Curliana—1883.

The ither morn, the ice was clear, The brightest sunshine o' the year Gart Scotchmen crawl like chanticleer,

The soft breath o' the southern breeze, Cam dallying through the birch n' trees, W' music like the hum o' bees.

Fou' many a whinistane might be seen, And granite stanes frae Aberdeen; Of nondescripts, there was a wheen, But aw o' use in Curling.

Wha were sae busy as the skips When ilka man his bosom grips, Tho' some carles wished they had their nips To inspire them at their Curling.

Mae's whirring stanes cam w' a bang, (Thae Scotchmen mair be awfu' strang:) His watchfu, ee' is seldom wrang, When he's intent on Curling.

Another lad, the canniest chiel, That ever cam frae Galashiels, A champion shot at a Bonspiels, A veteran han at Curling.

And Willy and Tam that's aye sae croose, And burly Jock frae Rankin's hoose, Just let the world and a' gang loose, Tae hae a game at Curling.

In memory o' late chief McGill, A curler stout in heart and will, Nae ither scot can ever fill, The cornels place in Curling.

Noo a' around rich Doric rang, In safter strains than Sappho sang, Nae Greek could imitate the twang, That graced oor game o' Curling.

The ice was graced that afternoon, By a' the beauty o' the toon, And many a graceless idle loon, Wished he'd a han' at Curling.

In war we ken auld Scotias sons, Can handle weel their swords and guns, In peace they ask nae grander fun, Than just a game o' Curling.

Scotch brains hae done the world some good, Gi' 'em parritch fit for Angels' food, Guid Whiskey too to warm the bluid, And our glorious game o' Curling.

JIM ELLIOTT, the pugilist, was shot and killed in Chicago, on the 1st instant by Jere Dunn.

ONE of the greatest gold discoveries ever made in British Columbia is that reported from Kootenay District. A prospector who has returned to Victoria from that place has brought a specimen of lead and silver ore of brought a specimen of richness and nearly pure. He marvellous richness are a vast extent and that in one location there are two hundred and fifty thousand tons of ore in sight and that the value of these mines at present discovery is fifty millions of dollars.

THE Toronto people have begun a crusade against lotteries. On the 1st instant thirty-nine citizens were brought before the police court, charged with buying and selling lottery tickets. A portion of them are in connection with the late Masonic lottery in London, Ont., but the majority of the transactions of the proposed Orange lottery in Ottawa. Two charges on this ground have been entered against the Toronto and eight against proprietors of the Orange lottery for publishing lottery advertisements. Owing to the failure of the city police to have anything to do with the matter, the service of county constables had to be resorted to in serving the defendants. The Crown Attorney, however, asserted his determination to prosecute the matter to the end.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY

AN ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION 54, HOLBORN-VINDUCT, E.C., LONDON, ANG. 8, '79 REPORT ON THE LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY: "We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."

FRED. J. GARRETT, M. D., Graduate of the London University, Dean and Registrar of the Boston Medical College of Specialists, says:—"I had tried every system of treatment for the cure of nervous prostration, partial paralysis, and abouic dyspepsia. Persuaded, much against my will, to try the Pad system, I put them on, and in two days found that the paralysis of the nerves had been conquered, the entire nervous system toned up, and now—six months from the day of application—I am free from any symptoms of nervous debility or dyspeptic tendency. In my professional practice as a Physician, in private life and among my personal friends, I shall deem it my bounden duty and my highest privilege, as an act of gratitude, to counsel and enforce this treatment, as the only reliable and effectual remedial agency having for its origin the stomach, liver, brain, and great nerve centres.
