Restoration of Louisbourg Called Tourist Attraction

MONTREAL (CP)—A consultant to the federal government is a $120,000 project to restore Fort Louisbourg in Nova Scotia said here today. The development is expected to start in 1967.
R. L. Way, specialist in historical research and development for the Ontario government, told a historical society meeting the government hopes to have "quite a bit to see" by 1967.
He said the project will provide employment for hundreds of men in the area and produce a grand tourist attraction.
"it will teach new trades to men who can no longer earn a living mining coal and event-

Government Economy Drive Eased In CBC Application

By RUSSELL ELMAN
OTTAWA (CP)—CBC President J. Alphonse Quinnet indicated here today that the government's economy program has eased to the extent that the publicly-owned corporation will be able to start construction on several new television and radio stations if approval is given by the Board of Broadcast Governors.
He told the BRG Wednesday that the CBC's 1963-64 budget will be restored in the next few years, said Mr. Way.
Preliminary work has already been done in the next few years, said Mr. Way.
