

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Bosche's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.

A Vienna tailor waggered recently that it took more than 40,000 stitches to make a winter overcoat. To decide the question a coat was ordered and a committee of experts set to superintending the work, as well as to see that no unnecessary stitches were made.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites is not only very palatable, but the remedial power of these valuable specifics is greatly increased, and as a remedy for consumption, scrofula, emaciation, or where there is loss of flesh and nerve power, it is remarkable in its results.

Appropos of the anecdote in a recent number of Truth about the brains of James II, and the head of Louis XIV., writes Labouchere, the fate of Talleyrand's heart was as strange. The doctors who embalmed him found, on completing the job, that they had omitted to place the revered and princely heart. There was no time to reopen the body, so one of the doctors slipped the heart into the handkerchief, put it in his pocket, and on his way home, dropped it down one of the sewers.

I FEEL so well. I want to thank you for telling me of Dr. Pierce's favorite prescription, writes a lady to her friend. For a long time I was unfit to attend to the work of my household. I kept about but I felt thoroughly miserable. I had terrible backaches, and bearing-down sensations across me and was quite weak and discouraged. I sent and got some of the medicine after receiving your letter, and it has cured me. I hardly know myself, I feel so well.

New Brunswick exhibitors at the Colonial Exhibition were fortunate in having for their representative so energetic and popular a gentleman as Mr. Ira Cornwall. That his efforts in their behalf were appreciated is evident from the terms of an address recently presented to him. It bore the signature of nearly every exhibitor in the province, and was accompanied by a check for a substantial sum of money.

There are all too many pathetic incidents to the dreadful accident on the Vermont Central road, but there cannot be anything more touching than the fate of the little child four years old, that cannot give its name or its home, or any clue to its identity while those who were caring for it have been buried to cinders in the wreck.

John Wanamaker, whose immense establishment is the wonder of all who visit Philadelphia, has purchased Munkacsy's celebrated picture of "Christ before Pilate." The price paid is said to have been $100,000.

A facetious Yankee bank cashier has posted up the following significant notice: "Never address your conversation to a person engaged in adding figures. There is nothing so deaf as an adder."

Bessell, and associate officers of the Board, the reader is respectfully referred.

The Science of Life is worth more to the young and middle-aged men of this generation than all the gold mines of California and the silver mines of Nevada combined.—S. F. Charnick.

The Science of Life points out the rocks and quicksands on which the constitution and hopes of many a young man have been fatally wrecked. The Science of Life is of greater value than all the medical works published in this country for the past fifty years.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Science of Life is a superior and masterly treatise on nervous and physical debility.—Detroit Free Press.

There is no member of society to whom the Science of Life will not be useful, whether youth, parent, guardian, instructor or clergyman.—Argonaut.

Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases that have baffled Medical Art, can be cured by scientific specialty, such treated successfully without an instance of failure. A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN On the Loss of MANHOOD.

A LECTURE on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhea, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Palsy, Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M.D.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the most disastrous consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without surgical operations, tonics, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
