

AFTER THE FIGHT.

The unanimity with which all respectable persons—of every class and denomination—condemn the rowdiness exhibited on Thursday evening last is gratifying and reassuring. We have much pleasure this morning in publishing the remarks, made to his flock yesterday, by the Rev. D. McDonald, and also the resolution unanimously passed by the Congregation of St. Dunstan's last night.

We have no doubt that the members of the Orange Order in this city will, before many days pass, take measures to publicly express their disapprobation of the conduct of those among them who injudiciously—to use a mild term—made use of deadly weapons at the commencement of the disturbance.

From the remarks of the Rev. Mr. McDonald, and from the terms of the resolution—which latter, we believe, would have been even stronger than it is but for the fear that it might operate to the prejudice of prisoners on trial—it is plain to everyone that our Roman Catholic fellow-citizens—although feeling sore at the demonstration—repudiate heartily the action of the rowdies of Thursday last.

A most unworthy attempt has been made by certain interested individuals to connect the whole Catholic population of Charlottetown with the disgraceful disturbances. That the majority of those who were arrested are Roman Catholics—in name at least—there can be no doubt. But we cannot see upon what principle of fairness or justice the Catholics, as a community, are to be identified with and held responsible for the unseemly conduct of some rowdy men and lads—whose fault is in no way lessened because they were drunk. No person but a bigot lost to all sense of reason or a knave who desired to make capital out of sectarian animosities, would think of asserting that Roman Catholic Ecclesiastics or laymen look with any favor upon the disturbance or riot.

MEETING OF ST. DUNSTAN'S CONGREGATION.

A MEETING of the Catholic Congregation was held in St. Dunstan's Reading Room on the evening of the 15th inst.

The meeting was organized by appointing the Honorable A. A. McDonald to the Chair, and the undersigned Secretary.

The Chairman briefly expressed the object of the meeting, when Owen Connolly, Esq., submitted the following resolution, which was seconded by Messrs. Thomas Handrahan and Patrick Blake:—

Whereas certain disturbances took place on the 12th of July, instant, on account of which aspersions have been cast upon the Catholics in this city.

Therefore resolved, that the Catholic citizens discontinue and reparate all connections and sympathy with the disturbance on Thursday night last; and Further resolved, that we deeply regret there should be, in this mixed community, processions calculated to excite angry feelings and ill-will.

After several gentlemen expressed their opinions, the above resolution was carried unanimously.

F. J. CONROY, Secretary.

SUPREME COURT—TRINITY TERM.

SATURDAY, July 14.

McLure v. John S. McKay, M. D. After four days sitting and four hours deliberation the jury on this case rendered a verdict for the defendant.

Court adjourned.

FRAUD.—On the 11th a policeman applied to Madam M'delle Boutelle, Clairvoyant, for information relating to the sum of $9.75, which was lost in the city a short time ago. On his application she informed him that she could tell of the present, past and future for the small sum of one dollar. He stated the case and informed her if she could tell him where he could obtain the money lost he would give her the reward and fees besides. Madam M'delle received a dollar in advance but failed to give the necessary information. Consequently, the officer arrested her on charge of fraud. The trial will take place today.

THE DISTURBANCE ON THURSDAY!

Investigation by the Stipendiary Magistrate.

Evidence of Sworn Witnesses.

SATURDAY, July 14, 1877.

The City v. William McCannell; discharging firearms.

DR. CREAMER SWORN.—Stated, about 7 1/2 o'clock was standing on steps at Dr. Jenkins'. There was a trifling scuffle on the middle of the street. Wm. McCannell came down to the Lodge door and fired two shots. No stones were fired up to this time. There was then a number of shots fired, then stones. To Mr. Shaw—Did not see any disturbance between crowd and Orangemen up to this time. To Mr. Peters—Two Orangemen went across the street into the crowd and raised a disturbance; did not see the men return; no shots were fired previous to the two by McCannell.

AUBREY HAMILTON SWORN.—Was at Apothecaries' Hall between 7 and 8 o'clock. Saw a shot fired from the door of the Hall. Could not identify the person who fired. To Mr. Peters—There was a crowd surging backwards and forwards. Could not say if there were fifty in the crowd. Heard two or three shots. To Mr. Shaw—No stones were fired up to the time of shots being fired. To Mr. Peters—I am positive that no shots were fired from the other side of the street towards the Hall.

