

Miller-Barlow Wedding

An event of much interest took place in the United Church at Wellington, P.E.I. on July 30th at 4 P.M. when two very popular young people of the community, Miss Muriel Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Barlow, Wellington, and Mr. Roland William Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Miller of Freeland, were joined in marriage.

The church was resplendent for the occasion in a profusion of flowers, and was filled to capacity by friends and relatives, some coming from distant parts. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.A. MacDonald, pastor of Bideford pastoral charge, assisted by Mr. J.T. Waldron, minister of Wellington pastoral charge.

The bride looked very winsome, attired in a lovely gown of slipper satin, with lace peplum. Her time-er-tip veil was held in place by a pearl coronet and she carried a bouquet of Better-Time roses with baby breath and ferns. She wore a three strand necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom.

honor was attired in a costume of pink net over taffeta, with matching headress and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a costume of blue net over taffeta with matching headress, carrying a bouquet of American Beauty roses. She gracefully led the bridal party up the aisle. The bride's attendants wore earrings, gifts of the bride.

Mr. Claude Barlow, brother of the bride capably performed the duties of groomsman. The little flower girl dressed in yellow taffeta completed the charming ensemble. A solo "O Promise Me" was beautifully and effectively rendered by Mrs. Erland Ramsay of Onaway, during the signing of the register. The organ music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Howard Barlow of Wellington. Ushers were Messrs Robert Barlow and Bannerman Craig.

The marriage was followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. John A. Barlow Sr., where a dainty luncheon was served to a large number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The table was beautifully decorated and centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Barlow chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of navy nylon with matching hat and a corsage of red roses. Mr. Miller, the groom's mother, wore a dress of mauve floral silk crepe with hat to match and wore a corsage of yellow roses. The bride chose a suit for traveling and they immediately left after luncheon for points of interest in the U.S.A. On their return they will reside in Freeland. The bridal couple was wished much happiness on their journey through life. —B.M.

Hughes-Murphy Wedding

A wedding of interest to their many Island friends took place at 9:15 a.m. on August 16th at St. Patrick's Church, Hamilton, Ont., by the Rev. Fr. Duffy who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass, of Helen Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Murphy, Norboro, P.E.I., and Francis Hughes, son of Mrs. Joseph Hughes and the late Mr. Hughes of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Wilfred Lambertas, Grimsby, looked lovely in her street-length dress of pale blue nylon net over taffeta with white accessories, and a corsage of blue and white carnations. She carried a mother of pearl prayer book, the gift of the groom.

The bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss Nora McCarville, who wore yellow nylon net over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of blue and white carnations. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Hubert Murphy, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding navy sheer over navy and white silk print, with a corsage of white carnations. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a rhinestone cross and chain. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold signet ring.

The ushers were Mr. Henry Hughes, Charlottetown, brother of the groom, and Mr. Reggie McCarville, Hamilton, cousin of the bride. The wedding breakfast was at the pink room of the Roberts Restaurant, Hamilton. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and silver candelabra. The breakfast was attended by a host of friends of the bride and groom. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Willard Lambertas of Grimsby, and the groom fittingly replied. The cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Following the breakfast, the happy couple, accompanied by relatives and friends, motored to Grimsby and Buffalo, where they took the train on their honeymoon to Philadelphia, Ocean City, Delaware and other American cities. For travelling the bride wore a pink embroidered sheer with accessories to match. The young couple will reside in Toronto where the groom is on the office staff of the B.A. Oil Company in that city.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's mother, Mrs. F. B. Murphy, also her aunt, Mrs. Percy McCarville, and Master Kevin of Kensington, P.E.I.; the groom's brother, Mr. Henry Hughes of Charlottetown, P.E.I., and Mr. Brent Hooper, Murray Harbour, P.E.I.

Prior to her marriage the bride was waited upon by her friends at a shower where she received a number of beautiful and useful gifts. On the eve of her departure the staff of Loblaw's in Hamilton presented her with a beautiful electric ranch house lamp and a silver casserole. Their many friends join in wishing the bride and groom a happy and prosperous wedded life.

