

Women

Anne Bond, Women's Editor. Phone 4-5399

8 The Guardian, Charlottetown, Sat. Nov. 10, 1962.

HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carr, Hensley Street, Charlottetown, celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary recently.

Walter M. Bears, Charlottetown, underwent major surgery earlier this week at the P.E.I. Hospital.

Miss Jessie Fullerton, Charlottetown, is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, where she underwent recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graham, Cavendish, has taken up residence at 51 Bayfield Street for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schurman, accompanied by Mrs. Norman Macdonald, left Summerside on Thursday to spend the weekend in Wolfville, N.S., guests of Dr. and Mrs. Clive Macdonald.

Among those attending the P. E. I. Temperance Federation meeting in Charlottetown at the Y.M.C.A. on Monday evening were Rev. K. B. Hobson, Mr. Frank Jardine and Mrs. L. M. Callbeck of Summerside, Miss Louise Callbeck, Mr. Arnold Henderson and Rev. P. Estabrook of Bequeche. It was decided that the annual meeting will be held in Bequeche in the Baptist Hall on November 29.

Mrs. Herbert Schurman entertained her bridge club at her home in Summerside on Wednesday evening, when a presentation of a gift for her new home was made by Mrs. L. Compton with accompanying humorous verses made for the occasion were read by Mrs. E. L. Walker.

Mrs. S. Parlee and daughter, Susan, of Moncton, N.B. left Summerside yesterday after spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Johnston.

Cpl. Peter Gray, who spent approximately eight months in Leopoldville, Congo, returned recently to the R.C.A.F. Summerside. En route he toured Rome.

Mrs. J. Lloyd Gorrell entertained the members of the Ladies' Club of the Summerside Presbyterian Church at her home on Monday evening. The president, Mrs. J. O. Cobb, was in the chair and plans were discussed for the Afternoon Tea on November 24.

Mr. Jack MacPhee of the R.C.M.P. Ottawa has been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. A. MacPhee, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker returned Wednesday to their home in Summerside after a visit in Halifax and Sydney, N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Dalton have arrived from Swift Current, Saskatchewan and taken up residence in Summerside.

Mrs. Louise Carruthers of Augustine Cove has received word from her daughter, Miss Margaret Carruthers, who is teaching English in the United Church Mission School in Hong Kong, that she had weathered the recent typhoon which had destroyed so much property making 30,000 homeless and causing over one hundred deaths. Miss Carruthers teaches Chinese children ranging in age from fourteen to seventeen, four classes in Grade Ten, with fifty in each class. She writes "The children are not angry, but industrious, very competitive and with varying knowledge and ability in English."

Mrs. Layton Schurman was hostess at bridge at her home in Summerside on Thursday evening.

Miss Doreen Baker, whose marriage to Mr. Ennor Taylor will take place this afternoon at the North Bequeche United Church, was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Alfred Cobwell, Summerside, when a number of friends gathered to tender her a miscellaneous shower. The bride-to-be opened the lovely gifts while Miss Norma Storton acted as emcee. A number of wishes. The lunch hostesses were Mrs. Grant Gallant and Mrs. Howard Cooling. During the evening instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Walter Leard who was pleasantly surprised as well as vocal solos by the bride-to-be, and were much enjoyed. Presently Mrs. A. Barlow, on behalf of the staff of the local Island Telephone Company where Miss Baker has been employed, made the presentation of a "Pop-Up Toaster."

The community of North Bequeche tendered Miss Baker a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. Jack Baker and Mrs. Erma Baker recently. To appropriate music by Mrs. Brewer Waugh, the bride-elect was escorted by Miss Adele MacCall to a decorated seat of honor over which hung a white wedding bell, which had been used fifty-five years ago at the wedding of her grandmother Baker. Baskets of attractively decorated packages were brought in by Miss Carol Baker and Mrs. Robert MacMurdo, after which Miss Diane MacMurdo and Mrs. Kenneth Royner opened the many and lovely gifts and passed them to the bride-to-be. Mrs. Sidney Green and Mrs. Benjamin Cairns read the accompanying good wishes and Miss Vivian Waugh arranged the gifts. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Miss Margaret MacDougall, Regional Secretary of Eastern Division Presbytery, held very successful workshops on the island recently, one in Zion Church, Charlottetown, when members

ELLEN'S DIARY

Remembrance Day Turns Thoughts To The War Years

What changes the falling of the leaves has made in the appearance of the countryside! Wider vistas, we can now enjoy, and more intimate views, heard and afar. It is as if a writer, Hal Borland has also discovered this to be so. He writes charmingly of this season folks are apt to pass lightly by, after the loveliness of the autumn days:

"Even as the autumn days shorten, they increase in height and breadth. It is as though there was a constant ratio which keeps the days in balance. The eye can reach new vistas. Now that the leaves have fallen, we are no longer canted from the sky, or walled in from the horizon, the sun slants in a window, where two weeks ago, there was thick maple shade. At night, I can look up and see the constellation of Andromeda and Pegasus. The earth's distance invited the eye, so must the mind stretch to meet these new horizons. I challenge anyone to stand with Autumn on a hilltop and fail to see a new expanse, not only around him, but in him too!"

