The trustees are grateful to know he has again remembered the Hospital in such a tangible form.

—DEATH OF MRS. MCINNIS — Mrs. Clair McInnis, wife of Francis W. McInnis of 29 Priscilla Rd., Brighton, Mass., died suddenly May 17th at her home following a brief illness. Mrs. McInnis was born in St. John, New Brunswick, (McDonald) Delaney. She came to live in Boston thirty years ago and had resided in this district for the past few years. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Ed. McInnis of the Back Bay; and Francis McInnis of Brighton, a brother. S. W. Delaney, Malpeque, Prince Edward Island and a sister, Mrs. (Prof.) Robert E. Smith, Dickinson, N. Dakota. The funeral took place from their residence Wednesday morning. A Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Gabriel's Monastery Church at 8 o'clock by Rev. Eugene Kiernan, C.P. Among the mourners were Judge Barry of St. John, New Brunswick. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury, where committal prayers were read by Rev. Hilary McGowan, C.P. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes and numerous spiritual bouquets. —Evelyn Erckhage. (Mr. McInnis, who is well and favorably known in Summerside, will have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends.)

Amateur Show Closes With

Another Fine Performance; Beatrice Gallant Is Winner

The second and last night of the amateur contest held in the High School auditorium on Saturday was like the first performance of the previous evening a huge success. A conservative estimate of the total attendance for both evenings would be about 1,900.

In the finals which were held after the regular programme, Miss Beatrice Gallant, 13 year old Summerside young lady, was unanimously chosen as the winner of the contest and with it the $50 cash prize. Miss Gallant's win was well deserved and considering her performance on the piano with the added novelty number of pitch discrimination she must be classed as nothing short of a genius. The second prize of the show went to Messrs. Herbert Schurman and Alvin Gay, who on the strength of their fine vocal duet might be termed the harmony twins. The slight nervousness of the previous evening was absent and rumor has it that these two boys will make an initial appearance in one of the local clubs this week. Miss Mary Lou Welsh of Charlottetown was a very popular third choice, being very few votes behind second place.

Considering her size and age this little lady's performance was remarkable. It will be remembered that Mary Lou opened the contest in a brilliant manner on Friday night. As she repeated her song and tap dance number in the finals she seemed more at home, brought some clever acting into play and drew a tremendous ovation. Her costume which consisted of full dress evening clothes could not have been improved on.

—Saturday Night's Show — Rev. Walter MacCleary again taking the part of master of ceremonies in the typical Major Bowes fashion opened the second night of the contest immediately without any introductory remarks. Unfortunately the band could not appear in the first part of the evening because of the members were working. There were not so many participants in the second night, being 20 as compared to 35 on opening night.

Opening the programme the Misses Marion McAssey and Jean Calbeck rendered an excellent piano duet. There was only one other similar number in the contest which was presented the previous evening both were very well received. Number two brought Ernest Gaudet and Henry Richards in a novelty guitar harmonica and accordion number. Mr. Gaudet performed the difficult task of playing the guitar and harmonica for the evening. The vocalists for the evening, Bobbie Schurman, D. Roscoe Walker, Earl McLure, Dorothy Carmody, Alphonse Poirier, Raymond Sellick, Pearl Burns, Frank Clow, Mrs. Kenneth McLean and Roland Sheen all gave good presentations, some of which earned them places in the final number.

The vocalists for the evening, Bobbie Schurman, D. Roscoe Walker, Earl McLure, Dorothy Carmody, Alphonse Poirier, Raymond Sellick, Pearl Burns, Frank Clow, Mrs. Kenneth McLean and Roland Sheen all gave good presentations, some of which earned them places in the final number.

—Saturday Night's Show — Rev. Walter MacCleary again taking the part of master of ceremonies in the typical Major Bowes fashion opened the second night of the contest immediately without any introductory remarks. Unfortunately the band could not appear in the first part of the evening because of the members were working. There were not so many participants in the second night, being 20 as compared to 35 on opening night.

Opening the programme the Misses Marion McAssey and Jean Calbeck rendered an excellent piano duet. There was only one other similar number in the contest which was presented the previous evening both were very well received. Number two brought Ernest Gaudet and Henry Richards in a novelty guitar harmonica and accordion number. Mr. Gaudet performed the difficult task of playing the guitar and harmonica for the evening.
