HORSESHOEING.

HAVING secured the services of MR. WILLIAM TUCKER, a native of this Island, who has had nine years' experience as a Horse-shoer in the United States, I am prepared to supply a long-felt want in this line. Mr. Tucker has reduced horse-shoeing to a science, and is prepared to perform all classes of work in a common-sense and scientific manner. I need not inform the intelligent horseowner that the gait of the horse and condition of the feet must be understood to weight a horse properly and to successfully operate thereon. Numerous patrons already admit the merits of the work performed, and recommend his system of shoeing.
Customers can always depend on prompt attention and entire satisfaction.

RECIPROCIITY.

The Liberal candidates now seeking the suffrages of the electors of this Province, are endeavoring to obtain support by representing and stating that if Mr. Blake be returned to power, Reciprocity with the United States will immediately follow, Mr. Welsh having gone so far as to state that we would obtain it within three months after the election.
Upon what grounds or by what authority they make such statements it is difficult to conceive. They certainly cannot claim for the Grit Party that any greater efforts were made by it in the direction of Reciprocity than were made by the Conservative Party. The facts are too strongly against such a position.
The treaty of 1854 was abrogated by the Americans in 1866, since which time we have not had reciprocal trade with the United States. From 1873 to 1879 the Grit administration of Mr. McKenzie was in power, and the only action taken during the five years of Grit rule to promote reciprocal trade with the Americans, was the sending of the Hon. Geo. Brown to Washington to open negotiations on that subject. It is notorious that Mr. Brown was informed by the American Cabinet that the United States did not desire Reciprocity and they refused to negotiate. Here the matter ended so far as the McKenzie Government was concerned.
Since 1879 the Conservatives have been in power, and repeated efforts have been made to obtain reciprocity. In the first place, the Customs Act contained a clause which has become known as a standing invitation to the Americans,—as soon as they desire Reciprocity, Canada is willing to reciprocate. In 1883 Sir Charles Tupper went to Washington on the same errand. In December, 1884, negotiations were again opened with the American Government which might have terminated more favorably for Canada than they have were it not for the action taken by L. H. Davies in the House of Commons in April, 1885, although he was warned, and almost implored by Sir John Macdonald to withdraw his resolution, alleging, as a reason that negotiations of a delicate nature were then in Congress which might be injuriously affected by his action. However, Mr. Davies, who at any time will sacrifice the interests of his country for party purposes, persisted in his course, and the prediction of Sir John was two fully realized.
Now, we assert that comparing the action of the Conservative and Grit rulers of Canada on the subject of Reciprocity, there can be no possible doubt that more credit is due to the former than the latter for their exertions to obtain Reciprocity.
But that is not all. We assert that as to our fisheries, the great incentive for reciprocity with the Americans, the only benefit which Canada has derived from them so far as the United States is concerned, was obtained by the exertions of Sir John Macdonald. He was the Commissioner appointed by Her Majesty to represent Canada in the negotiation of the Washington Treaty, and whatever benefit that treaty has been to Canada is due entirely to him and to no other.
Any person who will contrast the policy of the two administrations on the trade relations of this country with the United States cannot fail, if they are honest in the matter, to acknowledge that our interests are much more likely to be protected by Sir John than by Mr. Blake. It is a very suspicious circumstance to see the American press so anxious to have Blake returned. They know, from experience, they cannot fool Sir John; but they feel assured that they can do what they please with Blake.

It should be generally known that the multitude of diseases of a scrofulous nature generally proceed from a torpid condition of the liver. The blood becomes impure because the liver does not act properly and work off the poison from the system, and the certain results are blotches, pimples, eruptions, swellings, tumors, Ulcers, and kindred affections, or settling upon the lungs and poisoning their delicate tissues, until ulceration, breaking down, and consumption is established. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will, by acting upon the liver and purifying the blood, cure all these various diseases.

THE CAMPAIGN.

A routing meeting was held at Emyvale Wednesday afternoon. Mr. D. Macdonald presided. Able speeches were delivered by Dr. Jenkins and P. Blake, M. P. P. When the last named gentleman had about concluded his remarks, Messrs. Mullally and Sutherland put in an appearance and addressed the electors. Mr. Mullally's remarks would not have been worth noticing had it not been for his light-weight attempt to arouse sectarian prejudices. Mr. Blake, in a few appropriate words, knocked every leg from under Mr. Mullally, and made him look as though he were "sorry he spoke." The meeting was unanimous in favor of the Government candidates.
MEETING AT KELLY'S CROSS.
A splendid meeting was held at Kelly's Cross at six o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The speakers were Dr. Jenkins, P. Blake, M. P. P., and Mr. Patrick, each of whom delivered stirring addresses. The city lawyers had been knocked out completely at Emyvale, and did not put in an appearance. The meeting was unanimous in support of the Liberal-Conservative candidates.
Try to promote the good of the country at large and our own Province in particular. Support the Party of Union and Progress.
The P. E. I. Subway.
(Halifax Herald.)
Mr. Blake was never more like himself than when he sneered at the proposal to construct a Subway between P. E. Island and the Mainland as a "wild cat scheme." Mr. Blake, like Mr. Jones, is principally remarkable for not believing in what other men are doing, and trying to do. Mr. Blake had no faith in the Intercolonial Railway. He had no faith in the Pacific Railway. And he is only acting like himself when he seeks to cast ridicule on the men who are seeking to unite Prince Edward Island with the other provinces by means of a Tunnel or Subway.
Senator Howlan will have this satisfaction however,—he will in all probability live to hear Mr. Blake claim support from the people of the Island on the ground that he was always "a warm friend" of the subway project. When the work is finished, as it will be in the near future, Mr. Blake can be trusted to make the same claim in regard to it, that he recently had the powers of face to make in regard to the Canadian Pacific railway. His policy is to sneer at, belittle and oppose the projects of men of faith and action. But it is also his policy when the projects are successfully accomplished in spite of him, to turn around and claim to have been always one of their warmest friends!

DON'T FORGET THE SUBWAY!