JOHN A. McDONALD, SWORN.—(To Mr. Shaw) Was at Apothecaries' Hall when procession went into Lodge room. I moved on to Quirk's. Saw a fuss. Some persons were struggling on the street, heard some pistol shots coming from the direction of the Hall. To Mr. Peters, there was a big crowd and five or six were in the row; the row was up before the shots were fired.

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE here, on application of counsel, allowed this case to stand over until after the trial of the rioters, as on that trial the particulars of the firing would more fully be elicited. Those arrested on charge of rioting were then called as follows:—Alex. McCabe, Patrick Malone, Nicholas Collins, Frank McGuigan, Michael Dooley, John Potter, Frank McCarthy, William McDonald, John Thornton, James Carroll, Martin Carroll, Frank Dalton, Jeremiah Sweeney, Callaghan McKinnon, John Maloney, Angus McDonald, Richard Power, Patk. McKenna, Patk. McGuigan, Patk. Brennan, Thomas McCluskey, Frank McAdam, Bernard McCarey.

JOHN H. MCKENZIE, SWORN.—To Mr. Peters: When selling tickets on the wharf in the morning, I heard words to the effect that they were going away very quiet, but they would not be so before to-morrow morning. On returning in the evening I went in procession to the Hall. It was about eight o'clock. I stayed in the Hall three or four minutes and then went out. The street was nearly blockaded. About 150 people were between Apothecaries' Hall and Carter's. I went back to the Hall and then tried to cross to F. H. Campbell's. I had a beaver hat on. Some one said, "Here is a beaver hat coming." I was immediately struck with two stones, by one of which I was marked. Was seized and struck by one of the crowd (identifies Jer. Sweeney), and was carried towards the door of the Lodge by the crowd. There were stones fired from the street towards the Hall, but I cannot say they struck it. I then heard a shot from opposite the Hall on the other side. There was something said about revolvers. More shots were fired, but do not know from what direction. Crowd then opened up and cleared. I went again to the Hall and stayed there till the crowd dispersed. Cannot tell whether any particular harm was done in the crowd while the row was going on. The windows of the Hall were damaged by stones. Stones were dangerous to those inside. The flag (part Union Jack and part Orange) was up, but it was lowered at the request of the Stipendiary Magistrate. To Mr. Doyle: On going to the boat in the morning I heard the remark—to the best of my knowledge—"they are going away nice now, but they will not be so before morning." Will not swear to the exact words. A toast was given on board the boat to the following effect: "To the memory of King William crossing the water on the 12th of July." Something was added, meaning that this was the anniversary of our release from the thralldom. Do not think the word Papacy was used. I am not sure about the words in reference to the beaver hat. I will not swear that the first shot came from the Hall. I think it came from the other side of the street. I saw revolvers pointed and saw the shots. Can't tell who the owners of the pistols were. Did not see Sergt. Allan fire a shot, nor Mr. McCannell, nor Rev. S. G. Lawson. I was on the platform at the Hall door. Heard shots on the street. Did not see Archy Ramsay in the Hall with a pistol. Cannot tell half the men who had pistols. Do not know one in the Hall who fired a pistol. I had one and fired, but stones were thrown before I fired. I fired to disperse the crowd—less than six shots, and saw others fire. To Mr. Shaw (in trying to identify Sweeney): I heard a person in Court say to Mr. Peters, "that is Sweeney."

JOHN ALLEN SWORN.—To Mr. Peters.—I was marshal of the procession. There was a noise and cheering at the wharf in the morning, and stones were thrown. Martin Carroll was in the crowd from which the stones were thrown, and appeared to be ringleader (identifies Carroll). We went quietly to the Hall. There was a crowd of over 150. They were very orderly; but appeared to crowd up as we entered the Hall. I requested the crowd to retire, and was obeyed. I was, I think, the last to enter the Hall; for, I believe, the Orange men all entered under the flag. I heard one of our men abused by the crowd. We were about to go to the street, and got jammed in the Hall. Stones were thrown from the street, which struck the door and walls, and broke the windows. It was dangerous inside. Pistols were fired. I objected to firing. I was not in lodge when shots were fired. I was below. I saw Wm. McCannell, of the Orangemen, fire a shot into the air. He fired only one. Stones were being thrown. When in lodge heard one shot fired before McCannell's. I could not identify any of the crowd as rioters. There was no noise before the shot was fired. Orangemen went down to relieve McKenzie. A man ran away from the crowd and they followed him. On returning from the steamer in the evening we agreed to return to the Hall by the morning's route so as to avoid too much attention. A crowd of about 150 followed us. I had a pistol. To Mr. Shaw—I carried the pistol in self defence. I believe that our party had pistols. I borrowed my pistol, and returned it again. It was loaded. I saw stones thrown. Don't know Angus or William McDonald. Can't identify Martin Carroll. Did not play "St. Patrick's Day," and was sorry did not play the "Byno Water." Don't know if the "Last Rose of Summer" or "Croppie lie Down" was played. I proposed three cheers for Prince William of Orange, also for Queen Victoria. There was a shot fired at the Hall. Cannot swear that the first shot was fired in the street. Saw one shot—Mr. McCannell's—saw the pistol fired in the air. I heard no persons conversing respecting the firing of the first shot. I do not think it was necessary to fire a pistol.

