was of great antiquity, dated from the year A. D. 1425, and famous for its architectural beauty and historic associations. All the elaborate decorations of the interior were destroyed, and the walls, roof and tower were so badly injured that it will probably be necessary to take the whole building down.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The Annual Fenian Pic Nic occurred to-day; all the military organizations and 5,000 civilians on the ground. The Pic-Nic was soon turned into a Donnybrook fair, and fighting and rioting continued all day long; several people were stabbed.

The following article, which appeared in the Patriot of the 8th inst., entirely escaped our observation previous to the issue of our last No. The very generous act recorded of a gallant and estimable officer, and an ornament to the Volunteer Service, deserves wider publicity than one paper can afford it.—Ed. Exr.

PRESENTATION.

At the regular monthly Dress Parade on Monday night, Major Rankin, their popular and esteemed commanding officer, presented the Prince of Wales Rifles with a British Ensign tastefully mounted with cords and tassels on a staff surmounted by a representation of the Prince of Wales Feather, with the motto Ich Dien and the name of the Company painted thereon. Having been told off and proved, the first and fourth sections were wheeled up. Major Rankin then stepped forward and made the presentation. When the City Guards were organized in 1855, he was elected to be their Captain. At the beginning of the present Volunteer movement he again found himself at the head of the Prince of Wales Company, in which he recognized the faces of several members of the old Guards. Of his subsequent retirement from, and appointment to, the Volunteer Force, it was unnecessary to speak. It was not, he thought, improbable that his private business, which now prevented him from meeting with his men as regularly as he could wish, would, ere long, compel him reluctantly to resign his present command. In anticipation of that event, he begged them to accept these colors. He hoped they would always carry them with honor. He was sure they would defend them with courage. Should he carry out his intention, it would ever be to him a subject of satisfaction to reflect that during the long period of his connection with the Prince of Wales Rifles, he never had an unpleasant word with any of the junior officers, non-commissioned officers or men of the Company. On all occasions they obeyed orders with cheerful promptitude and alacrity. The colors having been handed over to Ensign Newson, Lieut. F. S. Longworth proposed three cheers for the gallant Major, which was responded to with hearty good will. The Company was then re-formed into line, and marched up to DesBrisay's corner, where they were dismissed, highly pleased with their new colors, the first presentation of the kind, we believe, in the history of the Volunteer movement in Prince Edward Island.

Death of a Good Man.—The St John's (N. F.) Patriot of the 3rd instant, contains the following notice of the demise of a very excellent gentleman, and most exemplary Priest—the Very Rev. John Vereker, who for seventeen years had been Parish Priest of St. John's:—

"On Monday last, at the Episcopal Palace in this city, the Rev. John Verekeb, aged 44 years. The premature demise of this esteemed clergyman has spread a deep gloom over the community of St. John's, where he laboured with indefatigable zeal as Parish Priest for many years; and deep sorrow and regret are intensified from the fact of his having fallen a victim to disease contracted whilst administering the last solemn rites of the church to a suffering member of his flock—a disease so virulent in its nature, that, stricken down whilst in the enjoyment of robust health, proved fatal after a few days of extreme pain, borne by him with true Christian patience and resignation to the will of his divine master.

The Rev. John Vereker was a native of the county Kilkenny, Ireland. Finishing his studies at St. John's College, Waterford, he was ordained by the Right Rev. Dr. Mullock in this city in October, 1860; making a period of nearly seventeen years in which he laboured in his sacred calling.

The funeral of the lamented Priest took place on Wednesday last, and a larger procession than the one on this occasion has never, we believe, been witnessed in Newfoundland. The hearse, drawn by two horses, was proceeded by a long train of youths in white surplices, bearing in front the sacred symbol of our Redemption; the Catholic clergy of the city and outports followed in their robes; then came the Benevolent Irish, Mechanics, Total Abstinence and Fishermen's Societies, Fire Companies, &c., with furled colours, and each wearing their distinctive badges and uniforms. Next proceeded, two and two, an immense line of private citizens of all creeds and classes; among whom we noticed the hon. the President of her Majesty's Councils, the hon. the Attorney-General and Premier, the Judges, members of Council and of the House of Assembly, Heads of Departments, Officers of the Garrison, members of the Bar, and the principal merchants of the city. A line of forty-five carriages closed the funeral train, which proceeded from the Cathedral down Military Road, through Duckworth and Prescott Streets to Belvidere Cemetery, where the body was consigned to the silent tomb.—Requiescat in pace.