McCarville-Conway Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora, on September 23rd, 1952, when Evelyn Teresa daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Conway, and LAC. Joseph Justin, youngest son of Richard McCarville and the late Mrs. McCarville, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The nuptial Mass was celebrated by Reverend Claude Shea. Sister Mary Peter played the wedding music and beautiful hymns were rendered throughout the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in a floor length gown with a lace over satin bodice and net over satin skirt. The floor length veil was caught by a coronet of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her only attendant was her sister, Eileen who wore blue taffeta with matching headress and mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was ably supported by Mr. Raymond McCarville. Mrs. Conway chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of black crepe with white accessories and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party motored to Summerside, where a bountiful breakfast was served at Birch Hill Lodge, to numerous friends and relatives. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride, after which the bridal party left on a short tour of the Maritimes.

The bride chose for travelling a navy blue gabardine suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower at her home in Kinkora where she received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The happy couple will reside in Edmonton, Alberta, where the groom is stationed with the R. C. A. P. All their friends join in wishing them many years of wedded bliss. —S.

BURGESS BEDTIME

Continued from page 12 were important in making a new start.

The hollow log was a good place for a day or two, but it was no place to make a home. Wee Bunny soon started out again to find a place for himself in the Great World, a place that he could call "home."

This time, because of his experience, he was wiser than before. It had cost him a lot of pain and fright, but it was knowledge that would save him a lot of pain and fright in the future. He was still timid. He always would be timid. A Rabbit who is not timid does not live very long. But he understood better how to be prepared, and to watch out for danger.

The very first day of his new start Sammy Jay spied him. "Hi, Ragged-Ear! Where did you come from? Aren't you a long way from home? Does your mother know you're out? Who chewed your ear?" cried Sammy Jay.

At first the young Rabbit didn't know Sammy Jay was talking to him. He had never been called Ragged-Ear before. It was a new name, but he was to hear it often. Wee Bunny had been a good name to start with, but he wasn't Wee any more. So his name really didn't fit. He would soon be a big Rabbit, and what big Rabbit would want to be called Wee Bunny? That torn ear would be ragged as long as he lived. So, the name Sammy Jay had given him really fitted him.

Kitty the Catbird overheard Sammy Jay and after that he also used that new name. Then others who saw that torn ear took up the name also. And after a while the young Rabbit became used to it.

TORONTO, Oct. 6 —(CP)—Mrs. Gladys E. Sheppard Duggan, for years a prominent member of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, died yesterday. In the Second World War Mrs. Duggan was I. O. D. E. representative to the Consumers Branch of the Prices Board.

FAMOUS COLLEGE

Oxford, oldest university in the United Kingdom, had its beginnings in the early 13th century.

SAFETY DEVICE

A radio or television aerial that is properly grounded serves also as a lightning conductor.

POSITIONS OPEN

FOR EXPERIENCED BOOKKEEPER AND TYPIST

Permanent Position. State Experience and Salary expected.

Apply: PRINCE COUNTY HOSPITAL SUMMERSIDE

SUN LIFE

ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

Branches in all major cities of Canada

R. C. SHEA, Kinkora, P. E. I.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Ben Cameron, Kensington, who was accidentally killed at The Glades, N. B., October 7th, 1951.

Time takes away the edge of grief, But memory turns back every leaf. Sweetest thoughts of one so dear, We deeply treasure from year to year.

Lovingly Remembered by Mother and Sisters Lulu Reeves and Edith Webster.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Benj. Cameron, who passed away October 7th, 1951.

There's a land of light where shall come no night, But the murmuring silver sea, There is one we love in the realms above, That our longing eyes shall see.

The one who left us here shall again appear, And shall greet us with a smile, Best of all we'll meet never more to part, In the golden after-while.

Lovingly Remembered by Her Daughter Gertrude and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. B. I. Cameron, Kensington, who met death on October 7th, 1951, at "The Glades", N. B., as a result of an accident.

What would we give to clasp her hand, And hear her voice once more, And see the face we miss so much, Come smiling through the door.

Sadly Missed and Fondly Remembered by Ruby and Albert.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Kensington, who met death by accident at "The Glades", N. B., on October 7th, 1951.

The blow was hard, The shock severe, We never thought, The end so near.

Sadly Missed by Perry, Emma and Gerald.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Mother, Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Kensington, who met death by accident at "The Glades", N. B., on October 7th, 1951.

