be doubled. Many people who never think of entering the present market house, would flock there under the change that we are contemplating, at first by dozens and afterwards by hundreds; and it needs no wizzard to predict that the sales would be quicker and more advantageous to both parties where there is a brisk competition. We therefore invite our country friends to consider this matter with the attention we think it merits; and if any of them should happen to differ in opinion with us, we shall be happy to publish their views on the subject. It is by the successful prosecution of the pursuits of Agriculture that the Island looks for a participation in the comforts and luxuries enjoyed by other countries. Nothing will in our opinion have so great a tendency to encourage the raising of superior articles, of whatever nature they may be, as the providing of a proper mart for the successful sale of them. It would tend very much toward diverting some part of the stream of emigration to the Island, if we could shew to those strangers who visit the capital a well regulated and well filled Market House, abounding in all that is necessary or pleasurable to existence.

We had some faint hopes from seeing in the Royal Gazette the extracts from the Montreal Sun and the New Brunswicker headed "Abuse of Public men in the Colonies," that the Editor of the Government Organ was about to set an example of forbearance to us all, but the first glance at the Royal Gazette of Monday last, was quite sufficient to extinguish these hopes had they been of the most ardent nature. Under the head of "correspondence" in a letter signed "Observer" addressed to ourselves, and of course distinguished by a tone of the most gentlemanly courtesy, we are highly honored. But we disclaim all the flattering epithets with with he has thought fit to load us—we are not entitled to them and do not deserve them. Still if it affords him any pleasure to heap up undeserved honors on us he must be allowed to follow the bent of his own good nature. We can't help thinking at the same time that it is a sort of editorial in disguise, or at all events our "most particular friend" has gallantly stept forward on the occasion, with what truth let those who were at the meeting say. For ourselves we will appeal to the Hon. Mr. Lord himself whether it was not as we stated it, and whether he was not heard, and notwithstanding the excitement of the moment fairly heard, and whether the offer stated in our article of the 23d ult. to insert his own or his friends notice of his speeches and observations was not made as there stated,—we fearlessly, we say, appeal to that gentleman knowing that however we may differ in polities, he would scorn to back the untruth of Mr. Whelan or Mr. Whelan's correspondent whichever it may be. As to our or any man's being afraid to allow Ed. Whelan to be heard, the thing is ridiculous; as to ourselves we have heard and replied to better men, men whose talents were of a far higher order than those of Mr. W.; but enough of this. The fulsome praise accorded to Mr. Whelan by "Observer" is such that no man but the Editor and Proprietor of the Royal Gazette, would have suffered it to be inserted in a paper under his controul. We will pass over to another of these "Editorials in disguise" a letter signed "King's County Tenants" and this for the purpose of selecting a passage by way of a text for a very short sermon. The writer having stated that he had read a letter of "A King's County Tenant" and also that of a gallant Colonel of Militia printed in Hazard's Gazette proceeds thus:—

"In the first place, to that of the tenant complaining of the Government passing by Messrs. Goff and Frost, we shall merely say, that it is well-known here, that the former d——— the late House of Assembly for not taxing their constituents, to give his Brother-in-law a pension for doing nothing; and it is equally well known that Mr. Frost was appointed Wharfinger lately by the present Government, for which office he evinced his gratitude by giving a plumper to the tory Candidate at the late Election. It is said here that the sin of ingratitude is worse than witchcraft—juniper knees included.

The King's County Tenant—in Haszard's Gazette—had asserted that Goff and Frost had been turned out of their respective stations, one for fearlessly doing his duty as Sheriff at the Georgetown Election and the other for the very vote as above stated. We take the case of the latter for the subject of our discourse. And here we must in the first place observe that there is no discrepancy between the "Tenant" and the "Tenants." It is admitted on both sides, that Mr. Frost was deprived of his office not because he was inefficient or unworthy, but because having been appointed to a petty office by the present Government, he had the ingratitude to vote for the man he thought fittest to represent him, but that is not the extent of his sin, he actually gave a plumper. Poor Frost why did you not act as you were ordered! What right has a Wharfinger to an opinion contrary to that of his masters! Did you not know that when you took office under a liberal administration that you were no longer a free man! Were you not aware that from the moment of being sworn into office, that you had sworn allegiance likewise to George Coles and Co. for ever! It is possible, that you, being simply an honest man, did not know of all this. If so, on that account we excuse you, but the administration will not, nor will the Dictator. Now we have but one remark to make on this—we promise to be short—We always knew that this passive obedience and non-resistance in subordinates was a principle among the liberals, but we did not expect that they would be fools enough to avow it. They denied it most strenuously at the late elections. It will be out of their power to deny it any longer. And this we think sufficiently accounts for the extraordinary appointments they have made. One word more.—Though this may be the mode of dealing among the liberals, with those over whose situations they have power, we think we may venture to say that it cannot be paralelled in the worst days of tory misrule or in the most despotic periods of the Family Compact.

MAILS.

A Colonial and United States mail, arrived at the Post Office, on Monday morning, via the Wood Islands. The Packet returning again to Pictou. This morning she brought another mail.

The H. Ingram was engaged in the absence of the Packet, to take over the mails for England, and to return, she may be expected back with a British mail on Friday.

[By Telegraph to Hx. Merchants' Reading Room.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 29th.

Steamship Atlantic, arrived at 11 o'clock this morning.

MARKETS.—Flour has advanced 6d per barrel.—Wheat has advanced 1d. per bushel.

For Tea the prices are stiffer at same quotations.

The money market is unchanged.

The Turks are gaining brilliant victories.

The California mail had arrived.

We see by the Court Records, that the two counterfeiters, White, of Buffalo, and Lawrence, of Epping, N. H. have been placed under ten thousand dollar bonds, each for making and selling, imitations of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. This is right. If the Law should protect men from imposition at all, it should certainly protect them from being imposed upon by a worthless counterfeit of such a medecine as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. We can only complain that the punishment is not half enough. The villian, who would for paltry gain, deliberately trifle with the health of his fellow man, by taking from their lips, the cup of hope, when they are sinking, and substituting a falsehood—an utter delusion, should be punished at least as severely as he who counterfeits the coin of the country.—Green Co. Banner, Carrollton, Ill.

Died

At Charlottetown, on Sunday, 4th inst., Mr. Thomas Dennis, Tinsmith, aged 58 years. Funeral to take place on Thursday, at 2 o'clock.

At Edinburgh, on the 16th, Oct. Thomas Knox, Esq., in the 79th year of his age. The deceased was the father of the Rev. John Knox, of this Island. Throughout his long life he enjoyed almost uninterrupted health, and after ten day's sickness he calmly fell asleep in Jesus, in the sure hope of a glorious and immortal life at the appearing of the Lord from heaven.