SCOTTISH ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Sons of Scotia and their descendants are anticipating a series and variety of enjoyments during the present week, all combining to render the approaching Caledonian Gathering one of the most interesting and attractive which has yet taken place in Charlottetown. It is announced elsewhere that on Tuesday next, the 20th inst., at 8 o'clock, at Temperance Hall, a Lecture, under the patronage of His Excellency the Lieut. Governor will be delivered on "Prince Charles Edward Stewart, and the Scottish Rebellion of 1745," by Mr. Duncan Campbell, late of Glasgow, now of Halifax. This gentleman lectured in the latter city on the same subject last spring, under the most distinguished patronage, when his performance was most favorably noticed by the local press: and we feel satisfied that an intellectual treat of no ordinary kind, awaits those who may favor him with a hearing on this occasion. We understand that the lecturer has, in person, gone over the ground rendered memorable by the romantic incidents and stirring events of the period referred to. Mr. Campbell wields a vigorous and facile pen. Among other articles, his report on Immigration, in its bearing on the future of British America, together with his published strictures on some of the most exciting topics of the day, now engrossing the thoughts of the Statesmen and Politicians of the new Dominion, have attracted no small share of public attention.—Islander.

We are requested to state that the Hon. Col. Gray will take the chair to-morrow evening, on the occasion of Mr. Campbell's Lecture on "Prince Charles Edward Stewart." We have no doubt that a crowded house will be found to welcome the Lecturer.

The Annual Wesleyan Sunday School Tea came off on Wednesday last as announced. The children, accompanied by their teachers, marched from their class rooms about 1 o'clock p. m., in good order, and with flags bearing appropriate mottoes. On reaching the beautiful grounds at Kensington, the children enjoyed themselves in various amusements until tea was prepared. The exercises and free air of the field enabled them to relish the delicacies provided for their entertainment, and all would have passed off exceedingly well had not a slight shower of rain dispersed the company, so that the tea for adults had to be portponed to take place some evening, in the Basement Room of the Chapel. Last night (Friday) about 7½ o'clock, a not very numerous but sociable party sat down to tea in the said Basement Room, and after an agreeable repast, were entertained by the singing of some sweet hymns, and by addresses from several of the gentlemen present, among whom we may mention Rev. Mr. Winterbotham, and Mr. Boyyer, from Boston, formerly of Charlottetown, who received his Sunday School training in the old Wesleyan Church of this city.—Pat.

The Dominion Revenue Cutter La Canadienne, Capt. Fortin, arrived at this Port on Wednesday last.

CITY COUNCIL.

August 13th, 1867.—At the annual meeting of the City Board held this evening,

PRESENT:

His Worship the Mayor,
His Honor the Recorder,
Councillors Morris, Yates, Reddin, Brecken, Beer, Butcher, Pollard, Hooper, Laird.

The annual election of Officers and Standing Committees for the ensuing year took place as follows, viz:

Auditors of City Accounts.—R. R. Hodgson, S. W. McMurray, Esqrs.

Public Accounts and Finance Committee.—Councillors Beer, Brecken, Laird.

Streets and Squares Committee.—Councillors Morris, Mitchell, Beer, Pollard, Hooper.

Market Committee.—Councillors Yates, Reddin, Brecken, Pollard, Laird.

The following officers were then re-elected, viz:

Benj. DesBrisay, Treasurer.
Peter McGowan, Clerk,
A. McNeill, Reporter,
N. Harvie, Pound Keeper,
M. O'Hara, Weigher City Scales,
J. P. Tanton, Assayer Weights and Measures.
G. Lewis, Market Clerk,
W. Sheppard, Collector Taxes,
John Hatch, Crier.

George Douglas was appointed City Surveyor.

On motion it was agreed that the City Marshall and six Policemen be continued until otherwise ordered by the Board.

The question of increasing the Police force engaged the attention of the Council Board; and also the propriety of securing the services of an efficient Police Sergeant or Detective from London, with the view, if possible, of detecting incendiaries, and also for the purpose of training the local Police. After considerable discussion on the subject, a Resolution was adopted to the effect that,

On account of the recent attempts at Incendiarism in the City of Charlottetown, and because of the large amount of Government property at stake within its bounds, and not subject to taxation, the Council Board do secure the services of six active and efficient persons to act as watchmen or assistants to the standing Police force during the opening of the navigation, and that application be made to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council to appropriate a sum sufficient to defray the expense of such an additional force. It was also resolved that his His Worship the Mayor communicate with the Executive Government on the subject of the last Resolution; and, on motion, it was—

Ordered, that His Worship the Mayor be requested to communicate with Sir Richard Mayne, K. C. B., of London, with the view of obtaining information relative to the securing of the services of an efficient Sergeant of Police or Detective, and what would be the probable amount per annum, necessary to defray the salary of said officer.

At a late hour the Board adjourned until Saturday evening next at 8 o'clock.

A. McNeill, Reporter.

TO THE PROPRIETORS OF THE CHARLOTTETOWN NEWSPAPERS.

