BODY-RESTORER

Food is the body-restorer. In health, you want nothing but food; and your baby wants nothing but food. But, when not quite well, you want to get back to where food is enough.

One of the most delicate foods, in the world, is Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. When usual food is a burden, it feeds you enough to restore your stomach; baby the same. The body-builder is food; the body-restorer is Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We'll send you a little to try if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

CAPTURE AND RESCUE.

Interesting Story of Fighting in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Major advices from Manila give in considerable detail the story of the rescue of Captain Shields and fifty men of the 29th Infantry after their capture by the insurgents in Marindique. The fight that Captain Shields and his party put up against an overwhelming force is declared to have been one of the most brilliant incidents in the history of bush fighting in the Archipelago. The 50 men in question were pursuing a party of insurgents of superior force into the mountains when they were ambushed in a canyon by a force of 250 rifle men, and 1,800 bolomen. They made a continuous fight for eight hours, killing a large number of the insurgents, and were overpowered only after they had fired their last shot, and practically were smothered in a hand-to-hand fight with their 2,000 adversaries. Sergeants Williams and McCarthy, who were in charge of some of the wounded, come in for particular praise. They were cut off from the rest of the party during the retreat and entrenched themselves on the hillside where they stood off their assailants for about three hours, surrendering after every cartridge had been exhausted. Scarcely a man in the expedition escaped being grazed or slightly wounded during the fight. The rescue of the party was effected by General Hare, who some months before, when only a colonel, led the party which effected the rescue of Lieut. Gilmore and the men from the Yorktown, after their long months of captivity in Northern Luzon. Captain Shields and his men say that they have no complaint to make of their treatment during captivity.

Full Text of His Letter About Treating the Soldiers.

The following is the full text of Lord Roberts' letter to the London Daily Mail on the subject of treating the returning soldiers:—

PRETORIA, Sunday, Sept. 30.—Will you kindly allow me, through the medium of your paper, to make an appeal to my countrymen and women upon a subject I have very much at heart, and which has been occupying my thoughts for some time past? All classes in the United Kingdom have shown such a keen interest in the army serving in South Africa, and have been so munificent in their efforts to supply every need of that army, that I feel sure they must be eagerly looking forward to its return, and to giving our brave soldiers and sailors the hearty welcome they so well deserve when they get back to their native land.

It is about the character of this welcome, and the effect it may have on the reputations of the troops whom I have been so proud to command, that I am anxious, and that I venture to express an opinion. My sincere hope is that the welcome may not take the form of "treating" the men to stimulants in public-houses or in the streets, and thus lead them into excesses which must tend to degrade those whom the nation delights to honor, and to lower the "soldier of the Queen" in the eyes of the world—that world which has watched with unguessed admiration the grand work they have performed for their sovereign and their country.

From the very kindness of their hearts, their innate politeness, and their gratitude for the welcome accorded in the streets. But very shortly all this was changed. Doors were left open, shutters were taken down, and people of all nationalities moved freely about, in the full assurance that they had nothing to fear from "the man in khaki," no matter how battered and war-stained his appearance. This testimony will, I feel sure, be very gratifying to the people of Great Britain, and of the Greater Britain whose sons have shared to the fullest extent in the suffering as well as the glory of the war, and who have helped so materially to bring it to a successful close.

I know how keen my fellow-subjects will be to show their appreciation of the upright and honorable bearing as well as the gallantry of our sailors and soldiers, and I would entreat them, in return for all these grand men have done for them, to abstain from an action that might bring the smallest discredit upon those who have so worthily upheld the credit of the country. I am induced to make the appeal from having read with great regret, that when our troops were leaving England, and passing through the streets of London, their injudicious friends pressed liquor upon them, and shoved bottles of spirits into their hands and pockets—a mode of "speeding the parting" friend which resulted in some very distressing and discreditable scenes. I fervently hope there may be no such scenes to mar the brightness of the welcome home, I remain, Sir, yours faithfully,

ROBERTS, F. M.

IT'S CHILD'S PLAY

To treat a woman for a disease year after year and give her no permanent relief. Yet that has been the case with scores of women who have "doctored" for year after year unhelped and unhealed, to find at last that a few bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription would have saved years of suffering and a great deal of money.

For the regulation of the periods, the stopping of disagreeable drains, the healing of inflammation and ulceration, and the cure of female weakness, there is no medicine can equal Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"About five years ago I had very poor health," writes Mrs. S. E. Whalen, of Helen, Johnson Co., Missouri. "After doctoring four years with our town doctors they gave me up; said they had done all they could. I had been confined to my bed half my time; the other half could hardly drag around. I had such pains in my back and abdomen I could not stand for more than a few minutes. My feet were cold or burning, and my periods came too often. The doctors said it was change of life, so, as I had heard of Dr. Pierce's medicines, my husband got me a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription.' I took it and it helped me in some ways, so I wrote to you and followed your advice. I commenced 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Pellets,' as I was so constipated all the time and pills would weaken me so that I would have to go to bed. To the great surprise of everybody I got well, and when I met my friends they would say, 'We never thought you would be here now.' But I can say it was your medicine, which no doubt is the best in the world. Have had no use for doctors since I tried your medicine."

ed them, it will be difficult for the men to refuse what is offered them by their too generous friends. I therefore beg earnestly that the British public will refrain from tempting my gallant comrades, but will rather aid them to uphold the splendid reputation they have won for the imperial army.

I am proud that I am able to record with the most absolute truth, that the conduct of this army from first to last has been exemplary. Not one single case of serious crime has been brought to my notice—indeed, nothing that deserves the name of crime. There has been no necessity for appeals or orders to the men to behave properly. I have trusted implicitly to their own soldierly feeling and good sense, and I have not trusted in vain. They bore themselves, like heroes on the battlefield, and like gentlemen on all other occasions.

Most malicious falsehoods were spread abroad by the authorities in the Orange Free State and the Transvaal as to the brutality of Great Britain's soldiers, and as to the manner in which the women and children might expect to be treated. We found, on first entering towns and villages doors closed and shops shut up, while only English born people were to be
