

"Lads And Lassies" Pipe Band For Ch'town

Something brand new is scheduled to make an appearance here next spring when the "Lads and Lassies" Pipe Band gives its first public performance in this city in March.

The band has five pipers, three boys and two girls, and four drummers, all girls. They will be completely outfitted with new pipes, drums and specially designed costumes. The versatility of the performers is shown in the fact that they can also sing well and do all the famous Scottish dances. In their striking jackets, badges and kilts they are bound to be an addition to the musical life of the Province.

The youngsters whose ages range from 12 to 15 are being taught to play by Wilfred Burke, longtime pipe major and drum major of military units here. Their dancing and singing is under the direction of Mrs. Burke, a native of Fifehire, Scotland. Pipe Major Burke will be remembered for his efforts in organizing the old Caladonia Pipe Band just after the close of World War I.

Among the young pipers are Donald and Frank Burke and Robert Ross, while the girls are Shirley Burke and Margaret Rynes who learned to pipe and dance in Scotland. The four drummer girls are Marjorie, Rita, and Noreen Smith and Jean Rynes. Also taking part with the group in singing and dancing are two smaller Burke children, a little girl 4 1/2 years old and her brother 6.

The newly organized band holds three practices a week at the Malpeque Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Burke and the latter advise they will be ready for their first public showing in Charlottetown sometime in March next year.

Promising Trout Prospects Emphasized By Dr. Saunders

The belief that there is a small gold mine to be realized on Prince Edward Island by promoting the province as a mecca for trout fishermen was expressed by Dr. J. W. Saunders last night.

A biologist at the Dominion Biological Station at St. Andrews, N. B., Dr. Saunders was addressing the quarterly meeting of the Queen's County Fish and Game Association in the Vocational School on his experiments on trout research at Ellerslie, P. E. I. He was introduced by E. K. MacNutt, President of the Association.

He said that the state of Maine has built up a very profitable trout fishing industry with far less than is in evidence here. The main reasons for the abundance of trout in Island waters are the coolness of the streams, the plentiful supply of food, and the lack of other types of fresh water fish such as eels, suckers and lampreys.

During a general discussion prior to the close of the meeting, the following resolutions were passed:

"That the meeting go on record as favouring the construction of more dams in the coming year, and that the Government, instead of building bridges, should build roads across dams, thus providing tourists with fishing spots on every road;

"That the use of live bait by tourists should be prohibited owing to the danger of new species being introduced when such bait is released in Island waters."

It was pointed out that many anglers discard live bait they don't use and by resultant propagation the trout fishing here could be threatened.

Warship And Freighter Collide

SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 4.—(Reuters)—The flagship of the Royal Australian Navy, the 10,000-ton cruiser Australia, was holed above the waterline when it collided with the 9,943-ton British freighter Somerset collided in Sydney harbor.

No one was injured and naval sources said the Australia suffered no underwater damage.

About 20 feet of the Australia's bow was crumpled, leaving holes in the plating above the waterline.

Steel plates of the Somerset's deck were cut through and about 60 feet of her railings ripped away.

The following conveners gave brief reports of the work done during the past month: Mrs. Stephen Trainor, Mrs. Peter Leclair, Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. A. T. McKinnon, Mrs. P. J. Neale, Mrs. R. J. MacDonald, Miss Gertrude Brady.

Mr. William Cullen, new convener of Girl Guides, said there were two companies of Girl Guides, twenty-five in No. Eighty Co., thirty in No. Four. Thirty-seven Guides paraded for the Royal visit.

Mrs. K. Creamer, reporting for social service, said during the month, 11 infants wear, 2 jackets and a number of items of boys' clothing was made.

One new member was introduced and welcomed by the president.

Monies voted by the Sub-Division was reported as follows: $5.00 to T. B. League; $10.00 to Holy Redeemer and Basilica churches for flowers for Christmas; $25.00 to institutions for treats during festive season; $10.00 for Christmas party for new Canadians; $50.00 to St. Vincent's Orphanage and $50.00 to Social Welfare Bureau to supplement $100.00 given a few months ago.

Decline Reported In Egg Prices

EDMONTON, Dec. 4.—(CP)—A sizable seasonal surplus of eggs has brought a sharp reduction in prices of top grades in Prairie cities.

Sharpest declines were at Saskatoon where producers today were getting 38 cents a dozen for grade A large eggs, 14 cents less than yesterday. Other declines were reported over the last week or more as surpluses exceeded domestic demand, were reported at Edmonton, Regina and Winnipeg.

The same was true in Eastern Canada, where prices were dropping in main centres. Grade A large sold in Ottawa at 69 cents a dozen, six cents cheaper than yesterday—and Toronto reported a four-cent drop to 67. The declines are expected to continue tomorrow.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Noonan introduced Miss Roland, nutritionist with the Dept. of Health and Welfare, Miss Roland addressed the meeting on Canada's Food Rules, and showed a film in connection with this work.

A hearty vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mrs. Frank Walker, seconded by Miss Marion Dougan and presented Miss Roland by Mrs. Noonan.

A social hour followed during which Miss Douglas rendered several piano selections. The hostesses were Mrs. Peter Leclair, Mrs. B. Begg, Mrs. M. Roach, Mrs. A. DeCoste, Mrs. P. J. Neale and Mrs. Fred Steele.

Would Make Use Of Kurt Meyer

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—(CP)—Clarence Campbell, a member of the prosecution at the trial of Kurt Meyer, said today he thinks the German general should be "under six feet of ground, or should have been several years ago, but since he is not, then he should be put to serving our interests in expiating the crime for which he was properly convicted."

Campbell suggested that so far as some possible action by the Canadian Government is concerned, Meyer might be paroled into the custody of the N.A.T.O. or some such organization.

