Mr. John B. Myrick, Tignish, director of Fisheries Council of Canada has gone to Ottawa, to attend the annual convention of the Fisheries Council of Canada which is to be held for three days in the Chateau Laurier. Mrs. Myrick accompanied her husband to Canada's capital.

Friends regret the serious illness of Mrs. Charles P. Gaudet, Tignish, and wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. William Glohcasey, Tignish, spent a day of last week in Alberton visiting her sister Mrs. Emmett McCue and Mr. McCue.

Miss Iris MacDonald, telephone operator at Alberton came to Tignish last week to attend the St. Patrick's Concert and while here was the over-night guest of her sister, Mrs. Carlyle Trainor and Mr. Trainor.

Mr. Edward Martin is receiving a hearty welcome home to St. Felix after a six months spent in Toronto, Ontario.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Charles MacInnis on the death of his father, Mr. Marcellus MacInnis, Lakeview. Mr. and Mrs. MacInnis went by automobile to attend the funeral and remained there with Mr. MacInnis' mother for one week.

Miss Marcella LeClair, Summerside was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas LeClair, Ascension last week. Miss LeClair attended the St. Mary's Hall during the time of her visit.

Friends of Mr. Harold Shea, Anglo-Tignish will be pleased to know that the injuries he received recently were not as serious as first reported. Mr. Shea became entangled in the reins while tying a horse and he tripped and fell to the ground, the animal kicked him unconscious and with a gash on the forehead which required six stitches to close Mr. Shea was found by his son John who immediately called Dr. S. Bandler of Alberton who gave him treatment at home, and then had him enter the Western Hospital, Alberton for X-rays and further care. After several days in the hospital, Mr. Shea was able to return home and resume his regular farm duties.

While driving from Nall Pond to Tignish by horse and sleigh a few evenings ago Mr. Alyre Gallant and Mr. Medric Perry met with an accident when the runner of the sleigh ran up on the bank of snow left piled by the road side by the Government plough when they cleared the highway for traffic and the sleigh overturned throwing the two men out onto the icy road injuring them both. A taxi was called from Bernard's Taxi and they were rushed to Western Hospital, Alberton, where upon arrival Mr. Gallant was found to have six broken ribs and Mr. Perry a dislocated shoulder. Doctor Bandler was summoned and in a short time had their injuries cared for and both men were feeling better and were able to return to their homes, and are now making good progress towards health.

CAT PROBLEM

VANCOUVER (CP) — A total of 4,825 cats were destroyed by the Humane Society here last year but the society's greatest problem is still stray cats. An official told the annual meeting of the S.P.C.A. that the waterfront and downtown areas are "full" of them.

Crapaud and Vicinity

Mrs. Leroy Howatt is at present confined to bed with the usual complaint of the present spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, former residents of Crapaud, now reside in Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Grace Myers ("Aunt Grace") was warmly welcomed back to her old home in Crapaud after a long absence.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Molyneux, Crapaud, is back to normal after a disrupting siege of the flu.

—Rev. John M. Sheen, Elmisdale, was a visitor to O'Leary on Thursday, March 29.

Miss Gloria Read, student at Mount Allison University in Sackville, N.B. spent Easter in Coleman the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Read.

The teacher of the Brae School, at her home in Freeland, the Miss Donna Palmer, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer.

The many friends of Mrs. Harry MacKinnon of the Brae will regret to learn that she is on the sick list and unite in wishing her a speedy return to health.

Miss Dorothy Read who is employed with the Bank of Nova Scotia in Summerside was a recent visitor to her home in Coleman the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Read.

Easter services were conducted in the Church of Scotland in Coleman by the minister, Rev. Harvey Bishop of Charlottetown. He also spoke in the Millo Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacKinnon and family of Miscouche have returned to their home after visiting Fred's parents in Brae, Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacKinnon.

Miss Betty Barwise, teacher at the Knutsford School, spent the Easter holidays at her home in Springfield West, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barwise.

Mr. Fred McMillan spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McMillan of Rosebank. Fred is continuing his studies in music and voice culture in Yarmouth, N. S. during this past winter.

Miss Ada Oulton who is attending Business College in Summerside spent the Easter vacation at her home in Glenwood the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Oulton.

Miss Pearl Craig, vice-principal of the O'Leary High School spent the Easter holidays with her brother and sister, Mr. Heber and Miss Ella Craig of Poplar Grove. She also attended the Teachers' Convention in Charlottetown.

Sherla Ellis, O'Leary entertained a number of her friends on Thursday, March 29 on the occasion of her 13th birthday. Games and contests were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. The young guest of honor received a number of gifts from her friends and good wishes for many more happy birthdays.

One of the grand old ladies of Glenwood is Mrs. Livingstone, known affectionately as "Aunt Margaret" recently passed another milestone and is now 97 years young. She received many visitors who offered their congratulations and many cards and messages of congratulations. She enjoys very good health and was able to escape the flu. She has a hobby, crocheting, and does very lovely and beautiful work.

Rev. H. M. and Mrs. Burgess and daughter Carolyn are receiving a cordial welcome to O'Leary. They are now stationed in Oxford, N.S., but for over three years Rev. Mr. Burgess was the minister of the Church of the Nazarene in O'Leary. He spoke on Thursday night March 29 at the O'Leary Nazarene Church in the interests of Young Peoples work. He will be speaking in the different Nazarene Churches in the Province.

The many friends of Rev. Earl and Mrs. Leard who are missionaries of the United Church of Canada in India will be pleased to learn of the birth of a son on Easter Sunday, March 25 at the United Church Mission Hospital, India, William Harwood. Rev. Mr. Leard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Leard of Cascumpec. He has always been interested in Young Peoples work and was one of the leaders in the Western Presbytery Young Peoples Union of the United Church. After his ordination he engaged in Young Peoples work in the headquarters of the United Church in Toronto and about one year ago went with his bride nee Miss Eleanor Harwood of Toronto to Indore, Madhya Bharat, Central India. Mrs. Leard is a University graduate and has been very active in women's work in the United Church.

The O'Leary United Church Young Peoples Union met on Thursday night, March 29 in the Sunday School room of the church with the president, Miss Hester Bostes presiding, and conducting opening worship. Plans were made for sponsoring the play "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town" presented by Springfield West players in the O'Leary Hall on Wednesday night, April 11. The minister Rev. W. G. Dickson then spoke on the topic "The Centrality of the Cross in Christian Experience" showing what the Cross has meant to some of the choicest saints during the past 20 centuries including Mary Magdalen, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Paul, Wesley, Florence Nightingale and David Livingstone and also stressing what the Cross means today. The meeting closed by the Mizpah Benediction.

EGLETON AND HOWE BAY
W. I.

The March meeting of the Eglington and Howe Bay Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond MacDonald. Meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. MacKenzie. Ten members
