Messrs. John McMillan and Norman McLeod, of Wood Islands, for a half a dozen of the finest trout we ever saw."—Patriot.

The editor of the Patriot didn't see the half dozen sent to THE EXAMINER yesterday. Until we have ocular proof to the contrary, we will contend that they were the biggest and best half dozen ever brought to Charlottetown. As for their flavor, "delicious" is a mild word with which to describe it. For THE EXAMINER's half dozen we are indebted to Mr. Norman McLeod, of Orwell, and Mr. John McMillan, engineer of the Northern Light, Charlottetown.

A CORRESPONDENT writes: "Mr. Herman Macdonald, of Hermanville, met with a serious loss in the burning of his dwelling house and all his outhouses on Monday last. The fire took place about 5 o'clock in the evening, while all the inmates of the house, with the exception of a little girl, were at work in the harvest field. The wind was blowing strong from the southwest, and the little girl having prepared a lunch, started for the harvest field—leaving the fire burning in the stove—about a half mile distant. Scarcely had she reached the field before smoke was seen issuing from the house which in a moment was in a blaze. The barn being immediately adjacent, the devouring element had made such progress that it was impossible to save scarcely anything. The premises were known as the "Hermanville House," and was always a popular resort for pleasure seekers and travellers, situated as it was within a stone's throw from the seaside, and also a first rate business stand. Mr. Macdonald estimates his loss at $3,000. This is the second time Mr. Macdonald was burnt out. Since he began business, about 25 years ago, a fire occurred destroying all his premises, including store and warehouses, amounting to something like $15,000."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.) THE EARTHQUAKE!

Some of the Results. KILLED 33---WOUNDED 100. A PATHETIC APPEAL.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 2. A singular effect of last night's earthquake was the very general feeling of distress that it caused. People imagined they were sick and many did not know until this morning that the disturbance was in the earth. The largest buildings in the city rocked violently with three distinct vibrations.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 2. A pathetic appeal for aid has been issued by the citizens. The Western Union Telegraph Company will send free all money and messages pertaining to the relief of the sufferers. Another shock occurred at one a. m. to-day. Hotels, residences, public places and all business houses are deserted. Although every effort is being made to establish some kind of order, everything is still in confusion. The people are camping out and cannot be persuaded to enter their homes even for food. The official total of deaths is 33; wounded, probably 100.

Germany and Russia. BERLIN, Sept. 2. The North German Gazette, referring to the articles of the ultramontane and the liberal press regarding Prince Alexander, says: "Germany, unless she forthwith declared war against Russia could only protest against any further interference with Alexander or perhaps against Russia taking further steps in the direction of Constantinople. Russia would energetically repel the insinuation of such an intention and Germany's friendly relations with Russia would be ended. It must be remembered that war would be the logical development of such a situation. Nobody doubts that the ultramontane and Liberal policy is fraught with imminent danger to Germany. One must either stand to the policy of the Government or plunge the Empire into interminable war."

A Melee. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. A special from Tombstone, Arizona, says: "A rumor reached here to-day that Mexican troops demanded of the American troops the return of Geronimo, the Indian bandit. The latter refused and a fight ensued, in which five Mexicans were killed and two Americans wounded. Geronimo escaped during the melee."

British Parliament. LONDON, Sept. 2. In the House to-day a lively scene occurred during the debate on the address. As it proceeded, Sexton's amendment was rejected by a vote of 225 to 128, and the address agreed to without division. A motion by Parnell to take up the report stage to-morrow was rejected by a vote of 228 to 121.

A Battle Fought—Severe Loss. BERLIN, Sept. 2. Private telegrams from Sofia state that a battle took place at Radomere, Eastern Roumelia, between regiments loyal to Prince Alexander and regiments siding with the revolutionists, and that the latter were defeated with heavy loss.

Cricket. NEW YORK, Sept. 2. The cricket match between the gentlemen of England and Staten Island Clubs, was finished to-day and resulted in a defeat for the American team, the Britons winning by an innings and 49 runs.

Weather Bulletin. TORONTO, September 3—10 a. m. Moderate winds, fine and a little warmer weather.

SPECIAL.

We must make room for fall goods, and to do so, will clear out at prices that must sell them, all remains of summer stock. ECONOMICAL buyers will do well to call at once, and secure the bargains we are offering, in ends of silks, dress goods and cotton goods. Our prices for cotton flannels, all-wool flannels, ginghams, etc., must please you. Call and see them for yourself and save money by buying at once.