She bade no one a last farewell, She said goodbye to none, The heavenly gates were open, A loving voice said come.

Beyond the gate our loved one, Finds happiness and rest, There is a comfort in the thought, A loving God knows best.

Sadly Missed and Lovingly Remembered by Her Two Sons Elwood and Sheldon and Daughter-in-law Erma.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Kensington, who died suddenly as a result of a car accident at "The Glades", N. B., on October 7th, 1951.

There is still a heartache in my heart to-day, That countless years won't take away, A place in my heart that nothing can fill, I miss you dear and always will.

People often think I am happy, When they sometimes see me smile, But they do not know the heartache, That lies with me all the while.

Sadly Missed and Ever Remembered by Her Husband.

Ellen's Diary

Continued from page 2

were familiar terms at the digging. James' misery of arm considerably lessened, though it not yet back to its former suppleness, was content to remain at this place during the morning's diggings. But then lured by an old yearning he could not deny he was away briskly along the intervening fields to join the workers there. Leaving us alone with only the robins on the rowan tree chatting of "Down South" for company. But with wide vistas of woodlands aflame and Autumn's inimitable touches "Far over uplands and lowland."

Until tomorrow... Diary... Good-night....

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ARTHUR SHERRY

The people of Fernwood and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened to learn of the passing of Mrs. Arthur Sherry, at the Prince County Hospital on September 2nd, 1952.

Born at Mill River East on April 22nd, 1918, she was the only daughter of the late John James and Mrs. Rooney, the former Winifred Butler.

Although she had been seriously ill for a few weeks, hope for her recovery was entertained until the day of her passing and in spite of the expert medical and nursing care which she received, God will- ed otherwise.

She was a loving wife and constant companion of her husband, who brought her to the community as a bride twenty years ago. Always cheerful and of a happy disposition, she had a host of friends, both young and old. Her hospitality was well known for many miles around and her home was frequently the scene of happy gatherings.

As in life she was often surrounded by many people, so at her death they came in large numbers to pay their last respects to one they loved so dearly.

She possessed a fine Christian character and received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a devoted member. During her illness she was visited daily by Rev. Father LeClair of Summerside and by her pastor, Rev. Father Reginald Macdonald of Seven Mile Bay Parish. She was also visited by her former neighbor, the Rev. Father Thomas McKenna, now of Washington, D. C.

Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, eight young children, Gerald, Desmond, Aden, Eileen, Wallace, Joan, Betty and Doreen. There are also left to cherish the memory of a loving daughter and sister, her mother who, due to illness, was unable to attend the funeral, and three brothers, Raymond of Boston, and Gerald of Toronto, both of whom came home to their sister's funeral, and James of Mill River East.

Her funeral, one of the largest ever seen in that area, was held from her late residence to Seven Mile Bay Church on September 6, at 9 a.m. Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father MacDonald. Also present in the sanctuary were her former pastor, the Rev. Father W. E. Monaghan of Alberton and the Rev. Father Preston Hamilton of Borden.

Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were: Brendon, Rowan, Edgar and Lloyd Sherry, nephews of the deceased, and Cedric and Everett McKenna, who had been next door neighbors.

"Sweet are the memories that never fade Of one we loved, but could not save. Always so true, unselfish and kind, Few in the world her equal, you'll find. Beautiful life that came to an end, She died as she lived, everyone's friend."

Mass Cards

Arthur and family (5). Mrs. J. J. Rooney (2). Mr. Raymond Rooney. Mr. and Mrs. James Rooney. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rooney. Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry (2). Mr. and Mrs. Brendon Sherry. Mr. and Mrs. Rowan Sherry. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherry. Miss Mabel Sherry. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sherry. Mrs. Mary Sherry and family (2). Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Murray. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sherry (2). Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sherry. Miss Rita A'Hearn. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Noonan (2).