Gentlemen:—The present appears to be a time when it might not be amiss to bring to the notice of the public, the nature of the punishment for willfully setting fire to Buildings. The Act of the General Assembly of the Island, 5th William IV., chap. 22, section 49, is in substance as follows, viz: "And be it enacted, That if a person should unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Church, Chapel, &c., or to any house, stable, coach house, out-house, ware-house, office, shop, mill, barn, or granary, &c, with intent thereby to injure or defraud any person, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death as a felon." It will be well also to notice, that an offender detected in this act of felony, may be put to death by more summary means than trial and conviction, and execution by the hangman; for it is laid down in the 1 Vol. of Hales' pleas of the Crown, and of other works of equally great authority on Criminal Law, that if an offender be detected in feloniously setting fire to a House, he may be killed in the act by the owner or any other person, and such person will be justified by the law for the life so taken.

As it is now rendered certain beyond all doubt that, some of the late attempts at burning in this city, have been the acts of some fiendish incendiary, it may be a timely warning, if you, and other proprietors of newspapers, would refresh the memory of this class of people as to what their fate may be if detected in their crime.

Gentlemen, I remain yours, &c.,
An Old Magistrate.

Ch'town, Aug. 12, 1867.

Opening of a New Church.—The Church at Mount Stewart was opened for Divine worship on Sabbath, the 4th inst. The services on the occasion were conducted in the morning and evening by the Rev. A. Falconer, of Charlottetown, and in the afternoon by Rev. D. W. Cameron, Pastor of the congregation. This Church reflects great credit on the West St. Peter's congregation. Mount Stewart is a thriving village, and will shortly require additional Church accommodation. Even now the Church just finished is too small for the congregation that assembles there. On Monday, after the opening services, the pews were disposed of, and realized £20, in excess of the debt on the building. Whilst providing this neat place of worship, the congregation has not been unmindful of their Pastor's comfort. During the past year they have built him a commodious manse, and manifested their interest in him in various other ways. Such zeal and liberality might well stimulate other congregations to go and do likewise.—Presb.

North Cape, P. E. Island,
August 2nd, 1867.

In compliment to the gentleman who keeps the Light on North Cape, Prince Edward Island, I must say that in my opinion it is most excellently and well attended, as I have laid to anchor N. by E. 16 miles from the Light House for five successive nights, and I have not seen the least defect in the Light; and in my opinion I could see it six miles further.

Fires at Warren Farm.—On Wednesday the 7th instant, between 11 and 12 o'clock, two Fires broke out in the woods on Warren Farm, one directly to the windard of Ringwood House, and the other a little distance beyond it. If these two fires had met, it would have been impossible to save the house. In some places the ground moss, &c., continued to burn for a few days, but no danger was apprehended. On Sabbath last another fire broke out to the windard of the house, but a considerable distance from the place of the former fire, which did little or no damage. On Monday, a new fire was set in the immediate vicinity of the above premises, and again in a position so that the wind would carry the flames directly upon it. On account of the brush and other combustible matter in the woods, the fire in a short time reached the house, which was soon consumed with all its contents, except a few articles saved by the exertions of the neighbours. The fires appear to have been the work of an incendiary, and we hope the party will be discovered and properly punished. Ringwood House was occupied by Mr. Neil Campbell.—Pat.

Ringwood House, the property of Colonel Cumberland, situate on Warren Farm, was destroyed by fire on Monday last. The fire originated by the setting fire to the woods in the vicinity of the house.—Isl.

Holloway's Pills.—Diarrhœa and Bowel Complaints.—These maladies are ever present, and if left unattended frequently terminate fatally. It should be every where known that both cholera and diarrhœa depend on the presence of some undigested substance in the stomach or bowels, or some deleterious matter in the blood, and that Holloway's Pills can expell either with ease and expedition. They concentrate in a surprising degree purifying, alterative, regulating and strengthening qualities, and thus exert over every internal organ the wholesomely, controlling influence so necessary for subduing excessive action in the human frame. Holloway's medicine may be advantageously taken as a means of keeping the blood pure and the body cool—the only practicable plan of maintaining health in youth, manhood, and old age.

Bronchitis.—From Mr. C. H. Gardner, Principal of the Rutgers Female Institute, N. Y, May 14, 1858. "I have been afflicted with Bronchitis during the past winter, and found no relief until I found your Troches." "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, give prompt relief in Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, and are for sale throughout the Colonies and most foreign countries.

AN EFFECTUAL WORM MEDICINE.

Brown's Vermifuge Comfits,

Or Worm Lozenges. Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "Vermifuge Comfits," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making Brown's "Vermifuge Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

Curtis & Brown, Proprietors, New York. Sold by all Dealers in Medicines, at 25 cents a box.