COURT adjourned for half-an-hour.

WILLIAM WOOD, SWORN.—To Mr. Peters.—Am not an Orangeman and am rather too old now. In evening I walked along with procession towards Hall and was on side walk at Campbell's shop when the Orangemen entered. I heard a shot and saw the smoke of a pistol about 15 or 20 yards North of me. The smoke was higher than my head. Immediately after the Hall door was opened and several Orangemen came out and Mr. John McKenzie was struck. I made my way over to aid him. I heard other shots near Crabbe's. I could identify no one. The crowd scattered after the shots and the Orangemen gathered towards their Hall and stones were then fired at them. I saw Mr. Moore struck but do not know who fired the stone. To Mr. Bayfield—I am not an Orangeman but I would like to be. I will not swear it was not an Orangeman who fired the first shot; but the shot was fired towards the Hall. I did not see the flash and the bullet might have struck on Quirk's side, but I don't believe it did. I do not know of the shots injuring any one. The shots were fired in the air.

FRANCIS STANLEY, SWORN.—To Mr. Peters.—I was at the wharf in the evening and came to the Hall with the procession. I saw Sweeney in the crowd opposite the Hall. Myself and Morgan crossed the street to the door of the Hall. When nearly all of the procession were in somebody pushed Sweeney against the Orangemen. Sweeney said d—n you, don't you push against me. I caught Sweeney to prevent his being troublesome, and he quieted down. Four or five of the Orangemen came out on the platform by Crabbe's. McKenzie went into the crowd. I saw his beaver hat struck, but don't know who did it. Then saw a rush in another direction, and saw an Orangeman struck by a stone. The Orangeman took a flask out of his pocket and threw it back at the man who struck him. Heard shots. There was no great disturbance on the street till the shots were fired. Then the crowd backed off. Stones were thrown, but none were thrown at the windows till after the shots were fired. The Orangemen got inside and closed the door. Stones were thrown by Sweeney, (prisoner), Thomas Butler, Patk. McGuigan, Angus McDonald, John Power (son of widow Power), John Power (son of Michael Power), Martin Carroll and Thomas McCluskey. The names on the list I made at the time. The crowd brought a ladder out of Oller's gangway and endeavored to erect it against the wall, but did not succeed. Calls were made to "pull down that flag," "pull down that rag." The Stipendiary Magistrate arrived and addressed the crowd. Asked them would they disperse if the flag were taken down. He said, you will promise not to throw stones if the flag is taken down. They said, "we will." The Magistrate went to the Hall and asked the flag to be lowered. After a while the flag was lowered. To Mr. Reddin—I did not say shots were fired before stones were thrown. I was on the platform a few yards from where the shots were fired. I made a memo. of the names at the time. Several others were there. I saw McKenzie (the former witness). He was trying to get out of the crowd. I identify Patrick McKenna. To Mr. Bayfield—I saw John H. McKenzie in the Court just now looking for Sweeney to identify him. Sweeney was not responsible for being pushed against the Orangemen, I know him (Sweeney) well, and saw him throw stones. I was in the crowd for the purpose of taking notes. Orangemen are bound not to divulge anything that happens during lodge hours. We are bound by our oaths to tell the truth. Don't know if any instructions were given at the meeting respecting the evidence of firing shots. I saw shots fired out of the window and pistols in the hands of some in the Lodge. I consider the firing very injudicious, but not riotous. I called out to the men not to fire. The Orangemen were not there for the purpose of fighting. I saw Carroll throw stones after the shots were fired. I did not take notes of the doings of the Orangemen. Did not think they were doing anything to be noted. Heard young Oller had a pistol, but did not see it.

COURT adjourned till Monday forenoon, and the prisoners were admitted to bail—prisoners in $200 each and two freehold sureties of $200 each. All got bail except two.