Mr. Walter Cusack. Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Arsenault. Mrs. Robert Carmichael and family. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gaudet and family. Mr. and Mrs. Alyre Gallant and family. Mr. and Mrs. James Murray and family. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saunders. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Saunders and family. Mr. Edward Sharbell and family. Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Noonan. Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKenna. Mr. and Mrs. William Sherry and family. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Keough. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray and family. Mrs. Robert Kenny. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIvor and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherry. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly. Mary and Keith Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hamill. Misses Anne and Olga Griffin. Mrs. Austin Murphy and Catherine. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Keough. Mr. and Mrs. John F. McKenna. Mr. and Mrs. Alban Keough. Wilfred, Pauline and Dorothy Hamill. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Green. Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCarville and Joan. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bell. Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Sobey. Mr. and Mrs. Gratton Noonan and family. Mr. Leonard McCarville.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Wilfred Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Noonan, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Green, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Noonan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ranaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Revere Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McIsaac and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs. Cedric McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aylward, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Johnson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mutart, Preston Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis McKenna, Misses Gladys, Bernadette and Mabel Murray, Mr. and Mrs. William MacDon-ald.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trainor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Luttrell and David, Mr. and Mrs. Colridge Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, Mr. Gabriel Sharbell, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sherry, Rev. Fr. Thomas McKenna, Rev. Fr. W. V. MacDonald, Rev. Fr. M. J. Rooney, Catholic Woman's League, Seven Mile Bay.

Floral Tributes

Wreath: Husband and family. Wreath: Mother and family. Pillow: Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry and family.

Sprays: Mr. and Mrs. Keith Compton, Misses Eleanor Wheeler and Elaine Harrison.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Arthur Sherry wish to express their heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses shown them during their recent sad bereavement. Also to those who sent Mass Cards, flowers and messages of sympathy.

CAMEO THEATRE

Kensington. Monday-Tuesday 7:15-9:15. A Samuel Goldwyn picture. A human interest drama. Ann Blyth, Farley Granger and Joan Evans starred in a vivid story of an adopted girl's heart pangs upon discovering her real origin in "OUR VERY OWN".

CAPITOL Summerside

TODAY (Tuesday) 3:30-7:15-9:15

The story of a great baseball pitcher, Dizzy Dean. His strong right arm rocketed him to fame. But the big story was his Big League heart. Lovers of Baseball—here is the picture for you. It will give everyone a kick from 6 to 60.

One heck of a wonderful picture about one heck of a wonderful guy!! DAN DAILEY * JOANNE DRU

REGENT TONIGHT 7.15-9.15

EVER-NEW JOY FOR ALL TO ENJOY!

Big Trade-in Allowance on NEW GOOD YEAR Tires

Yes sir, we'll give you the biggest trade-in allowance in town when you trade your present tires on new Goodyears! And when we've equipped your car with new, long-mileage, dependable Goodyears, you'll be equipped for thousands of miles of safe driving. We have Goodyear tires available in all price ranges. See us right away and take advantage of our high trade-in allowance.

LOOK FOR THIS "HIGH SIGN" OF QUALITY

RELIABLE MOTORS LTD. A. HORNE & CO. LTD.

SUMMERSIDE GENERAL MOTORS SALES & SERVICE

Tailored exclusively by PROGRESS BRAND CLOTHES

How other suits can rival this superb garment for sheer distinction and quality. Here is a suit you will be proud to own.

HOLMAN'S MEN'S WEAR

Extra Special!

All This Week

6 Decorated Tumblers

9 OZ. SIZE — CHOICE OF PATTERNS FOR ONLY 39c

(Regular 10c Each)

With Each Purchase To The Value of 3.00 In

HOLMAN'S Grocery

Professional Cards

T. Earle Hickey Chartered Accountant Canadian Bank of Commerce Summerside, P. E. I. PHONE 2588

E. E. Parkman Opt.D., R.O. OPTOMETRIST Glasses Fitted Eyes Examined Office Hours: 9 to 12 - 1 to 5 and by appointment Phone 3287 REGENT THEATRE BLDG. Summer St. Summerside

B. F. Hunter R. O. Summerside, P. E. I. Complete Visual Analyses Glasses Fitted PHONE 3116 SMALLMAN'S BUILDING OPTOMETRIST

R. E. ELLIS & SON Fire - Auto - Casualty INSURANCE 5 Summer St., Summerside PHONE 2413

W. CHESTER S. MacDONALD Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Etc. L.L.B. Office formerly occupied by Late Heath Strong, E. C. Money to Loan Collections Promptly Attended To.