Campbell, now president of the National Hockey League, said there has been an erroneous impression that Meyer was improperly convicted. Meyer was fortunate to escape the death penalty, he said.

But he added there should be a realistic approach to the situation and "we should make the best use of it we can rather than let him rot in jail."

"It's certain he won't serve the Russians. If they found him they'd shoot him on sight for crimes against them."

Campbell said he had talked recently with Lt.-Col. B. J. S. MacDonald, Canada's prosecutor at Meyer's trial, but hadn't yet seen MacDonald's prepared statement, although he knew the important part of it was "negation of the suggestion that Meyer was not properly convicted."

King conferred titles and other honors on selected members of Britain's Labor Party, which provided the country's government from 1945 until last October.

Four Socialist stalwarts were made barons. One is David Glasgow, 79, a fiery Scot from Glasgow who long has fought for the poor and under-privileged.

Viscount Jowitt, 66, who held the post of Lord Chancellor—Britain's chief law lord—in the Labour Government, was made an earl.

A knighthood was given to Dr. Walter Hanney, who treated former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, for a duodenal ulcer. Herbert Morrison, former Foreign Secretary, was made a Companion of Honor, a decoration limited to 65 holders.

The honors are awarded traditionally on the recommendation of an outgoing government. The three barons in addition to Kirkwood are:

James Milner, 62, deputy speaker of the House of Commons in the last Parliament; George Mathers, 65, former Labor whip; Frederick John Wise, farmer and veteran of two world wars, and a Labor M. P. since 1945.

Kirkwood was one of the first Socialist M.P.s in Parliament. During the First World War he was "killed" for a time to the east of Scotland after he had organized protests against high rents at Glasgow.

He declined a knighthood some years ago. He also refused a gift of a 60-acre farm offered him by Viscountess Astor, first woman to sit in the House of Commons.

Local Rotary Radio Auction Huge Success

The annual Radio Auction was reported a success last night, with all items sold and the cash contributions being higher than last year.

The annual event is sponsored by the Charlottetown Rotary Club, President Dr. E. S. Giddings, and the auction chairman, Brig. W. V. Reid, D.S.O., said that the club is very satisfied with the response of the citizens. He expressed the hope that the citizens of Montague will respond equally as well at their auction tonight.

The total proceeds, which are donated to help crippled and handicapped children and other welfare organizations, have not yet been tabulated.

The winner of the Lucky Draw, a 15-lb. Tendersweet Ham, was Mr. H. L. Smith of Rochford Street.

Sees Little Change In Freight Traffic

OTTAWA, Dec. 4.—(CP)—A Canadian Pacific Railway officer told the Board of Transport Commissioners today the company's 1957 freight traffic is not expected to change much from this year's estimate.

George F. Buckingham, general traffic manager, made the forecast in support of the railways' application before the board for a general 10 per cent increase in freight rates.

On estimated 1957 freight revenue of about $353,000,000, the company has told the board it will have a revenue "deficiency" necessitating the rate increase.

Provincial counsel opposing the expansion in the Canadian economy would send up rail income without the need of holding rates.

But today Mr. Buckingham said that, so far as he can see now, 1957 freight volume should be about the same as this year, with perhaps a variation of one or two per cent either way.

PEI Soldier Named Deputy Assistant Provost Marshal

Capt. R. W. Lawlor, Canadian Provost Corps, has been named Deputy Assistant Provost Marshal at Eastern Command, Halifax, and has taken up his new duties there. He was formerly officer commanding the National Defence Headquarters Security Guard, Ottawa.

Capt. Lawlor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawlor, Elm Avenue, this city. He went on active service in September 1939 just after the outbreak of war, in the R.C.A. and went overseas in December of that year. Returning to Canada in August 1945 he held posts in various Military Districts prior to going to Ottawa. His father, Mr. John Lawlor, is a veteran of the South African War.

P.E.I. Accountants Semi Annual Meeting

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Prince Edward Island held its Semi-Annual meeting Monday evening at the Queen Hotel, Charlottetown, in the form of a most enjoyable Dinner Meeting.

Mr. J. O. C. Campbell, K. C., Deputy Attorney General, guest speaker of the evening, was introduced by Mr. W. E. Massey, F. C. A., and addressed the meeting and registered students who attended as guests on the subject of "Chartered Accountancy as a Career." His talk with its particular references to the requirements of professional life and legal recognition of the profession, was much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. T. E. Hickey, C. A., Summerside, President of the Institute, acted as chairman, and Mr. R. W. Manning, C. A., expressed the appreciation of the audience for Mr. Campbell's address. Prior to the dinner, a business meeting of the Council of the Institute was held.

foodstuffs. But she will continue to buy Canadian wheat in the years ahead, said Mr. Gardiner, and somehow will find dollars to pay for those purchases.

Starts Predictions
J. F. Booth, the Agriculture Department's chief economist, started the predictions with the assumption that Canada and the U. S. will boost rearmament next year and the assurance that world economic activity will remain "at very high levels."

C. V. Parker, director of the Bureau of Statistics' Agriculture Division, predicted an increase in farmers' income for 1958, but anticipated that farm operating costs also will rise. Net farm income may be lower than in 1957.

Other officials gave studies on the problems of supplies and farm labor. The conference was told Canada will need between 15,000 and 20,000 new immigrants next year to fill farm labor shortages.

As for farm supplies, "No great shortages" are expected in 1958, though certain types of fertilizers and pesticides may be limited by increased defence production. Prices are expected to be about the same or slightly higher than in 1957.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—(CP)—Winston Churchill will address the House of Commons in Thursday's defence debate—his second major speech since becoming peacetime prime minister. The address will be scrutinized for pointers to what Churchill may say on his visit to Washington and Ottawa next month.
