PROF. GRADY is still at the Osborne House, and stammering ones are being made happy with the blessing of unbroken speech. What Rev. J. M. The tenor recitative, "sing ye praise" fell to Mr. Abercrombie—a stranger to Brighton. He possesses a voice of robust but sympathetic quality, and in the recitative and following air, "He counteth all our sorrows," sang with great feeling, fine enunciation, and correct intonation. He was very successful in the air, "The sorrows of death," and in the descriptive recitative, "Watchman, will the night soon pass?" achieved a decided triumph. Madame Marie Roze and Mr. Abercrombie sang the duet, "My song shall be always thy mercy," with charming effect.—Brighton (Eng.) Globe.

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION, 1886.—The cheap and convenient travelling arrangements made with the Intercolonial Railway Department from St. John, N. B., and all points to Point du Chene, and from Halifax, Mulgrave and all points to Pictou Landing, the special trip of the steamer Princess of Wales to Pictou Landing on Tuesday next, and the very favorable rates given from all points on the Island Railway will, we feel assured, induce large numbers from the sister Provinces, to visit our Island Agricultural Show, on Wednesday and Thursday next, the 6th and 7th of October.

LECTURE AT ELDON.—A correspondent at Vernon River writes: "Hearing that a Mr. Bluet, known as an Irish Evangelist, was to deliver a lecture at Eldon, I took the trouble of going there to hear him on Monday evening. St. John's Presbyterian Meeting House, contained an audience to listen to him, on his own life, etc., which filled the building about one fourth of its space. He is an attractive, though not an elegant speaker, has much in his style rather coarse, and yet in the midst of much that is witty, he occasionally gives vent to expressions really eloquent. He said that 'respectable Roman Catholics never insult people for their religion;' would it be too much to ask him to be as 'respectable?' His remarks upon Mr. Gladstone's measure on behalf of Ireland, showed his ignorance on that measure, which specially provided against any species of (so-called) religious ascendancy."

AN insurance agent, with more cheek than discretion, entered the store of a Queen Street merchant yesterday afternoon and proceeded to talk "business." He had the statistics of the rival companies as well as his own, at his finger ends and proceeded to expatiate upon them—the comparisons always being in favor of the company he represented. The Queen Street man, however, did not want a policy and told the agent as much. But this did not convince him that he was in the wrong shop, and he persisted in asserting that not only did he have a policy, but he wanted the merchant to take the policy, whereupon the agent got his dander up, and, after calling the merchant a "mule," proceeded to tell him that he knew nothing at all about insurance. This was the "straw that broke the camel's back." In a short time the merchant was over the counter and the insurance agent was sprawling outside the door. We have not heard that the agent was insured.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

PRINCE COUNTY EXHIBITION

A Highly Successful Affair.

PARTIAL LIST OF PRIZES.

AN EXCELLENT DISPLAY.

SEMMERSIDE, Sept. 30. The Exhibition opened here to-day. The number of people present is unprecedentedly large. The show of cattle and produce is well up to the average, although the competition is not so keen as we have seen it at former exhibitions.

There was a fine display of horses. In the carriage stallion competition, Hernando took first prize; Ryslyck, jr., lately imported by McRae and Robins, second; Nightingale Nat, owned by Edward Ramsay, third. Old Abdallah was on the grounds looking well.

In cart stallions, Sunk Island Hero took first prize; Brown Stout second; Prince of Wales third.

In carriage mares and foals, D. Campbell took first prize; S. Hall, second; J. McKimion third.

In draft colts, Mr. Burrows, of Wilnot Valley, took first prize; Alma Pickett, second; Wm. Schurman, North Bedouque, third.

The other prizes for horses have not yet been awarded.

Barriater was on the grounds, but was not entered. He was greatly admired, as also were the Royal Harry colts, exhibited by Samuel Dawson, Bideford, Smith's Percheron Stallion, Prince Imperial, and Alfred Schurman's colt entered in the general purpose class.

The show of cart mares and foals was very creditable, showing a decided improvement as to breeding.

William Miller's Shorthorn Cow with twincalves, as well as his yearling heifer, Miss Jumbo, were much admired.

Rev. Father Phelan, of Alberton, shows a short horn calf three months old, which weighs five hundred and fifty-six pounds.

Mr. Charles Leard, of Sea Cow Head, also shows a short horn calf three months old, which weighs about five hundred pounds.

Mr. Holman and other breeders show splendid cattle, sheep and pigs. The competition is fair.

Thomas Mills, of Indian River, shows a flock of fine bred Leicester.

Hon. Stewart Burns and W. Deacon show fine sheep.

In the Drill Shed the fruit is the most attractive exhibit. The leading exhibitors are J. R. Black, Searlestown; William Crosby, Freetown; Abram Schurman, Henry Dawson, W. T. Hunt, Mrs. Albert Tanton and Miss Florence Kelly.

The display of vegetables is hardly up to the exhibit of last year.

Judge Kelly shows some very fine samples.

