THEY SAID SHE WOULD DIE.

This Was The Opinion of Three Medical Men

Paine's Celery Compound Does More Life-saving Work.

MRS. CURRIER SAYS: "I OWE MY LIFE TO IT."

MRS. CURRIER.

"I take great pleasure in sending you a testimonial for Paine's Celery Compound; I certainly owe my life to it. I may state that I was sick over a year with plurisy and inflamation, and given up to die by three doctors and all my friends, when I was recommended to try Paine's Celery Compound. After using seven bottles of the wonderful medicine, I am all right again."

This brief testimony of cure by Paine's Celery Compound comes from Mrs. Currier, of Bradford, Ont., a lady well known in that town, and highly spoken of by Mr. W. L. Campbell, Bradford's popular druggist. The good people of Bradford and surrounding country speak with pleasure and delight about Mrs. Currier's happy release from suffering and danger; they know well of her many failures to obtain health by other means and medicines in the past; and to them, Paine's Celery Compound is now the ideal remedy for the cure of disease.

No production of medical science has ever attained such reputation and popularity as Paine's Celery Compound; no other agency in medicine has ever saved so many people that were given up to die.

Let it ever be remembered that Paine's Celery Compound gives the public better and stronger proofs of its efficacy than can be done by any other medicine made in the world; it always "makes people well."