November returns now another Anniversary of the Day of Remembrance. It draws. And memories come back. So good we recall it was to hear the tidings of wars' end, after the shadowed, the dim, dark splendor of those conflicts, we Islanders

Baker's summer home in Stanhope. The staff of the Toronto Dominion Bank honored Miss Mullen at an evening party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cook, Mrs. Benjamin Rogers and Mrs. William Rogers entertained for Miss Mullen at a large reception at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Rogers. Capt. and Mrs. H. P. Williams - Freeman, cousin of the groom, held a barbecue at their summer cottage at Keppoc. The groom's parents entertained members of the bridal party at a dinner following the wedding rehearsal. Mr. and Mrs. Bell are residing in Saint John, N.B.

Mrs. Garth Gillis, nee Kaye MacDougall, was guest of honour at a post nuptial shower Monday evening in the Presbyterian Hall, Montague, when she was the recipient of many lovely gifts. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Russell Dingwell and Mrs. Wellington Campbell, while the accompanying good wishes were read by Miss Margaret MacLean. Mrs. Barry White was in charge of the gift book.

Mrs. Elsie Waterworth was a pianist during the evening, and the program featured an interesting contest which was won by Mrs. Kenneth MacPhee and Mrs. Arnold Irving. Delicious refreshments were served by the lunch committee.

Mrs. Fred Wright entertained at her apartment in Summerside on Wednesday at noon at a dessert bridge party.

Mrs. Fred Wright entertained at her apartment in Summerside on Wednesday at noon at a dessert bridge party.

PRINTED PATTERN

by Anne Adams

ULTRA EASY
EXTRA EASY and extra-pretty, too - tucks flow into pleats without a stop for waist seams or fitting problems! Make this charmer in gay gingham checks now.

Printed Pattern #68; Child

MEDICAL PHARMACY
here to serve you ANY hour of the day or night

CALL 4-6623
for 24 hour service

MEDICAL PHARMACY
Corner of Pownall and Richmond St., Ch'town

and civil guards beat off an attack by an estimated 800 Communist guerrillas, and killed about 70 of the attackers, the government claimed Friday. The engagement in the Mekong River Delta Thursday about 40 miles southwest of Saigon began when the Communists launched a heavy attack against a militia outpost.

Send order to ANNE ADAMS, care of Guardian-Printer Pattern Dept., 60 Front St. W., Toronto 1, Ont.
OVER 100 ANSWERS to "what-to-wear" - in our new full color Fall-Winter Pattern Catalog. Casual, dressy, school - all sizes. Send 25 cents now.

KILL ATTACKERS
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) - South Vietnamese militiamen

FISH & CHIPS
35c Per Order
Absolute Free Delivery
Dial 4-8744
Johnson's Restaurant

A Fashion Item at HOLMAN'S

Wool Weskits... the "Boyluck" in sports-wear... whose style and appearance makes this snappy item a neat extra with skirts and stretch pants. Wears easily and beautifully over tailored blouse or sweaters... black and red only, with bright gold buttons. Sizes are 10 to 18 in this popular item... 3.98.

HOLMAN'S

Kensington Remembrance Day Service

KENSINGTON MEMORIAL—12:00 A.M.
MALPEQUE MEMORIAL—2:30 P.M.
GEDDIE MEMORIAL—3:00 P.M.

Members and veterans to assemble at Legion Home 10:30 a.m. for parade to United Church and Church of the Holy Family, 11:00 a.m. Dress, medals and berets. Banquet for members, veterans and wives at Legion Home, Monday, November 12, 7:00 p.m. sharp.

In Flanders Fields...

... a tribute of respect and honour to the dead... a constant source of inspiration to the living...

Sunday, November 11, Is Remembrance Day!

Mackenzie's HOUSE of FASHIONS
SUMMERSIDE

VERE BECK & SON LTD.

... a tribute of respect and honour to the dead... a constant source of inspiration to the living... for experienced advice in planning a suitable memorial for your loved ones, write or phone us and our representative will call on you without obligation.

Skilled Memorial Craftsmen Since 1870.
Montague
Charlottetown

"You know Fred. He looks into things carefully and he chose The Mutual Life"

Get the most from your insurance dollar
Guaranteed protection and savings—plus high dividends
See the man from
The Mutual Life ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA
The company with the outstanding dividend record

BRANCH OFFICE: Dominion Building, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
J. Eric Shephard, Branch Manager. Ph: 8513 or 8514
Representatives: J.E. Devine E.J. McCabe Ernest S. Lord
Robert V. Currie C. O. Ellis, O'Leary Jack Walmesley, Saside, P.E.I.