Mr. Seales, St. Eleanors, exhibited cabbages weighing thirty-four pounds each.

Mr. Pound, of Margate, shows some finely finished buggies and sleighs.

The Hall Manufacturing Company exhibit Agricultural Machines.

H. A. Compton exhibits several well finished suits of furniture.

The show of grain is good and large.

The Exhibition at Georgetown

A GRAND SUCCESS.

A Splendid Display.

FOUR THOUSAND PEOPLE PRESENT.

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 30. The annual King's County Exhibition was opened at one o'clock to-day by His Honor Lieut. Governor Macdonald. Hon. D. Gordon presented His Honor with an address, to which he replied, congratulating all concerned upon the success of the Exhibition.

The Exhibition is, on the whole, a grand success. About four thousand people are present. Splendid exhibits of cattle are made by Messrs. Boyer, Dewar, Smith, Hamilton and others. The exhibition of horses is large, and many fine animals are present, among which is Mr. Clow's horse Stockman, which is the centre of attraction.

In the Drill Shed the display is excellent, and much larger than at previous exhibitions. There is a splendid display of fruit, and the other departments are also well stocked.

Wiggins' Great Storm.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF IT?

People in Suspense

ST. JOHN'S, Sept. 30. "What's the matter with Wiggins?" was a stock question yesterday. Everybody asked it, and the person questioned invariably smiled. The sun shone forth more brilliantly than for some days. There was scarcely a breath of wind. Taken altogether, yesterday was as fine a September day as one expects to enjoy in this part of the world.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29. To-day was the most beautiful and really the only fine day we have had for a fortnight. There was no storm, no earthquake, and visibly no Wiggins.

HALIFAX, Sept. 29. The weather here is fine and calm. No sign of Wiggins' storm.

Salvation Army Festivities.

TORONTO, Sept. 28. The Salvation Army festivities in connection with Gen. Booth's visit are continued to-day. A business meeting was held in the temple in the morning, over 2000 soldiers being present. This afternoon there was a grand parade of 2500 officers and soldiers. The Gen. delivered a very interesting address in the temple to-night on the system of their work, showing that they adapt their methods to circumstances. The meeting was characterized by the utmost enthusiasm.

On the War Path.

CROW CREEK AGENCY, Mr., Sept. 29. There are 500 Blood Indians now on the war path, raiding everything on this side of the line in revenge for the killing of six of their number by the Gros Ventres bands. Unless some stringent measures are taken, and that at once, we will be in the same condition we were ten years ago, at their mercy away from the settlements.

Burned to Death.

AMHERST, N. S., Sept. 29. Gideon P. Read, aged 69 years, was burned to death in his house at Amherst shore last night. He and his wife had retired to bed, and shortly afterwards he awoke her telling her the house was on fire. She escaped with difficulty, but in some way he missed getting out.

Further Postponed.

MARBLEHEAD, MASS., Sept. 29. At 9 o'clock this morning the wind was blowing 25 miles an hour, and Commodore Hovey ordered the yachts to get in readiness for the race at 10.30. Both yachts were ready, but the wind died out altogether and the race was postponed till to-morrow.

Cholera's Ravages.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29. Cholera is still raging throughout Japan. Between August 28 and September 5th, inclusive, nine days, 13,348 new cases were reported and there were 8,472 deaths. In Tokio alone there were 2,352 cases in nine days, over 63 per cent., of which proved fatal.

Shocks of Earthquake.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 29. The people of Elizabethtown were badly frightened last night by two shocks of earthquake, which followed each other in quick succession. Buildings swayed sufficiently to rattle doors and windows.

The Island Delegation.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29. The Prince Edward Island delegation had an interview this afternoon with the Minister of Finance, who returned here at noon yesterday from Nova Scotia, in regard to Provincial matters.

Indians in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29. The Indian Chief Crowfoot and his brother, Three Bulls, in charge of Father LaCombe, passed through the city to-day on their way to Montreal.

Analyzing the Misrepresentations.

THE ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. imply in their advertisements that the New York State Board of Health endorse their Powder as the only Pure Baking Powder in the market. The following copy of a letter sent them by direction of the New York State Board of Health explains itself.

FEBRUARY 6th, '85. To the Manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder. GENTLEMEN:—In numerous advertisements of your wares it is made to appear that this Board has declared your Powder to be pure—indeed the only pure Baking Powder in the market. Such a misrepresentation is wholly unwarranted by the report to which your advertisements refer, and if Dr. Love has given any certificate specifying the qualities of your product, it was in his private capacity and not as analyst of this Board. I have therefore, to request that you desist from connecting the State Board of Health with any pretended special advertisement of your Powder, and that if you publish Dr. Love's name you omit the title of analyst to this Board—a position he does not occupy. I am your obedient servant, ALFRED LUDLOW CARROLL, M. D., Sec. and Ex. Officer. New York State Board of Health. From "New England Grocer," April 16, '86. Sept. 29, '86.
